NCAA INFRACTIONS REPORT

The NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions issued a decision dated March 6, 2015 in which the committee found Syracuse University responsible for certain violations of NCAA legislation.

The specific infractions, largely arising out of conduct from the past decade that the University voluntarily self-reported to the NCAA, regard: (a) impermissible extra benefits in the form of money, food, or transportation provided to certain student-athletes on the men's basketball, women's basketball, and football teams by a non-employee representative of the University's athletics interests; (b) unethical conduct committed by three football student-athletes and a part-time tutor regarding the student-athletes' involvement in an internship for academic credit at the part-time tutor's place of full-time employment; (c) the former director of basketball operations and a former receptionist's unethical conduct when they engaged in academic fraud with a former men's basketball student-athlete; (d) a former tutor and a former receptionist's provision of impermissible academic extra benefits to three former men's basketball student-athletes; (e) although testing and enforcement occurred, the University's failure to follow its written drug testing procedures for student-athletes; (f) the men's basketball staff's provision of more than two complimentary admissions on several occasions; (g) the failure of three athletics department staff members to report outside income or benefits to the University's chancellor; (h) the participation of former student-athletes in approximately 12 promotional activities without completing the promotion activity forms, and one former student-athlete fundraising for a charitable organization when the funds actually went to a commercial entity; (i) the participation of a former women's basketball student-athlete in an organized basketball game outside of intercollegiate competition; (j) the provision of impermissible transportation by two institutional employees to one former men's basketball student-athlete and one former football student-athlete; (k) the head basketball coach's failure to promote an atmosphere of compliance within his program or to monitor the activities of those who reported directly and indirectly to him; and (l) the University's failure to exercise control and monitor the conduct and administration of its athletics programs.

In the decision, the Committee on Infractions imposed a period of five years probation on the University from March 6, 2015 through March 5, 2020. Additional information regarding the decision and the penalties imposed are available upon request.

PIPELINE TO THE PROS

Since the birth of the program in 1889, more than 300 Syracuse players have gone on to careers in professional football. In 2008, the NFL Network named Syracuse the No. 8 "Football Factory" for its production of NFL talent, which includes eight members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1959 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Undefeated and untied, the 1959 Orange capped an 11-0 season with a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse dominated its foes both offensively and defensively under the direction of consensus national coach of the year Ben Schwartzwalder. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 regular-season games. Running back Ernie Davis led an Orange offense that averaged 451 yards per game. Guard Roger Davis, who was selected seventh overall by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft, end Fred Mautino, halfback Gerhard Schwedes and tackle Robert Yates earned All-America honors.

THE LEGEND OF 44

The running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that greatness has revolved around one jersey number — No. 44. It is one of the most storied numbers associated with any college football program. Three players who have donned No. 44 are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those three — Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little — rank among the finest running backs to ever play the game. Overall, 25 players have worn the historic jersey.

1961 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER: ERNIE DAVIS

In 1961, the Civil Rights Act was three years from becoming a reality. It would be four years until the voting rights of all Americans were protected by federal law. But, an unassuming sports hero was about to play an important, yet unintentional, role in the burgeoning civil rights movement. On Dec. 6, 1961, Syracuse University running back Ernest R. Davis was awarded the Heisman Trophy. It was the first time an African-American was honored as college football's best player, even though they had participated in the game since the late 1800s.

As a sophomore, Davis rushed for a team-high 686 yards and scored 10 touchdowns to power Ben Schwartzwalder's 1959 Orange to a 10-0 regular-season record, the nation's No. 1 ranking and a Cotton Bowl showdown with Texas. With the collective eyes of the college football world focused on Dallas, Davis captured MVP honors, scoring two touchdowns – one on an 87-yard halfback option pass from captain Gerhard Schwedes – and setting up a third to spark a 23-14 Orange triumph.

In 1960, Davis led the squad in rushing again with 877 yards and scored 10 more touchdowns to earn All-America accolades. Davis paced SU on the ground for a third time in 1961, rushing for 823 yards and scoring 15 touchdowns. In the Liberty Bowl, he ran for 140 yards on 30 carries and scored SU's first touchdown as the Orange rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to nip Miami (Fla.), 15-14.

A unanimous selection for his second first-team All-America honor, Davis was then rewarded with the 1961 Heisman Trophy. President John F. Kennedy sent the following telegram to Davis in 1963 after a celebration of Davis' achievements in Elmira, New York:

> "Seldom has an athlete been more deserving of such a tribute. Your high standards of performance on the field and off the field reflect the finest qualities of competition, sportsmanship and citizenship. The nation has bestowed upon you its highest awards for your athletic achievements. It's a privilege for me to address you tonight as an outstanding American, and as a worthy example of our youth. I salute you."

Hoping to team the talented Davis with his SU backfield predecessor and NFL rushing king Jim Brown, Cleveland Browns owner Art Modell traded for Davis after Washington selected him with the first overall pick in the annual draft. But before the former Orange stars could suit up together, Davis contracted leukemia and died on May 18, 1963. He was 23.

In the fall of 1979, Davis, who had taken the greatness of SU's No. 44 from Jim Brown and passed it on to Floyd Little, was a posthumous inductee into the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame. In 2008, "The Express," a motion picture about Davis' life, premiered in downtown Syracuse. Syracuse University has honored Davis in many ways, including with the retirement of his No. 44, erecting a statue of him on the University Quad, building Ernie Davis Hall, and celebrating the 50th anniversary of his historic Heisman victory with an event at the New York Historical Society Museum in New York City in 2011.

ALL-AMERICANS

During Syracuse's 126-year football history, Orange players have earned more than 100 All-America awards from national selectors. Bill Horr became the program's first All-American in 1907 when the legendary Walter Camp named Horr to his second team. Current New York Giants quarterback Ryan Nassib is the most recent Orange standout to receive recognition. Nassib was picked to the Pro Football Weekly All-America First Team in 2012.

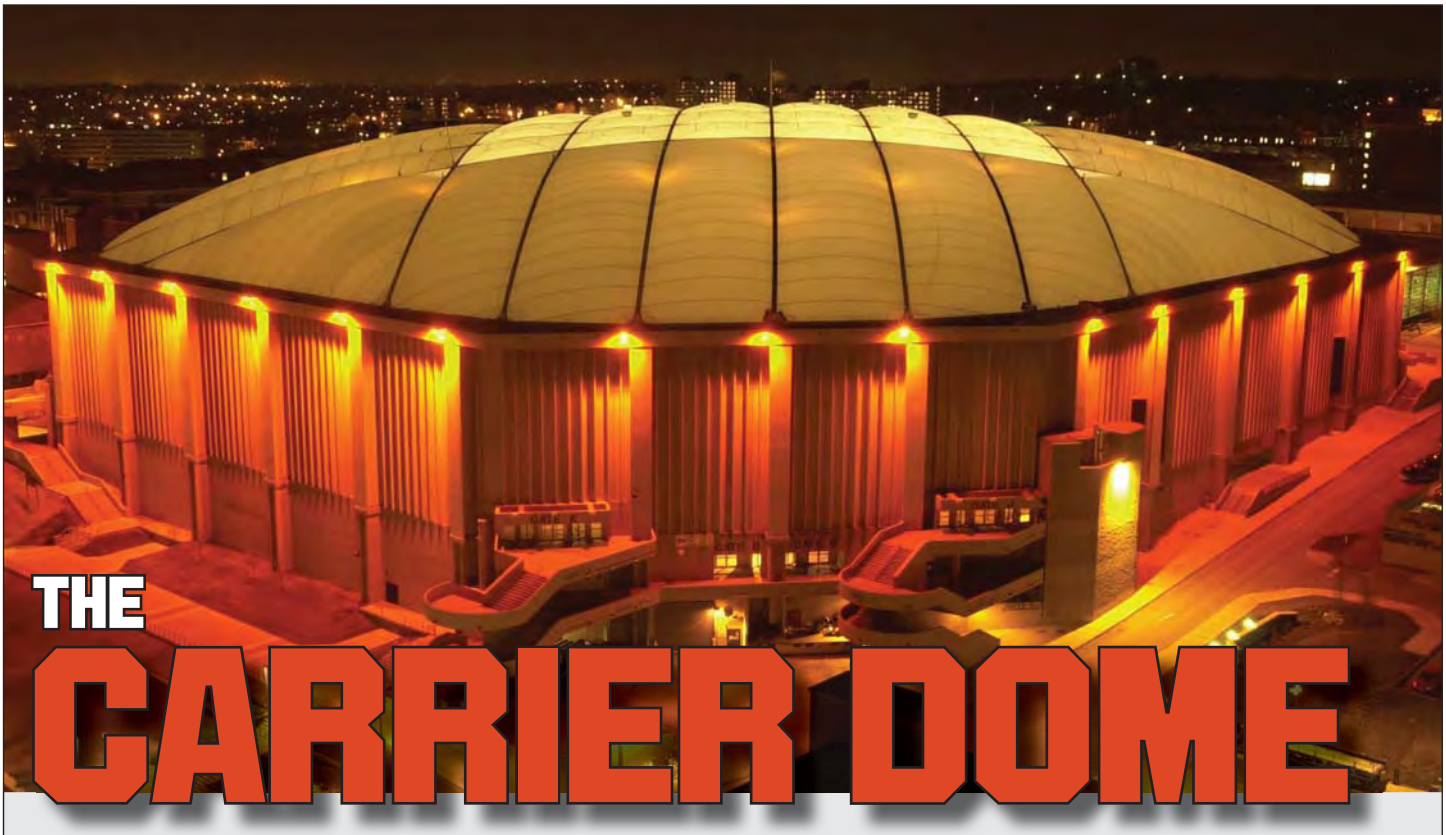
BOWL TRADITION

Syracuse is 15-9-1 in its 25 bowl appearances and has won five of its last six postseason games. From 1989-96, the Orange won seven consecutive bowl games, the seventh-longest, bowl-winning streak in the history of college football. Syracuse has played in 16 different bowl games in all and the program's .620 bowl winning percentage ranks seventh all-time among schools with at least 15 appearances.

NEW YEAR'S SIX

During its illustrious history, Syracuse has earned invitations to all six bowls that are part of the College Football Playoff – the Rose, Sugar, Orange, Fiesta, Peach and Cotton Bowls.



THE CARRIER DOME

One of the "Seven Wonders" of the college athletics world, the Carrier Dome was the first domed stadium built in the Northeast. Since it opened in 1980, more than 9 million fans have passed through the building's gates to watch Syracuse football. In 2016, the University announced more than $250 million worth of enhancements to the Dome, including a state-of-the-art roof, that will transform the stadium into one of the finest facilities in all of sports.

THE LOUD HOUSE

“There’s no place like the Carrier Dome. It’s the loudest place. Nobody liked coming to play us there. You can talk to any of the guys in the NFL right now who played there and they’ll tell you. The Dome was the worst place to come to play.”

– Dwight Freeney – All-American & Super Bowl Champion

FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES

The Ensley Athletic Center and Iocolano-Petty Football Complex stand as symbols of Syracuse University's commitment to providing an exceptional student-athlete experience. Named in honor of three-sport letterwinner Cliff Ensley, the 87,000-square foot Ensley Athletic Center offers a full-sized, indoor, FieldTurf practice field identical to the Carrier Dome. The Iocolano-Petty Football Complex embodies the long and storied tradition of the Syracuse football program. The facility features a Carrier Dome theater, state-of-the-art player lounge, locker room and cafeteria, as well as displays honoring the team's all-time greats.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Student-Athlete Academic Development

The Stevenson Educational Center, located in Manley Field House, is home to the Syracuse Student-Athlete Academic Development staff. The center features a computer lab, tutor rooms, a career development suite, and meeting rooms for day, as well as evening, study-table sessions.

The educational center team is involved in additional activities designed to enhance academic performance. Orientation programs for incoming student-athletes are held at the beginning of the first semester in order to aid in the transition from high school to college. Career planning programs assist those who are undecided on their major course of study. As student-athletes approach the end of their college careers, programs coordinated by the academic development staff help them enter the work force or explore opportunities for graduate school.

One of those programs is "SU RISE Life Skills," which is designed to provide student-athletes with proactive and continuing education to develop the skills necessary to excel in the classroom, maximize athletic ability, and prepare them for post-collegiate success. As part of the curriculum, the academic development staff hosts a networking/etiquette night each fall and a career fair every spring.

Staff members focus on the enhancement of academic performance through the development of study and communication skills, goal-setting, stress and time management, and individual tutoring and mentoring. Academic performance is monitored to ensure NCAA, Atlantic Coast Conference, and Syracuse University eligibility rules are met and that academic progress is being made toward graduation.

THIS IS SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1870, Syracuse University is a private, co-educational, urban institution located in the heart of Central New York on a beautiful, 270-acre main campus. With an enrollment of 14,362 undergraduates and nearly 7,000 graduate and law students, Syracuse is recognized as a student-focused global research university renowned for academic rigor, richly diverse learning experiences, and a spirit of discovery.

The University's 11 schools and colleges offer more than 200 majors and a wealth of enriching educational experiences that often blend a strong liberal arts core with applied and professional studies, including experiential learning opportunities in a range of fields. The University has learning centers in New York City, Los Angeles, and Washington, D.C., and its study-abroad program has eight overseas centers with affiliations that provide additional options in more than 30 other countries. Among the University's schools and colleges are many programs that garner national accolades, including ones in the arts, architecture, communications, entrepreneurship, engineering, information studies, and public administration. Extracurricular activities are abundant, from student organizations and service learning opportunities in the community to numerous intramural, club, and recreational offerings.

Syracuse's diverse student body represents all 50 states and more than 120 countries. About 25 percent are minority students, reflecting the University's longstanding commitment to diversity and tradition of welcoming students with different experiences and backgrounds, as demonstrated in its nationally-recognized programs for veterans, their families, and those who serve our country.

With nearly 250,000 living alumni, Syracuse's Orange pride shines in the success of its graduates and in a strong alumni network that creates valuable opportunities for students. Whether involved in global study, experiential learning, interdisciplinary scholarship, or innovative research, students learn the value of collaboration and are prepared to make a difference and have a positive impact on today's global society.

ATHLETICS EXCELLENCE

By any measure, the 2015-16 academic year was the most successful season in the history of Syracuse University Athletics.

The Orange ranked 21st in the final Division I Learfield Directors' Cup standings, the first time Syracuse finished in the top 25. A record 12 teams earned Directors' Cup points. Among the highlights were the men's cross country team winning its second national championship and Ange Bradley's field hockey squad capturing the first women's NCAA title in school history. In all, a record five Orange teams reached the national semifinals of their respective NCAA championships, and 15 of Syracuse's 20 programs qualified for the postseason.

At the conference level, Syracuse claimed ACC team championships in men's cross country, men's soccer, men's indoor track & field, and men's lacrosse. Syracuse student-athletes also won four ACC individual titles.

Syracuse's performance in the classroom was just as impressive as its achievements on the playing fields. A record 63 percent of Orange student-athletes earned a 3.0 GPA or higher, including 31 percent who achieved a 3.5 or better. In the most recent release of APR data, 11 Orange teams recorded perfect 1,000 single-year scores, and the women's soccer program posted a 1,000 multi-year average to receive national recognition from the NCAA Division I Academic Performance Program (APP).

THE EMERALD CITY

Located in the heart of New York state, the city of Syracuse and its nearby environs offer a blend of city life and scenic countryside escapes. Among its many attractions, the city hosts an opera company, museums, art houses, and a professional theater. Historic Armory Square in downtown Syracuse is filled with restaurants, pubs, and boutique hotel and shopping opportunities, along with the hands-on Milton J. Rubenstein Museum of Science & Technology. To experience some of the unique sites the city has to offer, visitors can travel the Connective Corridor, a three-mile urban design project linking Syracuse University with the city's cultural attractions.

Beyond the city, the area features abundant county and regional parks. The Rosamond Gifford Zoo, Beaver Lake Nature Center, Onondaga Lake Park, and Baltimore Woods Nature Preserve offer plenty of recreation and entertainment opportunities.

Syracuse is also home to Destiny USA – a 2.4 million square-foot destination shopping complex. Destiny USA recently underwent a 850,000 square-foot expansion that combines full-priced and value retail with fine dining and entertainment venues. It's the sixth-largest shopping center in the United States, featuring more than 260 tenants.

Residents and visitors enjoy the region's four seasons, which allow for various outdoor sports, including cross-country and downhill skiing, snowmobiling, biking, fishing, hiking, and canoeing. In addition, more than 40 golf courses are located throughout the greater Syracuse area. For the sports enthusiasts, the city is home to the Syracuse Chiefs, the Triple-A affiliate for the Washington Nationals, and the Syracuse Crunch AHL hockey team.

A yearly end-of-summer celebration with exhibitions, food, and entertainment, the Great New York State Fair draws hundreds of thousands of visitors each year. The area also hosts many other festivals, including the Jamesville Balloon Fest, Syracuse Jazz Fest, and Great American Antique Fest.

In recognition of the area's many assets, Forbes magazine in June 2010 listed Syracuse in its top 10 ranking of "America's Best Places to Raise a Family."

CREDENTIALS AND SCOUTING PASSES

Season and individual game requests for working press credentials for media or professional scouts should be made online via the PressPass media credential system. Please visit www.SportsSystems.com/Syracuse to apply for credentials. Requests should be made at least two weeks prior to the game. Communication regarding your request will be made via email. Please contact the Syracuse University Athletic Communications Department with any additional questions.

Visiting team media should contact the opposing team's athletic communications office to be placed on their official credential list.

Passes not picked up in advance will be available at the Will Call window located at Gate B of the Carrier Dome three hours before kickoff. Gameday requests will not be honored.

PARKING

Parking for media in the WEST Lot across the street from the Carrier Dome is limited and passes are issued on a priority basis within the same guidelines as working credentials. Additional parking for media is available at Manley Field House in the South Manley Lot. A media shuttle runs from South Manley to the Carrier Dome beginning approximately three hours prior to kickoff. Return service is available for approximately two hours following the conclusion of the game.

PRESS BOX

All media will work from the press box located on the third level of the Carrier Dome. Media should enter the building through Stadium Control and take the elevator or stairs to the Upper Concourse then proceed to the right. The press box is on the left directly under Section 301. The press box opens three hours prior to kickoff.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Syracuse reserves the right to admit only those photographers deemed to be on the premises for legitimate media purposes and who are shooting for editorial purposes only. Photographers must have an individual game photo credential or Carrier Dome photo button.

There is a field-level work area for photographers located in the Cadallic Lounge next to the ambulance tunnel. There is also limited photographer work space in the press box.

RADIO

Syracuse hosts both home and visiting network radio in booths in the press box. Radio and ISDN lines are available for non-conference visiting radio broadcasts for a fee. Radio lines for Atlantic Coast Conference games are made available in accordance with conference guidelines. All requests must be made in advance to Syracuse IMG Sports Marketing by calling (315) 445-2500.

TELEVISION

News stations covering Orange football games are permitted to shoot from the photo deck opposite the press box or field level outside the team bench areas. Individuals must have a game photo credential or Carrier Dome photo button to obtain access.

INTERNET ACCESS

The press box in the Carrier Dome is equipped with wireless internet for use by members of the media. Network information is available in the press box on gameday.

SERVICES

Final statistics are available approximately 20 minutes after the conclusion of the game. Quotes from both head coaches and select student-athletes will be distributed in the press box and are available on SU's official website (Cuse.com) approximately one hour after the game ends.

A full meal is served prior to kickoff. There is continuous beverage service throughout the game.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Syracuse locker room is closed to the media following games, both at home and on the road. Coach Dino Babers will hold his news conference in the Cadillac Lounge located on the Service Level of the Carrier Dome near Stadium Control.

Following the conclusion of Coach Babers' news conference, select requested student-athletes will be brought to the Cadillac Lounge to meet with media representatives. Student-athlete requests will be collected during the fourth quarter of each game.

SEASON PREVIEW

Head coach Dino Babers enters his first season at the helm of the Syracuse University football program in 2016. A proven winner who has captured three conference titles in his first four seasons as a head coach, Babers brings a 37-16 (.698) career record with him from Bowling Green.

The cupboard for Babers is not bare, as the Orange return a wealth of experienced players, including 19 starters (8 offense, 9 defense, 2 specialists). Offensively, the squad brings back 13 players who have made at least two starts. Redshirt senior offensive lineman Omari Palmer leads all Syracuse players on that side of the ball with 21 starts to his credit.

On the defensive side, 12 players have made at least four first-string appearances. Junior linebacker Zaire Franklin, the club's leading tackler in 2015, has started a team-best 15 straight contests.

That experience will be put to the test. The Orange will face the eighth-toughest schedule in the country in 2016 according to ESPN.

Syracuse opens the year with three straight games in the Carrier Dome, including its Atlantic Coast Conference opener against Louisville on Sept. 9. The Orange also host non-league foes Colgate (Sept. 2) and USF (Sept. 17).

After a trip to Connecticut (Sept. 24), the Orange face Notre Dame (Oct. 1) at the 2016 New York's College Classic in East Rutherford, N.J.

In conference play, SU plays host to Virginia Tech (Oct. 15), North Carolina State (Nov. 12), and Florida State (Nov. 19). The ACC road slate includes games at Wake Forest (Oct. 8), Boston College (Oct. 22), Clemson (Nov. 5), and Pittsburgh (Nov. 26).

Here is a position-by-position look at the 2016 Orange:

Eric Dungey set the Syracuse record for the most passing yards by a true freshman (1,298) in 2015. Despite playing in only eight games, Dungey finished third on the Orange's season total offense record list (1,649 yards). He accounted for 16 total touchdowns (11 passing, 5 rushing).

QUARTERBACKS

Sophomore Eric Dungey finished the spring atop the depth chart. Equally effective as both a runner and passer, Dungey was 105-for-176 through the air in 2015 and set the school record for most passing yards by a true freshman with 1,298. He finished second on the club in rushing with 351 yards on 91 carries (3.9) and scored a team-best five rushing touchdowns. Dungey recorded 16 total scores on the year, two short of Donovan McNabb's school freshman record for touchdown responsibility.

Junior Zack Mahoney played in eight games in 2015, starting four, after beginning the year as Syracuse's fifth-string quarterback. Mahoney completed 54-of-117 passes for 535 yards with seven touchdowns. He also rushed for 151 yards on 41 carries (3.7 avg.) and two scores. Mahoney made his first career start against No. 8 LSU and became the first Orange signal caller to throw three touchdowns in a half against a top-10 opponent.

Injuries have hit the position hard recently. In the past two years, Syracuse has used five different starting quarterbacks. Three members of the current roster have started at least one game. In addition to Dungey and Mahoney, Austin Wilson also has two career first-string appearances.

Freshman early enrollee Rex Culpepper will push the veterans. Culpepper passed for more than 2,000 yards and 20 touchdowns as a junior at Plant High School in Florida, a program that has produced several Division I quarterbacks recently, including Aaron Murray (Georgia), Robert Marve (Miami, (Fla.)/Purdue), and Phillip Ely (Alabama).

RUNNING BACKS

Sophomore Dontae Strickland emerged as the Orange's top running back following spring drills. As a true freshman in 2015, Strickland picked up 81 yards on the ground and also hauled in nine passes for 137 yards. Strickland and classmate Jordan Fredericks became the first Syracuse true freshmen to score rushing touchdowns in a season opener since Damien Rhodes in the 2002 campaign starter against BYU.

Fredericks brings an excellent blend of speed and power to the position. The Inwood, N.Y. native led the team in 2015 with 607 yards rushing on 107 carries (5.7 avg.) and was second on the team with four rushing touchdowns. Fredericks was the first true freshman to lead Syracuse in rushing since Delone Carter in 2006, and his 607 yards ranked third on the school's freshman rushing record list behind Carter (703 yards, 2006) and Joe Morris (1,001 yards, 1978).

January enrollee Moe Neal will likely be in the mix after an impressive spring and a stellar high school career. Neal set the Gaston County career records for yards from scrimmage (6,882), receptions (164), and points (630) at Forestview High School (N.C.). Rivals.com ranked him the No. 14 all-purpose back in the Class of 2016.

Redshirt senior George Morris is the Orange's most experienced offensive player. In his collegiate career, he has logged time in 34 games. Morris set a career high with 80 yards rushing against national runner-up Clemson last season.

Overall, the Orange return 11 players who accounted for 92.6 percent of their 2015 rushing yardage. Syracuse's three returning letterwinners at running back accounted for 51.8 percent of that total (1,014 out of 1,958 yards).

WIDE RECEIVERS

Senior Brisly Estime, a 2015 All-ACC Third Team selection, enters the 2016 season as an All-America candidate as a return specialist. Syracuse's most dynamic player in the open field, Estime led the team with an average of 17.2 yards per reception last year. The Delray Beach, Fla. product hauled in an 89-yard touchdown pass against Wake Forest. It marked the third-longest pass play in program history and tied for the longest completion in the conference last season.

Junior Steve Ishmael is another All-ACC candidate who can stretch defenses. Ishmael led the Orange in receptions (39), receiving yards (570), and touchdown catches (7) in 2015. His seven TD receptions ranked fifth in the ACC. Ishamel caught at least one pass in every game and scored a TD in six of the team's final eight contests. Heading into his third season on campus, he owns a career average of 14.9 yards per catch, which ranks fifth among active players in the conference.

Ervin Philips made the transition to inside receiver this spring after serving as the Orange's primary hybrid back last season. Philips led the team with eight total touchdowns (3 rushing, 5 receiving) and was second on the club with 48 points scored in 2015. He finished second on the team in receptions (29) and third in receiving yards (286).

Alvin Cornelius and junior Jamal Custis should see plenty time at outside receiver in Babers' spread offense. Jacob Hill, a converted running back, and former Orange track star Clay Austin, finished the spring as the primary backups to Estime and Philips at slot receiver.

Graduate transfer Amba Etta-Tawo bolsters the group. Etta-Tawo caught 61 passes for 938 yards in three seasons at Maryland.

Senior Cameron MacPherson finished the spring atop the depth chart at tight end. He caught two passes for 13 yards in 2015.

Jason Emerich, the projected starter at center, has played in 26 games during his career, including 12 starts.

Chris Slayton was a College Football News and CampusInsiders.com Honorable Mention Freshman All-American last season.

TIGHT ENDS

Senior Cameron MacPherson enters fall camp as the first-string tight end. The brother of four-year Orange letterwinner Macky MacPherson and grandson of former head coach Dick MacPherson, he played in all 12 games in 2015, mainly on special teams. He also caught two passes for 13 yards. MacPherson began his career at Georgetown, playing two seasons at quarterback before joining the Orange.

Classmate Kendall Moore appeared in three games in 2015, starting two contests, before being sidelined most of the year with an injury. He hauled in three receptions for 39 yards in his limited duty. One of those receptions was critical. Moore made a 13-yard catch against Central Michigan in overtime to set up the game-winning touchdown.

Redshirt senior Josh Parris was limited during spring practice with an injury. One of three players last season to record at least 20 receptions, Parris hauled in 21 passes for 140 yards in 2015. He caught at least one pass in seven of the 10 games he played, and led the club in receptions in back-to-back games at Florida State and Louisville.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Of all the position groups, Syracuse has its most rebuilding to do along the offensive line. Starting guards Rob Trudo, Nick Robinson, and starting left tackle Ivan Foy all exhausted their eligibility in 2015. The Orange returns three players who have combined for 34 starts up front – Omari Palmer (21), Jason Emerich (12) and Michael Lasker (1).

Emerich moved into the starting lineup at center in the third game of 2015 and stayed there for the rest of the year. He graded out the highest of any Orange lineman against LSU and at Louisville. Emerich is a member of the 2016 watch list for the Rimington Trophy, which is presented annually to the most outstanding center in college football.

Palmer enters preseason camp as the starter at right guard after starting all 12 games in 2015 at right tackle. He recorded eight knockdown blocks at North Carolina State, the highest single-game total for a Syracuse offensive lineman last season.

Lasker closed spring drills as the starting right tackle. The Corona, Calif. native redshirted in 2015 season. He made his first start for the Orange in the 2014 season opener against Villanova. He has played 18 games in his Syracuse career.

Redshirt junior Jamar McGloster is expected to line up at right tackle, while Aaron Roberts sits atop the post-spring depth chart at left guard. Both saw action in three games as reserves last season.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Syracuse's experience on the defensive line lies inside with contributors Chris Slayton, Kayton Samuels and Steven Clark back in the mix for 2016.

Slayton played all 12 games at defensive tackle last season, starting five contests. He recorded 22 tackles, including 14 solo stops, and ranked fourth on the team with six tackles for loss. The University Park, Ill. native earned 2015 College Football News and CampusInsiders.com Honorable Mention Freshman All-America accolades.

Samuels started all 12 games at nose tackle a year ago. He registered 15 tackles (eight solo). The Ellenwood, Ga. product notched a career-high three tackles at North Carolina State.

Clark proved to be stout in the middle as a rookie thanks to years of training as a powerlifter. He played in all 12 games in 2015, seeing his role increase as the season progressed. The Arab, Ala. native finished with 21 tackles on the year and recovered two fumbles at Louisville.

The competition at defensive end is wide open, as no one on the roster has started a college game at the position. Redshirt freshman Jake Pickard and January enrollee Kenneth Ruff started the spring game. Pickard was a Millburn High School (N.J.) standout and Ruff recorded more than 30 career sacks at Florida's Dillard High School.

Graduate transfer De'Jon Wilson should make an immediate impact. Wilson played 22 games at Colorado before joining the Orange.

Converted tight end Trey Dunkelberger and converted linebacker Hernz Laguerre were the backups at defensive end in the spring. Dynamic freshmen Josh Black, Kendall Coleman and Jaquwan Nelson will also compete for playing time.

Parris Bennett posted two double-digit tackle games in 2015, including a career-high 13 stops against Virginia.

Cornerback Corey Winfield tied for the team lead with two interceptions last year, including one he ran back for a touchdown versus Rhode Island.

An Athlon Sports Preseason All-ACC selection, Cole Murphy ranks third all-time at Syracuse with a .763 career field-goal percentage.

LINEBACKERS

Linebacker is one of the Orange's most experienced position groups with juniors Parris Bennett and Zaire Franklin entering their second years with the first unit. Senior Marqez Hodge, who was slowed by an injury in the spring, owns a team-best 24 career starts.

Bennett started the first eight games of 2015 at outside linebacker and finished third on the team with 44 tackles.

A smart and saavy player, Franklin is the starter at middle linebacker. He was voted the fourth sophomore captain in the history of Syracuse football and first since 1945 last season and led the team with 81 tackles, 11 for a loss. Franklin set career highs in tackles (11), tackles for loss (3), and sacks (2) against Pittsburgh.

Hodge is a versatile player who has started at both outside and middle linebacker in his collegiate career. He has the reputation of being Syracuse's hardest hitter, and posted 102 tackles in his first three years. Hodge enters fall camp as the backup to Bennett at weak-side linebacker.

Jonathan Thomas and Ted Taylor earned valuable experience last season. Thomas, who opens the preseason as the Orange's starting strong-side linebacker, filled in for Bennett after he was injured at Florida State and tallied a career-high seven tackles against the Seminoles. Taylor started the last four games of 2015. He totaled 27 tackles on the year, including five for a loss, and two sacks.

SECONDARY

The Orange return both starting safeties and three cornerbacks who received extensive experience with the first unit last season. Junior free safety Antwan Cordy leads the way after starting each of the last 13 contests. Cordy ranked second on the team with 68 tackles in 2015 and set the Orange single-season record for most tackles for loss by a defensive back (12). The Homestead, Fla. native also returned a fumble 44 yards for a touchdown at Virginia.

Redshirt junior corner Corey Winfield is the team's most physically-gifted player. He began his career at wide receiver before moving to defense in 2014. Winfield started eight games in 2015, but missed the last four contests due to injury. He recorded 30 tackles and tied for the team lead with two interceptions.

In addition to Winfield, Juwan Dowels and Cordell Hudson both started five games at corner in 2015. Both players finished with more than 40 tackles, and Dowels paced the Orange with six passes defended.

Redshirt junior Chauncey Scissum is slated as Cordy's backup at free safety. A long, athletic player, Scissum started seven games in 2015. He ranked second among Syracuse defensive backs with 43 tackles.

Kielan Whitner led all Orange true freshmen with 33 tackles last year and sits atop the post-spring depth chart at strong safety. Whitner saw his role increase as last season went along. The Lawrenceville, Ga. product logged a career-nine tackles at Louisville.

Redshirt sophomore Rodney Williams is listed as Whitner's backup. Williams started five games in 2015 and totaled 17 tackles.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Entering his third season as the Orange's first-string placekicker is junior Cole Murphy. Murphy booted 16 field goals in 2015, which ranked eighth in the ACC and tied for fifth on the Orange single-season record list. The Castaic, Calif. native has made 47 consecutive PATs dating back to the 2014 season. Murphy will likely handle the kickoff duties as well.

One of the biggest challenges for the Orange is replacing All-ACC punter and NFL draftee Riley Dixon. Redshirt freshman Sterling Hofrichter is the favorite to fill Dixon's cleats. As a high school senior, Hofrichter was a Florida Class 6A All-State First Team selection and averaged 40.1 yards per punt.

Senior Alex Grossman joined the team as a walk-on in January and will compete for both the punting and place-kicking jobs. Grossman played scholastically at Syosset High School on Long Island.

Sophomore Matt Keller is in his second season as the team's primary long snapper. He helped the Orange rank third in the ACC in net punting average in 2015.

Senior Brisly Estime will serve as the team's primary return man once again after an outstanding 2015 campaign. Estime led the ACC and finished second nationally in punt return average (18.1). He also tied for second in the FBS with two punt returns for touchdowns. The Delray Beach, Fla. native ranks third at Syracuse in career punt return average (16.9). Overall, Estime was 11th in the FBS in combined kick return yardage (937 yards) last season and his 665 kickoff return yards were the most ever for a Syracuse junior.

DINO BABERS

Head Coach • First Season • Career Record: 37-16 (.698)

A proven winner and respected mentor, Dino Babers was named the 30th head football coach at Syracuse University on Dec. 5, 2015. He owns a 37-16 (.698) career head coaching record and boasts more than 30 years of experience in the profession.

In all four of his years as a college head coach, including the last two at the helm of Bowling Green, Babers has led his teams to the postseason. Under his direction, Bowling Green won the 2014 Raycom Media Camellia Bowl and played in two Mid-American Conference (MAC) championship games, winning the league crown in 2015 with a 34-14 victory against Northern Illinois. In two seasons as the head coach at Eastern Illinois, Babers guided the Panthers to the 2012 and 2013 Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs and two Ohio Valley Conference championships.

Babers took over the Bowling Green program in 2014 and led the Falcons to an 18-9 record in his two years there, including victories over three Big Ten teams (Indiana – 2014; Maryland, Purdue – 2015). The Falcons went 8-6 in Babers' first season and captured the MAC East Division title with a 5-3 league mark. Bowling Green lost the MAC title game to Northern Illinois, but rebounded for a 33-28 win versus South Alabama in the Camellia Bowl, BGSU's first bowl victory since 2004.

In 2015, Bowling Green was 10-3 under Babers and 7-1 against MAC competition to win the MAC East title once again. This time the Falcons got the better of MAC West champion Northern Illinois in the league title game to win BGSU's second conference championship in three seasons. Babers presided over one of the most explosive offenses in the country, as the Falcons ranked in the top 10 nationally in first downs (1st – 389), total offense (4th – 546.8 ypg), passing offense (5th – 366.8 ypg), third-down conversion percentage (5th –.502), and scoring (6th – 42.2 ppg).

Babers mentored 17 All-MAC performers at BGSU, including 11 in 2015. Falcons quarterback Matt Johnson was named the 2015 MAC Vern Smith Leadership Award winner, presented to the conference's top football player, and earned MAC Offensive Player of the Year honors. In addition, Johnson finished second nationally in passing yards (4,946), touchdown passes (46), and fifth in passing yards per game (353.3). He set the MAC single-season record for touchdown passes and eclipsed Ben Roethlisberger's conference record for most passing yards in one season.

Another of Babers charges – Roger Lewis – also had a standout 2015 campaign. Lewis finished second in the FBS in receiving yards (1,544), third in touchdown receptions (16), and fifth in receiving yards per game (110.3). He became the first Falcon since 1994 to earn All-America honors from the Associated Press (third team) and received second-team All-America recognition from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

EXCELLENCE AT EASTERN ILLINOIS

Babers excelled in his first head coaching position, leading Eastern Illinois to a 19-7 record during his two-year stint, including a 14-1 record against Ohio Valley Conference foes. His 2012 and 2013 Panther teams won the conference championship and earned berths in the FCS playoffs. Babers was named the Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year both seasons.

In 2013, the Panthers finished with a 12-2 record, including an 8-0 conference record, and reached the FCS quarterfinals. The Panthers were ranked as high as No. 2 in the polls and led the nation in total yards per game (589.5) and points per game (48.2). EIU averaged 372.4 yards a game passing and 217.1 yards per game rushing on its way to outscoring its opponents, 636-270. The offense was diverse with four different receivers totaling at least 700 yards and eight touchdowns apiece, and two running backs who combined to rush for 2,539 yards.

Babers, best-known for offensive creativity, also proved to be an effective defensive coach. In 2013, Eastern Illinois ranked in the top 30 nationally in scoring defense, red-zone defense, and pass efficiency defense. EIU led the nation in fumbles recovered (23) and was sixth nationally with a +14 turnover margin.

Panthers quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo was named the 2013 Walter Payton Award winner as the top player in the FCS after throwing for 5,050 yards and 53 touchdowns. During his two seasons working with Babers, Garoppolo passed for 8,873 yards and 84 scores to transform himself into a second-round NFL Draft pick (New England Patriots). In addition, Babers mentored 2012 Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year Erik Lora, who set league single-season records with 136 receptions and 1,664 receiving yards. Lora followed it up with 123 catches for 1,544 yards and a conference-record 19 touchdowns in 2013.

Upon his arrival at EIU in 2012, Babers took a Panthers team that had finished last in the Ohio Valley Conference in 2011 and led them to a first-place finish with a 6-1 league mark. It was just the fourth time in OVC history that a team went from worst to first in the span of a season.

PROFESSIONAL BUILDING BLOCKS

Prior to taking the helm at Eastern Illinois, Babers spent four seasons (2008-11) at Baylor in various capacities. During his time in Waco, Babers worked as the special teams coordinator, recruiting coordinator and outside receivers coach, mentoring NFL stars like Terrance Williams, Kendall Wright and Josh Gordon. Prior to that, he spent four years at UCLA as the assistant head coach, running backs coach and wide receivers coach.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Babers also worked as an assistant at Pittsburgh, Texas A&M, Arizona, San Diego State, Purdue, Northern Arizona, UNLV and Eastern Illinois. He began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Hawaii in 1984 and spent the next two seasons in a similar position at Arizona State before landing his first full-time job at Eastern Illinois in 1987.

Babers has coached or recruited more than 40 NFL players, including 29 draft picks, three Pro Bowlers (Lance Briggs, Matt Slater, Josh Gordon) and 2000 All-Pro selection Az-Zahir Hakim.

Thirteen of his protégés have been picked in the first three rounds of the NFL Draft, including six in the first two rounds. The Tennessee Titans drafted Wright in the first round in 2012, while Arizona running back Trung Canidate was the first-round choice of the St. Louis Rams in 2000. Wide receivers Brian Alford (Purdue), Will Blackwell (San Diego State), Dennis Northcutt (Arizona) and Gordon were selected in the second round.

A 1984 graduate of the University of Hawaii with a bachelor's degree in education, Babers started at three different positions for the Warriors during his collegiate career (outside linebacker, strong safety, running back), while earning All-Western Athletic Conference Academic honors. As a senior, he served as Hawaii's special teams captain and was the squad's leading rusher.

After his last college season, Babers tried out for the BC Lions of the Canadian Football League (CFL) before an injury in training camp ended his playing career.

Babers, who received his master's degree in education administration and supervision from Arizona State in 1987, and his wife, Susan, have four daughters – Breeahnah, Tasha, Jazzmin and Paris. Jazzmin Babers is a senior on the Texas A&M volleyball team. She was named an AVCA Second Team All-American in 2015.

WHAT OTHERS SAY ABOUT DINO BABERS

"It's a wonderful hire for Syracuse. Dino is a class act and I'm very happy for him that he has this opportunity. He's a great communicator and has an outstanding football background. He has the ability to make Syracuse very exciting, especially on offense."

– Walt Harris, former Pittsburgh head coach

"Coach Babers was influential in coaching not only myself, but also Terrance Williams and Josh Gordon at Baylor. He has worked really hard to get where he is today and Syracuse got a great coach. The offensive system he will bring will certainly make them a better team and get them to the top of the ACC. I couldn't be happier for him. He is a great coach and an even better person."

– Kendall Wright, Tennessee Titans wide receiver

"In Dino Babers, Syracuse has a coach that has paid his dues and is uniquely prepared to bring the Orange back to prominence in the world of college football."

– Dick Tomey, former Hawaii and Arizona head coach

"Syracuse is very lucky to have him. He's a very high energy guy and he brings a lot to the table. He flipped around my career at EIU for sure."

– Jimmy Garoppolo, New England Patriots quarterback

KIM McCLOUD

Assistant Head Coach/Wide Receivers • First Season

With extensive experience coaching both sides of the football, Kim McCloud joined Dino Babers' staff as the Orange's assistant head coach and wide receivers coach in January 2016.

McCloud and Babers have a long history, having worked together for seven seasons prior to their arrival in Syracuse. McCloud was Babers' defensive coordinator at Eastern Illinois from 2012-13, and at Bowling Green in 2014. In 2015, McCloud was promoted to assistant head coach for the Falcons and also coached the team's receivers. He and Babers first worked together as assistants at Baylor from 2008-10.

In 2015, McCloud's work helped Bowling Green receivers Roger Lewis (first team), Gehrig Dieter (second team) and Ronnie Moore (third team) earn All-MAC honors. Lewis was a nearly unstoppable force. He ranked second in the FBS in receiving yards (1,544), third in touchdown receptions (16), and fifth in receiving yards per game (110.3). In addition, Lewis became the first Falcon since 1994 to earn All-America honors from the Associated Press (third team) and received second-team All-America recognition from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

Before moving to the offensive side of the ball, McCloud built his coaching reputation as the architect of aggressive, hard-hitting defenses. His 2014 Bowling Green unit forced 33 turnovers in 14 games (2.4 avg.) to help the Falcons win the Mid-American Conference East Division title and defeat South Alabama in the inaugural Raycom Media Camellia Bowl.

Three of McCloud's stalwarts earned All-MAC honors in 2014, including linebacker Gabe Martin who recorded 115 total tackles and led the MAC with 18 tackles for loss. Martin is currently a member of the NFL's Arizona Cardinals after signing with the team in 2015 as an undrafted free agent.

At Eastern Illinois, McCloud was part of Babers' staff that turned around a struggling Panthers program. After successive 2-9 records in the two seasons before the staff's arrival, Eastern Illinois improved to 7-5 in 2012 and went 12-2 in 2013. The Panthers won the Ohio Valley Conference and made the FCS playoffs both years, including finishing with the No. 3 national ranking in 2013. McCloud's schemes resulted in a 2013 Panther defense that led the FCS in fumble recoveries (23), gained 37 turnovers, and finished sixth nationally in turnover margin (+14).

Prior to reuniting with Babers at Eastern Illinois, McCloud served as an assistant coach at Akron (2011), Baylor (2008-10), Nevada (2000-07), and Idaho (1998-99).

At Baylor, McCloud helped the Bears to the 2010 Texas Bowl and coached two All-Big 12 safeties in Byron Lander and Jordan Lake. Lander totaled a team-high 127 tackles as a senior and Lake recorded back-to-back seasons with 90-plus tackles under McCloud's direction. McCloud also worked as the defensive recruiting coordinator for the Bears from 2009-10.

Before heading to Waco, McCloud was an assistant at Nevada for eight seasons, including seven years as the Wolf Pack's secondary coach. The Wolf Pack made three straight bowl appearances and won the 2006 Western Athletic Conference title in his final three years on the staff.

McCloud coached a pair of All-WAC performers at Nevada with one first-team selection on each side of the ball. Joe Garcia was a two-time All-WAC choice and ranked 14th in the nation in interceptions in 2006. In 2004, McCloud's one season as the team's wide receivers coach, Nichiren Flowers ranked second in the WAC with 91 receptions.

A native of Los Angeles, Calif., McCloud was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Hawaii, earning honorable mention All-WAC honors at defensive back. He signed as a free agent with the San Diego Chargers in 1991 and played two seasons (1991-92) in the Canadian Football League for the Saskatchewan Roughriders.

Following his playing career, McCloud broke into coaching at Kaiser High School in Honolulu and worked as a graduate assistant at Missouri in 1997, helping the Tigers earn an invitation to the Holiday Bowl.

In 1998, McCloud joined the staff at Idaho as a cornerbacks coach where he helped the Vandals win the Big West Conference and defeat Southern Miss in the Humanitarian Bowl.

A 1991 Hawaii graduate, McCloud and his wife, Renée, are the parents of two children – Kaleb and Rachel.

SEAN LEWIS

Co-Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks • First Season

One of the brightest, young offensive coaches in the country, Sean Lewis is in his first year as Syracuse's co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He was named to the post in January 2016 after he helped run one of the most explosive offenses in college football under head coach Dino Babers at Bowling Green.

As the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Falcons in 2015, Lewis helped direct an offense that ranked in the top 10 nationally in first downs (1st – 389), total offense (4th – 546.8 ypg), passing offense (5th – 366.8 ypg), third-down conversion percentage (5th –.502), and scoring (6th – 42.2 ppg).

Under Lewis' guidance, seven Bowling Green players earned 2015 All-MAC honors on offense, including conference player of the year Matt Johnson. Johnson finished second nationally in passing yards (4,946), touchdown passes (46), and fifth in passing yards per game (353.3). He set the MAC single-season record for touchdown passes and eclipsed Ben Roethlisberger's conference record for most passing yards in a season.

Johnson wasn't the only Falcon to excel while working with Lewis. Wide receiver Roger Lewis (no relation) finished second in the FBS in receiving yards (1,544), third in touchdown receptions (16), and fifth in receiving yards per game (110.3) in 2015. In addition, he became the first Falcon since 1994 to earn All-America honors from the Associated Press (third team) and received second-team All-America recognition from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

Lewis' coaching peers quickly took note of his success. Lewis was a nominee for the 2015 Frank Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach. He was also selected for the first AFCA 30 Under 30 Leadership Institute. As part of the select group of coaches, Lewis participated in a full day of focused, interactive lectures on a variety topics including ethics, leadership, NCAA rules, financial management, hiring, and player safety at the 2016 AFCA Convention in San Antonio, Texas.

Record-setting production has been the hallmark of Lewis' units since he entered the coaching ranks. As Bowling Green's wide receivers coach in 2014, Lewis directed a receiving corps that was one of three in the FBS to feature six receivers with at least 20 catches. Four had more than 30 receptions, and three players made at least 50 catches. The group accounted for 17 touchdowns, including seven by Roger Lewis, who totaled 73 catches for 1,093 yards to became the first freshman 1,000-yard receiver in BGSU history.

Before following Babers to Bowling Green in 2014, Lewis coached the inside receivers and tight ends for Babers at Eastern Illinois for two years. In 2012, Lewis mentored Erik Lora to one of the best individual seasons in FCS history. Lora was named the Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year and finished fourth in the Walter Payton Award voting after setting the FCS single-season record with 136 receptions for 1,664 yards. As a unit, the 2012 Eastern Illinois wideouts hauled in a school-record 341 passes for 4,019 yards and 34 touchdowns.

The following season, Lora and Adam Drake both totaled more than 1,300 yards receiving and combined for 32 touchdowns. Lora was recognized as the best receiver in FCS football for his efforts, and tight end Jeff Lepak, who is currently Syracuse's recruiting and operations assistant, was named a third-team All-American.

Prior to his stint at Eastern Illinois, Lewis was a graduate assistant at Akron in 2011 and coached the tight ends at Nebraska-Omaha in 2010. Lewis got his coaching start as the offensive coordinator for Richards High School in Illinois from 2007-09.

A four-year member of the Wisconsin football program, Lewis played quarterback and tight end for the Badgers from 2004-07. He was a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection and earned his undergraduate degree in agricultural sciences from the school in 2007.

Lewis and his wife, Sarah, have a son, Rory, and a dog, Champ.

MIKE LYNCH

Co-Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line • First Season

A versatile coach who has taught every offensive position group during his career, Mike Lynch is in his first year as Syracuse's co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. Lynch joined the staff in January 2016 after helping run one of the most explosive offenses in college football in 2015 under head coach Dino Babers at Bowling Green.

As the co-offensive coordinator, as well as the offensive line and running backs coach for the Falcons last season, Lynch played a major role in Bowling Green winning the Mid-American Conference title and earning a berth in the GoDaddy Bowl. He teamed with quarterbacks coach Sean Lewis to direct an offense that ranked in the top 10 nationally in first downs (1st – 389), total offense (4th – 546.8 ypg), passing offense (5th – 366.8 ypg), third-down conversion percentage (5th –.502), and scoring (6th – 42.2 ppg).

Lynch's tutelage helped produce seven 2015 All-MAC selections on offense, including linemen Alex Huettel (second team), Jacob Bennett (second team) and running back Travis Greene (first team). Huettel earned All-America honors from Phil Steele and was selected to participate in the 2016 East-West Shrine Game.

Before adding co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach to his list of duties, Lynch served as Bowling Green's running backs in 2014. That season, he mentored the trio of Greene, Fred Coppet and Andre Givens. The threesome combined to produce 2,192 yards and 26 touchdowns on the ground to help the Falcons capture the MAC East Division crown and win the inaugural Raycom Media Camellia Bowl.

Prior to his stint at Bowling Green, Lynch served as an assistant coach from 2005-13 at Eastern Illinois. He spent the final two years of his EIU tenure as the running backs coach under Babers, coaching two 1,000-yard rushers. He mentored All-Ohio Valley Conference honoree Jake Walker in 2012. The following season, Shepard Little was named to the All-OVC First Team after rushing for 1,551 yards and 15 touchdowns. Little ranked seventh nationally in total rushing yards and posted seven 100-yard games. He averaged 7.1 yards per carry and 110.8 yards per contest.

Most of Lynch's first six years at EIU were spent coaching the wide receivers. While in that role, he mentored 2006 All-American Micah Rucker and led several productive units, including a 2011 Panthers receiving corps that accounted for 20 of the team's 34 touchdowns. His 2010 collection of wideouts combined to catch 193 passes for 2,279 yards and 18 scores.

Lynch first made his mark in coaching at Utah State from 2000-04. While with the Aggies, he helped guide the careers of three tight ends who signed with NFL teams. Chris Cooley, a two-time Pro Bowler, was the third-round selection of the Washington Redskins in the 2003 NFL Draft, while J.R. Suguturaga (Miami Dolphins) and Casey Poppinga (Pittsburgh Steelers) both signed free-agent contracts.

A Roseville, Calif. native, Lynch was an offensive lineman for Sierra Junior College in California before finishing his collegiate career at the University of Montana in 1997 and 1998. With Lynch centering the front five, the 1997 and 1998 Grizzlies combined to win 16 games and reached the Divsion I-AA (now FCS) playoffs both seasons. After his his playing career ended, Lynch got his first taste of coaching. He served as a restricted earnings coach on the 1999 Montana staff working with the tight ends.

Lynch holds a bachelor's degree from Montana and a master's degree in secondary education from Utah State. He married the former Emily Schilling in June 2011. The couple have two children – Madison and Will.

BRIAN WARD

Defensive Coordinator • First Season

An experienced defensive coach who has worked at every level of college football, Brian Ward was named Syracuse's defensive coordinator in January 2016.

Before joining the Orange, Ward served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for Bowling Green in 2015. He oversaw a defense that improved in several statistical categories from the previous year and featured two All-MAC selections at linebacker, including first-team honoree Austin Valdez. Ward also served as Bowling Green's head coach for the 2015 GoDaddy Bowl versus Georgia Southern.

The improved performance of the defense under Ward was a major factor in Bowling Green winning the 2015 Mid-American Conference title. The Falcons surrendered 4.6 fewer points and nearly 76 yards less of total offense per game than they did in 2014. In addition, Bowling Green allowed 39 fewer first downs and moved up the NCAA statistical rankings in passing defense (up 44 spots), rushing defense (up 20 spots), scoring defense (from 106 to 84), and total defense (from 115 to 86). Bowling Green finished 13th nationally in turnovers gained (27) and eighth in interceptions (20).

Against MAC teams (including the conference championship game), the Falcons led the league in scoring defense (21.0 ppg), fewest yards per play (4.9), takeaways (22), and turnover margin (+13). Valdez was the leader of the unit, racking up 144 tackles and ranking 10th in the FBS at 10.3 tackles per contest. Trent Greene, another of Ward's charges, earned All-MAC Second Team plaudits at linebacker after finishing with 115 tackles.

Prior to his stint at Bowling Green, Ward was the defensive coordinator at Western Illinois, molding the Leathernecks into one of the top defenses in FCS football from 2012-14. Ward's 2013 unit ranked seventh in the nation in total defense (305.3 ypg) and third nationally in passing defense (149.0 ypg). Western Illinois also made improvements in a host of additional statistical categories, including passing efficiency defense, tackles for loss, and sacks, as Ward continued to implement his scheme during his second year.

In 2014, Ward coached two All-Missouri Valley Football Conference performers (Kevin Kintzel, Kris Harley). In addition, the Leathernecks put on one of the most impressive defensive displays of the season against Wisconsin's Melvin Gordon. Western Illinois held the Heisman Trophy finalist to 38 yards on 17 carries (2.2 avg.).

Before joining Western Illinois, Ward was the defensive coordinator at Drake in 2011 where he helped the Bulldogs to a 9-2 record and the Pioneer Football League championship. The Bulldogs held five of their last eight opponents to 14 points or less and finished the year second nationally in rushing defense (77.2 ypg), fifth in sacks (39), seventh in scoring defense (17.8 ppg), and 10th in total defense (295.4 ypg).

Ward's other previous collegiate coaching stops include: McPherson College (1997, 2007-09), Glendale Community College (1999-2000), Wabash College (2001-04), Missouri Southern State (2005), and North Dakota State (2010). He spent the 2006 season as the defensive coordinator/assistant head coach at Tulsa Union High School in Oklahoma.

A 1997 graduate of NAIA McPherson College, Ward served as the head coach of his alma mater for three seasons from 2007-09, compiling a 17-14 (.548) record. In his final season, he led the Bulldogs to a 9-2 mark, the program's first berth in the NAIA national playoffs, and was named the CollegeFanz.com Sports Network NAIA Coach of the Year. During his head coaching tenure, the Bulldogs boasted seven All-Americans, two Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference (KCAC) Players of the Year, seven NAIA Scholar-Athletes, and 39 All-KCAC selections.

Ward also worked as the defensive coordinator and special teams coach at his alma mater in 1997 after the conclusion of his playing career.

Ward's additional coaching highlights include being named the 2002 AFCA Division III Asistant Coach of the Year while serving as assistant head coach, special teams coordinator, and secondary coach for four years at Wabash College. The Little Giants were undefeated during the 2002 regular season, won the North Coast Athletic Conference, and reached the Division III quarterfinals, while leading the country in interceptions (25) and takeaways (43).

In 2003, Wabash ascended to No. 2 in the national polls and its defense ranked among the top 10 nationally in total defense, rushing defense, and interceptions. In 2004, Ward's secondary set a Wabash season record by allowing just five touchdown passes.

As the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Glendale Community College in 1999 and 2000, Ward was the architect of a Vaqueros defense that helped the program win back-to-back Arizona Community College Athletic Conference championships and the 2000 NJCAA national title.

Ward holds a bachelor's degree in history from McPherson and a master's degree in organizational management from the University of Phoenix. He is married to the former Amy Brandseth. The couple have three children – Travis, Ellie and Erin.

Brian Ward was named the AFCA Division III Assistant Coach of the Year in 2002 at Wabash College.

TOM KAUFMAN

Special Teams Coordinator/Linebackers • First Season

Tom Kaufman joined head coach Dino Babers' staff as Syracuse's special teams coordinator and linebackers coach in January 2016.

Kaufman previously served as the special teams coordinator for Babers for four seasons while Babers was the head coach at Eastern Illinois (2012-13) and Bowling Green (2014-15). Kaufman also coached the linebackers for Babers in three of those four years before being assigned to mentor the Bowling Green defensive line in 2015.

Kaufman's work helped Bowling Green win the 2014 Mid-American Conference East Division title, the 2015 MAC Championship, and earn a pair of bowl bids. In 2015, Kaufman's first year as a defensive line coach, his unit increased its sack production by six from the previous season. Overall, the Falcons tied for third in the MAC in sacks (30) and posted a 10-4 record, earning a trip to the GoDaddy Bowl.

As BGSU's special teams coordinator, Kaufman was the architect of a punting unit that ranked in the top 30 nationally two years in a row and led the MAC in net average (39.5) in 2015. In 2014, the Falcons punt return team topped the conference and ranked 29th in the FBS at 10.2 yards per return. In addition, the unit was responsible for three blocked punts and two touchdowns with Kaufman in charge.

Kaufman's tuteledge helped Ryan Burbrink earn All-MAC honors as a punt returner twice, including first-team plaudits in 2014. Kaufman also tutored 2015 All-MAC First Team punter Joe Davidson and 2014 All-MAC Third Team placekicker Tyler Tate.

Another of Kaufman's protégés, linebacker Gabe Martin, recorded 115 total tackles and led the MAC with 18 tackles for loss on his way to All-MAC Second Team honors in 2014. Martin is currently a member of the NFL's Arizona Cardinals after signing with the team in 2015 as an undrafted free agent.

At Eastern Illinois, Kaufman was part of Babers' staff that turned around a struggling Panthers program. After successive 2-9 records in the two seasons before the staff's arrival, Eastern Illinois improved to 7-5 in 2012 and went 12-2 in 2013. The Panthers won the Ohio Valley Conference and made the FCS playoffs both years, including finishing with the No. 3 national ranking in 2013.

Kaufman's 2013 Eastern Illinois punt return unit led the FCS at more than 20 yards per return. The Panthers also blocked two kicks and scored four special teams touchdowns. In addition, Kaufman's kickoff coverage team finished third in the country in fewest yards allowed per return.

Kaufman coached three all-conference performers at EIU, including linebacker Robert Haynes who ranked among the Ohio Valley Conference leaders with 101 tackles in 2012. He also mentored NFL Draft choice Kamu Grugier-Hill at EIU. Grugier-Hill was selected in the sixth round of the 2016 draft by the New England Patriots.

Prior to linking up with Babers, Kaufman was a quality control coach at Texas (2011), Kansas (2010), and spent the 2009 season as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State.

Kaufman began his coaching career in the Division III ranks, working a total of six years at Heidelberg College, Case Western Reserve, and the University of Chicago before making the jump to the FBS. As the defensive coordinator at Chicago in 2008, Kaufman coached seven all-conference players and the Maroons ranked 26th nationally in pass defense.

As the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at Case Western Reserve, Kaufman mentored seven all-conference selections and three league players of the year, including two-time Gagliardi Trophy (Division III Player of the Year) finalist Tom Brew.

Kaufman earned his undergraduate degree in English from John Carroll University in 2003 and received his master's degree in education from Heidelberg in 2005.

Tom is married to his wife, Stephanie.

Tight Ends • First Season

A veteran coach with strong recruiting ties to New York, New Jersey, Maryland and Virginia, Reno Ferri is in his first year as the Orange's tight ends coach. He was named to the position by Dino Babers in January 2016.

Ferri came to Syracuse after spending the previous five seasons at Towson where he worked with the Tigers running backs, fullbacks and tight ends. He was also the Tigers recruiting coordinator from 2011-15.

In Ferri's three seasons as running backs coach from 2011-13, the Tigers averaged more than 230 yards rushing per game and posted an overall record of 29-10. Towson rushed for at least 200 yards 24 times in that span, topped the 300-yard mark on eight occasions, and went over 400 yards twice. In 2013, the Tigers ran for more than 240 yards per contest en route to a 13-3 record and an appearance in the 2013 FCS championship game.

Under Ferri's guidance, the Tigers ground attack shattered virtually every school record. His 2013 stable of backs rushed for a school-record 3,830 yards and scored 55 touchdowns. In 2011, Ferri's first year leading the unit, the group averaged 229.9 rushing yards per game, a mark that led the Colonial Athletic Association.

Individually, Ferri coached four Towson ball carriers who earned All-CAA honors and three FCS All-Americans. In 2013, current Baltimore Ravens running back Terrance West set the NCAA FCS single-season records for most rushing yards (2,509) and most rushing touchdowns (41). In Towson's FCS quarterfinal victory against Eastern Illinois, West set an FCS playoff record by rushing for 354 yards. He also scored five touchdowns against the Panthers. West received first-team All-America honors and was named the CAA Player of the Year for his efforts.

As a freshman in 2011, West led the FCS with 29 rushing touchdowns, was tabbed the CAA Offensive Rookie of the Year, and captured the Jerry Rice Award as the top freshman in FCS football. He entered the NFL Draft after his junior year and was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the third round.

Ferri protégés Tyler Wharton and Emmanuel Holder also earned All-America honors during that time. Wharton was a first-team selection in 2011. Holder received freshman All-America honors in 2012 and was a national second-team honoree the following year. Ferri also tutored Darius Victor, a 2013 freshman All-American, and the 2013 CAA Offensive Rookie of the Year.

Prior to his time at Towson, Ferri spent six seasons at Akron. He joined the Zips In 2004 as a graduate assistant for offense. The following year, he served as Akron's director of football operations and was part of a Zips staff that guided the team to the 2005 MAC title and a berth in the Motor City Bowl.

In 2006, Ferri was promoted to wide receivers coach and worked with Jabari Arthur, who became an all-league performer, as well as All-MAC standout and freshman All-American David Harvey. Harvey led the Mid-American Conference and ranked second nationally in kickoff return average (30.0).

In 2007, Ferri was named Akron's running backs coach, a position he held for three years. During that time, he mentored All-MAC selection Bryan Williams, as well as Dennis Kennedy. In 2008, Kennedy turned in a record-setting season. He ran for 1,321 yards, the third-best season rushing total in Akron history at the time, and set the school season records for most rushing touchdowns (17) and most total touchdowns (18).

Ferri was Akron's recruiting coordinator from 2005 to 2009, leading the effort that resulted in Akron landing the top-ranked class in the MAC three years in a row from 2005-07. Two players from those classes were freshman All-America selections (Harvey and Almondo Sewell).

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Ferri is a 2000 graduate of the U.S. Military Academy. A three-year letterwinner at running back for the Black Knights, he was a member of the first Army West Point team to compete in Conference USA. As a rookie in 1996, Ferri was part of a nationally-ranked Black Knights squad that was 10-2 and played Auburn in the Independence Bowl. In his senior season, Ferri served as game captain against Air Force.

After earning his bachelor's degree in general management with a minor in systems engineering, Ferri began his coaching career in 2000 as a graduate assistant at West Point.

A first lieutenant in the U.S. Army from May 2000 to March 2002, Ferri served as a fire direction officer and battalion survey officer. He also previously worked as a consultant for British Petroleum. A systems engineer, Ferri and his team designed and implemented a web-based tracking system for BP to monitor the 16,000 vessels responding to the Deep Water Horizon oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico.

Ferri and his wife, Rebekah, have four children – Giana, Zola, Sofie and Reno Jr.

MIKE HART

Running Backs • First Season

A Syracuse native and the University of Michigan's all-time leading rusher, Mike Hart is in his first season as the Orange's running backs coach. The former Onondaga Central High School star joined Dino Babers' staff in January 2016.

Hart returned to Central New York after five years coaching in the Mid-American Conference, where he mentored three 1,000-yard rushers, two MAC Freshman of the Year award winners, and the 2014 MAC Offensive Player of the Year.

Hart broke into the coaching profession as a quality control assistant for offense at Eastern Michigan in 2011. He served as the running backs coach at EMU in 2012 and 2013 prior to a two-year stint at Western Michigan (2014-15).

At Western Michigan, Hart helped produce a pair of 1,000-yard rushers who both garnered MAC Freshman of the Year honors. With Hart's tutelage, Jamauri Bogan was named the league's top rookie in 2015 after rushing for 1,051 yards and finishing second in the MAC with 16 rushing touchdowns. The previous year, Hart protégé Jarvion Franklin gained 1,551 yards on the ground, the second-highest freshman total in the nation, and set the WMU single-season records for points (150) and rushing touchdowns (24). Franklin was named the MAC Freshman of the Year, MAC Offensive Player of the Year, and a USA Today Freshman All-American.

The Broncos earned consecutive bowl bids for the first time in school history with Hart on the staff. Western Michgian played in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl after the 2014 season, and topped Middle Tennesse in the 2015 Bahmas Bowl to record the first bowl win in the history of the program.

In 2013 at Eastern Michigan, Hart oversaw an Eagles rushing attack that racked up 1,896 yards, the 12th-most in team history. Individually, running back Bronson Hill ranked 31st nationally in rushing, eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark, and earned third-team All-MAC plaudits.

In 2012, Hart's first year as a full-time assistant, EMU ran for 1,960 yards and 13 touchdowns as a team, the third consecutive season the Eagles topped 1,900 yards on the ground.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Hart spent three injury-shortened seasons in the NFL as a running back for the Indianapolis Colts. A sixth-round draft choice in 2008, Hart carried the ball a total of 71 times for 264 yards in his 21-game NFL career. His best season was in 2010 when he gained 185 yards on 43 carries.

A star at Michigan before being drafted by the Colts, Hart set school records for most career carries (1,015) and most rushing yards (5,040) as a four-year starter for the Wolverines. He finished his college career with 41 touchdowns, the third-most in U-M history. Hart ranks fourth in Big Ten Conference history in career rushing attempts and fifth in yards.

Hart broke onto the national scene in 2004, establishing the Michigan freshman rushing record with 1,455 yards on 282 carries and scoring nine touchdowns. It was the second-highest rookie rushing total in Big Ten history, and he became just the third true freshman to lead the conference in rushing, joining Ron Dayne (Wisconsin, 1996) and Darrel Thompson (Minnesota, 1986).

A two-time finalist for the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back, Hart finished fifth in the 2006 Heisman Trophy voting.

Hart graduated from Onondaga Central in 2004 after a decorated prep career in which he set the national record for career rushing touchdowns (204) and finished second in career rushing yards (11,045). The Tigers were 46-1 and won three state championships with Hart in the backfield.

Hart earned his bachelor's degree from Michigan in 2009. He and his wife, Monique, have two children.

NICK MONROE

Secondary • First Season

Nick Monroe, who has won conference championships at each of his previous coaching stops, is in his first year as the Orange's secondary coach after joining the SU staff in January 2016.

Prior to coming to Syracuse, Monroe worked as the secondary coach at Bowling Green from 2010-15, consistently producing units that ranked among the nation's best. His expertise helped the Falcons capture the 2013 and 2015 Mid-American Conference titles and earn four straight bowl invitations. Monroe's guidance also helped turn Jude Adjei-Barimah into a starter in the National Football League. A defensive back for Bowling Green from 2001-14, Adjei-Barimah signed as a free agent with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and started seven games for the Bucs in 2015.

When Monroe arrived at Bowling Green in 2010, he inherited an inexperienced unit that featured four new starters. In two seasons, he molded them into one of the stingiest defensive backfields in the country. Featuring All-MAC performers BooBoo Gates and Cameron Truss, the 2012 Falcons ranked 13th nationally in pass defense (190.1 ypg) to help propell the team to an 8-5 record and an appearance in the Military Bowl against San Jose State.

The following season, the Bowling Green secondary was even better. The Falcons finished sixth in the FBS in pass defense (170.9 ypg) and Gates earned All-MAC First Team honors for the second year in a row. As a team, Bowling Green won its first conference championship since 1992 and played Pittsburgh in the 2013 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl.

In 2014, Monroe's first season working for Babers, he sucessfully oversaw the maturation of safety Brian Sutton and the growth of two young cornerbacks. Sutton's production skyrocketed from the previous season. He finished second on the team with 102 tackles after making 43 stops the year before. In additon, the rookie cornerback tandem of Nick Johnson and Clint Stephens combined for nine interceptions. They were the only two freshmen in the country to record at least four picks (Johnson - 5, Stephens - 4). The unit also featured Adjei-Barimah, who recorded 82 tackles.

The quartet was critical to Bowling Green's team success and Monroe added a bowl game victory and another championship to his résumé. The Falcons won the 2014 MAC East title and topped South Alabama 33-28 in the inaugural Raycom Media Camellia Bowl.

In 2015, Bowling Green posted a 10-4 record, won the MAC title for the second time in three seasons, and earned a berth in the GoDaddy Bowl. Monroe's defensive backfield once again helped the Falcons soar, finishing eighth in the FBS with 20 interceptions, including a team-high six picks by cornerback Alfonso Mack.

Before his stint at Bowling Green, Monroe coached defense for six years at Colgate University. He began his tenure with the Raiders coaching the defensive ends from 2004-05 before moving to the secondary in 2006. In 2009, he was promoted to co-defensive coordinator and helped implement a scheme that stymied the opposition. The Raiders led the Patriot League and finished 29th nationally in total defense (308.2 ypg). Colgate was 9-2 and held seven of its opponents to 20 points or less. In addition to his coaching duties, Monroe also served as the team's recruiting coordinator for five seasons.

In his last three years as the Colgate secondary coach, Monroe mentored four first-team All-Patriot League selections (Uzi Idah, Wayne Moten, Chris Ekpo, Cody Williams) and one second-team honoree (Moten). In addition, defensive back Demitri Diamond was named the 2009 Patriot League Rookie of the Year.

Colgate won a pair of Patriot League titles (2005, 2008) while Monroe was on the staff and made two Division I-AA (now FCS) playoff appearances.

Prior to his time at Colgate, Monroe was the secondary coach in 2002 and 2003 at Allegheny College in Meadville, Pa. He helped the Gators capture the 2003 North Coast Athletic Conference (NCAC) championship and earn a berth in the NCAA Division III playoffs.

Monroe was a four-year letterwinner at cornerback for St. Cloud State University in Minnesota and earned his undergraduate degree in marketing from the school in 2001.

Nick is married to his wife, Nicole.

VINSON REYNOLDS

Defensive Line • First Season

A highly-respected recruiter and teacher, Vinson Reynolds was named the Orange's defensive line coach in January 2016.

Reynolds joined the Orange after serving as the defensive line coach at Western Michigan from 2013-15 where he helped engineer one of the most impressive turnarounds in FBS history. Reynolds and the WMU staff transformed the Broncos from a 1-11 team in 2012 into a program that earned consecutive bowl berths in 2014 and 2015. The 2015 Broncos were 8-5 and defeated Middle Tennessee 45-31 in the Bahamas Bowl to record the first bowl victory in school history.

In 2014, Reynolds led a Western Michigan defensive line that recorded 17 of the team's 29 sacks. The unit was part of a Broncos defense that finished third in the Mid-American Conference in points allowed per game. Reynolds also made his mark on the recruiting trail that season. Rivals.com named him to its list of the top 10 recruiters from schools outside the Power Five and American Athletic Conference (formerly the Big Six) after he helped solidify the website's highest-ranked class in the history of the MAC (No. 58).

Prior to his three-year stint in Kalamazoo, Reynolds mentored the defensive line at Central Michigan and helped the Chippewas to a win over Western Kentucky in the 2012 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl.

Before making the move to Central Michigan, Reynolds was the defensive line coach at Central Oklahoma in 2010. He also previously worked as a graduate assistant and defensive quality control coach at Oklahoma State (2008-09) for head coach Mike Gundy. Oklahoma State made appearances in the 2008 Holiday Bowl and 2010 Cotton Bowl while Reynolds was on the OSU staff.

Reynolds began his coaching career in 2006 as the defensive line coach at Division III University of Wisconsin-Platteville.

In addition to his collegiate experience, Reynolds has had the unique opportunity to complete two NFL internships. In 2015, he gained critical coaching skills and perspectives with the Baltimore Ravens under John Harbaugh. During the summer of 2016, Reynolds worked with head coach Chuck Pagano and the staff of the Indianapolis Colts.

A Detroit, Mich. native, Reynolds played his college football at Northern Illinois from 2000-03. He was named to the All-MAC First Team at defensive end as a senior after totaling 76 tackles, including 15 for a loss, and six sacks.

Reynolds earned his undergraduate degree from Northern Illinois in 2004. He received a master's degree in adult education from Wisconsin-Platteville in 2007. He and his wife, Cynthia, have two sons – Eric and Josiah.

The Reynolds family (L-R): Josiah, Vinson, Cynthia and Eric.

SEAN EDINGER

Assistant AD/Athletic Performance

Sean Edinger is in his first year as the football program's assistant athletics director for athletic performance. Appointed to the position in January 2016, Edinger is responsible for designing programs to increase the conditioning, speed, strength, and agility of Syracuse's football student-athletes.

Prior to joining the Orange, Edinger served as the director of strength and conditioning at Bowling Green for two seasons, overseeing the strength and conditioning programs for all of the BGSU's 18 sports. Edinger previously held a similar position at Eastern Illinois from June 2012 until his departure for Bowling Green.

Before his stint at Eastern Illinois, Edinger was the head strength coach at Central Missouri where he was directly responsible for all aspects of the Mules strength and conditioning program. He also previously worked as the head strength coach for football and volleyball at Haskell Indian Nations University in Lawrence, Kan. from 2008-09.

A graduate assistant at Missouri from 2006-08, Edinger worked with the Tigers volleyball and tennis programs. He also assisted with the Tigers football strength and conditioning program, helping players prepare for pro days and professional combines.

Edinger is a 2006 graduate of the University of Kansas and earned his master's degree from Missouri in 2008. He is SCCC certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa) and also holds a USA Weightlifting Level 1 Sports Performance certification. A member of the U.S. National Karate Team for five years, Edinger has more than 18 years of experience in martial arts.

JOSE RODRIGUEZ

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Jose Rodriguez joined the Orange in February 2016 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for football.

A native of Perth Amboy, N.J., Rodriguez was a member of Baylor's athletic performance staff in 2014 and 2015, working with the football, baseball, volleyball, cross country, and equestrian teams. He tutored student-athletes on the appropriate training and exercise techniques, as well as educated them on proper dietary requirements and nutrition.

Prior to his stint in Waco, Rodriguez worked as a strength and conditioning intern at the U.S. Air Force Academy.

Rodriguez earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science and sports studies from Rutgers in 2013. While completing his undergraduate coursework, Rodriguez was a student athletic trainer for the Scarlet Knights football team. He also previously served as a strength and conditioning intern at Princeton, working primarily with football and baseball.

Rodriguez is an NSCA Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS). He holds a master's degree in pedagogy from Baylor in addition to his undergraduate degree.

JEFF SOBOL

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Jeff Sobol accompanied Assistant AD for Athletic Performance Sean Edinger to Syracuse from Bowling Green in January 2016, joining the Orange staff as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for football.

Prior to his arrival at Syracuse, Sobol spent 2015 as Bowling Green's assistant director of strength and conditioning where he was responsible for training BGSU's baseball and softball teams. He also assisted Edinger with the football program.

A graduate of Eastern Illinois, Sobol was a three-year starter on the defensive line for the Panthers football team from 2006-08. He earned All-Ohio Valley Conference honors twice and spent three seasons in the Arena Football League after his college career.

Sobol got his start in strength and conditioning while in Charleston as a graduate assistant for Eastern Illinois.

Jeff and his wife, Kelsey, are expecting their first child in the fall of 2016.

WAYNE TUCKSON

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Wayne Tuckson, who has been a member of the Syracuse weight room staff since 2014, was elevated to the position of assistant strength and conditioning coach for football in February 2016.

Prior to his current appointment, Tuckson worked with several of the Orange's Olympic sports teams and assisted with football.

Before arriving in Central New York, Tuckson served as an athletic performance graduate assistant at the University of Wisconsin-River Falls. In that role, he aided in creating workout programs for various Falcons athletic teams and helped manage the school's athletic performance center.

A native of Louisville, Ky., Tuckson played linebacker from 2009-12 at Division III Elmhurst College in Illinois. He was a three-year starter for the Bluejays and led the team in tackles twice. Tuckson finished his career with 284 tackles, including 114 as a senior in 2012. He was named to the All-College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin (CCIW) Second Team in 2011 and was an All-CCIW First Team selection in 2012.

In 2013, Tuckson worked as a defensive intern and outside linebackers coach for the Bluejays. He was also a volunteer assistant for the Elmhurst strength and conditioning staff.

Tuckson was a four-time CCIW All-Academic Team selection as a player and received dual bachelor's degrees in criminal justice and philosophy from Elmhurst in 2013.

BRAD WITTKE

Director of Operations

Brad Wittke was named Syracuse's director of football operations in January of 2016 after serving in the same capacity for head coach Dino Babers at Bowling Green in 2015. Wittke is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Orange program, including travel, team meals, and has a role in most non-coaching decisions.

Wittke's one-year stint at Bowling Green marked a return to the college ranks after three seasons in the front office for the Pittsburgh Power of the Arena Football League. Before joining the Power, Wittke gained collegiate team operations experience at both Eastern Illinois and Arizona State.

While at Arizona State, Wittke served as an operations assistant with the men's basketball program. His responsibilities included film exchange, high school relations, recruiting travel, and other duties as assigned.

At Eastern Illinois, Wittke was a graduate assistant for New Student Programs. Late in his time there, he became a football scouting assistant where he aided in film analysis of future opponents and self-scouting. Wittke also worked as an intern for PlayNextLevel.com while in Charleston.

Wittke began his tenure in the Arena Football League as an operations assistant with the Power shortly after the conclusion of the 2011 season. He assisted on all projects related to football operations, game-day experience, and player personnel. He was also in charge of travel coordination and player accommodations.

The following year, Wittke was promoted to director of player personnel where he oversaw all decisions related to the recruitment and signing of players from July 2012 through the 2014 season. In that capacity, Wittke expanded the organization's scouting and recruitment initiatives and re-tooled a roster that improved by 11 wins from 2013 to 2014.

A 2009 Arizona State graduate with a degree in management, Wittke also holds a master's degree in sport administration from Eastern Illinois.

Wittke's father, Roy, is the Orange football program's director of player development.

JEFF LePAK

Operations & Recruiting Assistant

A star tight end for Orange head coach Dino Babers at Eastern Illinois, Jeff LePak joined the Syracuse staff in February 2016 as the team's operations and recruiting assistant.

LePak assists in the management of team logistics, including helping organize the daily schedules of student-athletes, coaches, and staff. In addition, LePak assists in the the day-to-day operation of the program and performs various administrative duties for the recruiting department.

LePak previously worked as a graduate assistant for Babers in 2015 at Bowling Green. He mentored the team's tight ends and was part of a staff that led the Falcons to the 2015 Mid-American Conference title and a berth in the GoDaddy Bowl.

A Belton, Texas native, LePak was a wide receiver at Baylor from 2010-12 before transferring to play tight end for Babers at Eastern Illinois. LePak caught 81 passes for more than 1,000 yards and nine touchdowns in two seasons with the Panthers, including 51 receptions and eight touchdowns in 2013, his only year in Babers' offensive system. A team captain as a senior, LePak was a two-time All-Ohio Valley Conference First Team selection and earned FCS All-America honors in 2013 after helping the Panthers reach the FCS quarterfinals.

LePak graduated with a bachelor's degree in psychology from Eastern Illinois in 2014.

ROY WITTKE

Director of Player Development

A fixture in college football for more than three decades, Roy Wittke was named the program's director of player development in January 2016.

Prior to joining the Orange, Wittke served as Bowling Green's recruiting coordinator in 2015 and was the team's director of operations in 2014 for head coach Dino Babers.

Before making the transition from coach to administrator, Wittke spent 33 years on the sidelines. He coached 19 seasons at Eastern Illinois, 17 of which were spent as the offensive coordinator in two different stints for head coach Bob Spoo.

As the architect of the Panthers offense from 1990-2002, EIU posted 82 wins and made five FCS playoff appearances. Wittke is best known for developing Dallas Cowboys Pro Bowl quarterback Tony Romo during that period. Under Wittke's direction, Romo was named the Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year each season from 2000-02 and captured the 2002 Walter Payton Award. Wittke was honored as the AFCA Division I-AA Assistant Coach of the Year in Romo's senior season of 2002, as the Panthers ranked fourth in the nation in scoring (35.3 ppg) and fifth in total offense (452.6 ypg).

Wittke coached 14 players who earned offensive All-America honors and numerous all-conference selections in both the Ohio Valley Conference and Gateway Football Conference in his first stint at EIU. In addition, three of his offensive units ranked among the top five in EIU single-season history for total offense and scoring.

After the 2002 season, Wittke worked as the offensive coordinator at Arkansas from 2003-05 and spent one season each at both Arizona State (2006) and Northern Illinois (2007). He helped the Razorbacks to the 2003 Independence Bowl and coached in the 2006 Hawaii Bowl with Arizona State.

Wittke returned to Eastern Illinois as the offensive coordinator in 2008. His second stint with the Panthers included tutoring another eventual NFL quarterback – Jimmy Garoppolo. A second-round pick of the New England Patriots in 2014, Garoppolo earned Ohio Valley Conference Newcomer of the Year honors in 2010 despite only eight starts. He continued his development under Wittke in 2011, and like Romo, eventually went on to win the Walter Payton Award as the top FCS player as a senior in 2014.

After the 2011 season, Wittke made the move to administration, serving as EIU's director of operations under Babers from 2012-13.

In addition to his stops at Eastern Illinois, Arkansas and Northern Illinois, Wittke's coaching résumé also includes stints at his alma mater, Wisconsin-Eau Claire (1979-81), as well as Montana State (1982-84) and Central Missouri State (1985-89).

Wittke is a 1982 graduate of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. He and his wife, Patty, have three children – sons Brad and Jeff, and daughter Bekah. Brad Wittke is Syracuse's director of football operations.

ASIL MULBAH

Director of Recruiting Operations

Asil Mulbah is in his first season as Syracuse's director of recruiting operations. He was named to the post by head coach Dino Babers in January 2016.

Mulbah is in charge of coordinating the Orange's recruiting efforts. He is responsible for maintaining the program's recruit database, developing schedules for official and unofficial visits, creating social media plans to communicate with potential student-athletes, and monitoring the academic progress of prospects.

Before joining the Orange, Mulbah was the director of high school relations for head coach Dave Clawson at Wake Forest for two seasons. In addition to working with Clawson at Wake, Mulbah was a member of Clawson's Bowling Green staff for three years. Mulbah was an academic coordinator and offensive quality control coach for the Falcons from 2010-11 and served as the program's assistant director of football operations in 2013.

In between, Mulbah spent the 2012 season as the player personnel scouting assistant for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars. His duties included assisting in the evaluation of current players and working closely with general manager Gene Smith to evaluate potential NFL free agents.

Mulbah graduated from Fordham University in 2010 with a degree in business administration. He was a starter for the Rams at linebacker from 2006-07 before his playing career was cut short by injury.

J.B. GERALD

Director of High School Relations

J.B. Gerald was named the Orange's director of high school relations in February 2016. In that capacity, Gerald serves as the program's liason with high school, junior college, and prep school coaches.

Gerald is responsible for gathering recommendations from coaches on prospects in Syracuse's primary recruiting areas. He also helps maintain the Orange's recruiting database and assists in hosting prospective student-athletes and their families for official and unofficial visits, among other duties.

Prior to joining the Orange, Gerald was the head football coach and assistant basketball coach at Washington Jesuit Academy, a tuition-free middle school for boys in Washington, D.C., from 2010-15.

Gerald got his coaching start as a graduate assistant and quality control coach for Joe Paterno at Penn State from 2004-07. Gerald worked with the wide receivers in his first season and the team's running backs his last three years. During his time in Happy Valley, the Nittany Lions won three bowl games, including a victory over Florida State in the 2006 Orange Bowl.

Gerald spent the 2008 season as an offensive quality control coach at Illinois under head coach Ron Zook. In 2009, he served as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at New Mexico.

Before entering the coaching ranks, Gerald was a standout receiver and kick returner at Colgate from 2000-03. He completed his 43-game career with 113 catches for 1,334 yards and nine touchdowns. As a senior in 2003, Gerald totaled 74 receptions for 832 yards and seven TDs to help lead the Raiders to a 15-1 record and an appearance in the Division I-AA (now FCS) national championship game. Gerald recorded another 1,710 yards in punt returns and kickoff returns during his career.

A Rhodes Scholar candidate, Gerald graduated from Colgate in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in educational studies and a minor in sociology. He earned a master's degree in educational leadership and administration from Penn State in 2006. Gerald finished his Ph.D. coursework two years later and lacks only the completion of his dissertation to receive a Ph.D. in educational leadership from Penn State.

LAURENE PORILLO

Administrative Specialist for Recruiting

As the administrative specialist for football recruiting, Laurene Porillo supports the coaching staff in its efforts to attract the best possible talent to Syracuse University. She maintains the recruiting database and assists in the coordination of official and unofficial visits. Porillo serves as the liaison with incoming student-athletes and their families during the admissions process.

Porillo, who joined the football staff in 2003, received her associate's degree from SUNY Canton. Prior to joining the football office, Porillo held various administrative positions in the legal, business, and real estate fields.

She and her husband, Nick, reside in Liverpool. They have two children, Matthew and Meghan.

FOOTBALL OFFICE STAFF

KATIE BERARDI

Office Coordinator

Katie Berardi joined the football administrative staff in June 2007 as the office coordinator. She manages the daily operations of the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex and provides administrative support to the assistant coaches, the director of player development, the assistant athletics director for athletic performance, and the director of football operations. Berardi also serves as a liaison with NFL scouting departments and the NCAA Eligibility Clearinghouse.

Berardi is a Syracuse University alumna. She received her bachelor's degree in 2006.

Katie and her husband, John, reside in Jamesville with their son, Giovanni.

KIM O'CONNOR

Administrative Assistant for Dino Babers

Kim O'Connor serves as the liaison between head coach Dino Babers and University staff, faculty, administration, the business community, and the general public. O'Connor also provides administrative support for the director of football operations and other members of the football staff. In addition, she handles the administration of all summer camp programs.

Prior to joining the Syracuse staff in 2007, O'Connor held administrative positions in the legal, human resources, and design and development fields.

She and her husband, Tim, live in Cicero with their sons, Tim and Kyle.

VINCENT MARSHALL

Quality Control (Offense)

Vincent Marshall is in his first year as an offensive quality control coach for the Orange. Marshall joined the Syracuse staff after spending two seasons as a graduate assistant for Orange head coach Dino Babers at Bowling Green.

While with the Falcons, Marshall worked with the outside receivers in 2014 and the running backs in 2015. Bowling Green earned a pair of bowl berths in Marshall's time there and won the 2015 Mid-American Conference Championship and 2014 MAC East title.

A two-time All-Conference USA receiver at the University of Houston, Marshall signed with the Atlanta Falcons as an undrafted free agent in 2007. After his release, Marshall played for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League and helped the team capture the 2007 Grey Cup.

Marshall joined the Houston football team as a walk-on in 2002. The following year, he set the school bowl records for receptions (7) and receiving yards (157) against Hawaii in the 2003 Hawaii Bowl. In 2005, Marshall earned All-Conference USA First Team honors and became just the seventh player in team history to surpass 2,000 career receiving yards.

Marshall entered the coaching ranks in 2012, serving as an assistant coach at Southwestern Assemblies of God University in Waxahachie, Texas. He worked as the secondary coach at Texas' Seguin High School the following year.

A 2007 Houston graduate with a bachelor's degree in sociology, Marshall also holds a master's degree in secondary education from Southwestern Assemblies of God University.

BEN OLSON

Graduate Assistant (Defense)

Ben Olson, a graduate of Eastern Illinois University, is in his first season as a defensive graduate assistant for the Orange. Olson most recently served as a defensive graduate assistant for head coach Dino Babers at Bowling Green in 2014 and 2015.

Olson assisted in coaching the Bowling Green defensive line and was part of a staff that guided the Falcons to consecutive bowl games. He also worked with the special teams units.

An undergraduate student coach for Babers at Eastern Illinois, Olson coached the linebackers at the Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology during the 2013 season. Rose-Hulman captured the 2013 Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference (HCAC) Championship and Olson mentored two All-HCAC linebackers while on the staff. He was also integral in coaching a kickoff coverage team that led all of Division III football in fewest yards per return.

In addition to his work with the varsity, Olson gained valuable experience as the defensive coordinator for the Rose-Hulman junior varsity team.

Olson, who played at Eastern Illinois in 2008, was a defensive lineman for the Panthers before being medically disqualified. He earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and sports studies from the school in 2013.

JOHN PIKE

Quality Control (Defense)

John Pike is in his first year as a defensive quality control coach for the Orange. Pike joined the Syracuse staff after spending the 2015 season as a graduate assistant for Orange head coach Dino Babers at Bowling Green.

While with the Falcons, Pike helped coach the team's linebackers and was a member of the staff that led Bowling Green to the 2015 Mid-American Conference Championship and a berth in the GoDaddy Bowl.

A native of Chandler, Ariz., Pike played collegiately at San Diego Mesa College in California and at North Dakota State. He graduated from North Dakota State in 2013 with a degree in health, nutrition and exercise science.

Pike was a defensive back for San Diego Mesa in 2008 and 2009. He was named team MVP in 2009 after setting the school record with 10 interceptions. He also won the program's Golden Helmet Award for maintaining the team's highest GPA. Pike played his final two college seasons for North Dakota State and helped the Bison capture their first national championship as a senior in 2011.

After his collegiate playing career, Pike spent two seasons with the Stuttgart Scorpions of the German Football League. He received his first coaching job in 2014 when the College of Idaho revived its football program. Pike mentored the cornerbacks and served as the assistant strength coach for the Coyotes, helping the NAIA program to four wins in its first football season in more than 30 years.

LANEAR SAMPSON

Graduate Assistant (Offense)

A four-year starter at wide receiver for Baylor from 2009-12, Lanear Sampson is in his first year as a graduate assistant for the Orange. Sampson works on the offensive side of the ball and played three years for Dino Babers when Babers was Baylor's receivers coach.

A member of the senior class that turned around the Baylor program, Sampson helped the Bears reach three consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history. Baylor appeared in the 2010 Texas Bowl and recorded back-to-back wins against Washington in the 2011 Alamo Bowl and UCLA in the 2012 Holiday Bowl with Sampson on the roster.

Sampson finished his career fifth on Baylor's all-time receptions list (165) and 10th in career receiving yards (1,905). He caught a pass in 43 straight games from 2010-12 and earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honors as a senior. Sampson had 52 receptions for 646 yards and six touchdowns in his final collegiate campaign to earn a spot in the 2013 Texas vs. The Nation All-Star Game.

Following his college career, Sampson spent time in the NFL with the Indianapolis Colts, Dallas Cowboys and Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2015, he signed with the Ottawa Redblacks of the Canadian Football League.

A two-time Academic All-Big 12 selection, Sampson graduated from Baylor in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in speech communication.

BART TANSKI

Graduate Assistant (Defense)

Bart Tanski is in his second year as a graduate assistant coach for the defense. Prior to joining the Orange, Tanski spent two years at the University of Findlay coaching the team's wide receivers (2014), outside linebackers (2014), and defensive backs (2013). He also served as Findlay's assistant special teams coordinator in 2013.

Named Ohio's Mr. Football in 2007, Tanski was a walk-on at Bowling Green. He played quarterback and wide receiver for the Falcons, eventually earning a scholarship and serving as a team captain in 2012.

Tanski holds a bachelor's degree in engineering technology from Bowling Green and a master's degree in business administration from Findlay.

AUSTIN BEEHNER

Director of Video Operations

Austin Beehner returned to the Syracuse football staff as the director of video operations in March 2013. He previously served as a video operations intern for the Orange during the spring of 2012 while completing his undergraduate degree in sport management at SUNY Cortland.

As the director of video operations, Beehner is responsible for managing the internal video network, preparing game and practice film for coaches and student-athletes, supervising interns, and managing a staff of student camera operators.

Prior to returning to Syracuse, Beehner was the football video operations assistant at Ohio State from June 2012 through the 2012 football season. He recorded, imported and edited game and practice film, managed the video department student assistants, and provided technical support for coaches and student-athletes. He also helped produce opponent breakdowns and self-scouting films for the Buckeyes.

In his first stint at Syracuse, Beehner was responsible for gathering and editing game and practice film and produced individual highlight films for student-athletes and the 2012 senior banquet video.

As an undergraduate at Cortland, Beehner led the filming and editing of a SUNY Cortland football promotional video and created the season in review video for the men's lacrosse team.

A graduate of Jamesville-DeWitt High School in Syracuse, Beehner was a camp counselor at the Jewish Community Center of Syracuse from 2005-11 where he worked one-on-one with children with developmental needs in association with the Autism Society of America. He organized educational and recreational activities for the children and helped create major events and fundraisers.

BRITNEY CLARKE

Academic Coordinator

Britney Clarke joined Syracuse University Student-Athlete Academic Development staff as an academic coordinator in 2015. She monitors and tracks the initial and continuing eligibility of football student-athletes and also works with the Orange women's tennis team.

Clarke's duties are to assist in all aspects of academic support, including arranging tutorial support, academic monitoring and reporting, advising, and orientations. She is also responsible for keeping coaches informed of student-athletes' academic progress, the APR, and any eligibility concerns. In addition, Clarke works with other Student-Athlete Academic Development staff members to implement life-skills programming for student-athletes.

Prior to coming to Syracuse, Clarke was an academic counselor at the University of Arizona from 2013-15. While with the Wildcats, she worked with the women's track & field and gymnastics teams, ensuring that those 100-125 student-athletes met NCAA eligibility requirements.

Before being promoted to full-time, Clarke completed an internship from May to July 2013 in the Arizona Academic Services Department. In that role, she developed a campus-level transitions course for freshmen student-athletes focused on identifying their transferrable skills and expanding upon their identities as athletes.

Clarke began her academic couseling career as a graduate assistant at Stephen F. Austin from July 2012 to May 2013.

A 2012 graduate of the University of Miami, Clarke was a multi-event athlete for the Hurricanes track & field team for four seasons. She competed in both the pentathlon and heptathlon, finishing eighth in the pentathlon at the ACC Indoor Track & Field Championship as a senior.

Clarke received her bachelor's degree in exercise physiology from Miami. She earned her master's degree in higher education from Arizona in 2015.

SHAWN EMMONS

Assistant Video Coordinator

Shawn Emmons is in his second year as the Orange's assistant video coordinator after serving as a video operations intern for the team in 2013 and 2014.

Emmons is responsible for managing the football program's video network. He categorizes clips for self-scouts of the coaching staff, as well as opponent scouting. He also instructs interns on the proper shooting techniques for filming practice, and assists in the creation of team recruiting and highlight videos.

Prior to his full-time appointment, Emmons was responsible for providing sideline and end zone practice film as the department's intern for two years. He also recorded sideline film of home and away games during 2014, and assisted with the cataloging and editing of opponent film.

Emmons completed his bachelor's degree in sport management at SUNY Fredonia in 2013. He also holds an associate's degree from Tompkins Cortland Community College.

KYLE FETTERLY

Head Equipment Manager

Kyle Fetterly has been the head equipment manager at Syracuse University since 1983. He is responsible for all athletics equipment purchasing and reconditioning, uniform design, maintenance, and inventory control.

Fetterly previously worked as the Orange's assistant equipment manager and as a student equipment manager. He is certified by the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) and has been involved with the organization since entering the field. He serves on various boards, including Nike, Schutt, Bike, Brine, and Champion, in an effort to enhance the protective equipment for all sports. He also is a frequent speaker at national and regional AEMA workshops. Fetterly has staffed 14 bowl games for the football team.

Fetterly, who lives in Liverpool, earned his bachelor's degree in retail management from Syracuse in May 2009.

JOE FIELDS

Associate Director/Student-Athlete Academic Development

A standout football player and 2008 graduate of Syracuse, Joe Fields became a member of the athletics department in January 2010 as an academic graduate assistant. He was promoted to academic coordinator in July 2011 and has since been elevated to associate director of student-athlete academic development.

Fields returned to his alma mater after playing professional football with the Carolina Panthers in 2008. He was the only undrafted free agent to remain with the team for the season.

Fields served as the director of the Syracuse Youth Impact Program in July 2011, developing a curriculum for sixth-, seventh- and eighth-grade boys from the Syracuse City School District. The program included classroom work in math, language, and writing each morning followed by life-skills sessions, a football chalk talk, and a full-contact practice.

A four-year SU football letterwinner, Fields enrolled as an undergraduate at Syracuse in January 2004 and played quarterback and free safety for the Orange. He was selected to play in the 2008 Hula Bowl and received ECAC All-Star and All-BIG EAST Second Team honors as a senior.

Fields earned his bachelor's degree from Syracuse in physical education. He also holds a master's degree in instructional design, development and evaluation from SU.

Joe and his wife, Sade, have a son, Joe Jr.

DENNY KELLINGTON

Head Athletic Trainer for Football

Denny Kellington, who joined the Syracuse sports medicine staff in 2005, is responsible for all phases of athletic training for the football program and also mentors the graduate assistant athletic training staff.

A native of Midwest City, Oklahoma, Kellington earned his bachelor's degree in health and human performance from Oklahoma State in 2000. Following his graduation, Kellington served as an athletic training intern with the NFL's Denver Broncos from 2000-02. He was named the assistant athletic trainer for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe for the 2002 season.

After NFL Europe, Kellington worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for Ohio State from 2002-04. While with the Buckeyes, he was responsible for the care and rehabilitation of OSU's field hockey and women's lacrosse student-athletes.

Kellington is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), the EATA, and the New York State Athletic Trainers Association. He currently serves as treasurer of the Atlantic Coast Conference Sports Medicine Association.

Kellington is certified in first aid, CPR, AED and SASTM. He and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Jamesville with their daughter, Sydney, and their son, Bryton.

BRAD KIMBLE

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Brad Kimble came to Syracuse in July 2011 after serving as the associate athletic trainer at Baldwin Wallace University from 2006-11.

At Baldwin Wallace, Kimble served as the head athletic trainer for the football, men's basketball and tennis programs and worked as a clinical instructor in the athletic training education program.

A native of Columbiana, Ohio, Kimble earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training and fitness management from Baldwin Wallace in 2003. After graduation, Kimble served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at the Cleveland Clinic and completed his master's degree at Cleveland State University in 2006.

Kimble has an extensive background in sports medicine, including stints with the Cleveland Browns and New York Jets. In addition, he's worked in minor league hockey (Cleveland Barons) and baseball (Mahoning Valley Scrappers).

Kimble has been a guest lecturer at Baldwin Wallace and at other local events. In addition, he's presented at the College Athletic Trainers Society Spring Symposium. He holds multiple athletic training certifications and memberships.

MIKE MORRISON

Assistant Director/Athletic Communications

Mike Morrison rejoined the Syracuse Athletic Communications staff in August 2005 and became the primary media contact for the Orange football program in 2015.

During his time at Syracuse, Morrison has also worked with the Orange men's lacrosse, men's soccer, women's basketball, and softball teams. In 2011, he was part of the media relations staff that was recognized by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) with "Super 11" status for excellence in sports information.

Prior to his full-time appointment, Morrison worked in the SU office as a student assistant and intern from 2002-04. During the 2004-05 academic year, he was the assistant sports information director at George Washington University. At GW, Morrison was the media coordinator for the 2004 Atlantic 10 Men's Soccer Championship and 2005 Atlantic 10 Women's Basketball Championship.

A graduate of Ithaca College, Morrison received a bachelor's degree in sports information and communication from the school in 2002. He earned his master's degree in public relations from Syracuse University in 2003.

Morrison's publications work has been recognized by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). His 2008 Syracuse men's soccer media guide was voted eighth nationally. In addition, Morrison served on the group's membership services committee for five years.

Morrison has worked several NCAA championship events during his tenure, including the 2002, 2010 and 2015 NCAA Men's Basketball East Regionals held at the Carrier Dome, and the 2008, 2009 and 2013 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships.

Morrison resides in Liverpool with his wife, Cheri, and their sons, Kellan and Sean.

JIM SCHLENSKER

Head Equipment Manager for Football

Jim Schlensker joined the equipment room staff in 1994 and was promoted to head equipment manager for football in January 2011.

His primary responsibilities include gameday preparations for equipment and locker room facilities for all home and away contests, and office responsibilities. In addition, Schlensker is responsible for football equipment purchasing and reconditioning, uniform design, maintenance, and inventory control. He also maintains the equipment room computer system, ordering equipment and inventory. Schlensker has staffed nine bowl games for the Orange.

Schlensker came to Syracuse from Northwestern University. The Fort Wayne, Ind., native is a 1990 graduate of St. Joseph's College. He is certified by the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA).

SALATHA WILLIS

Academic Coordinator

Salatha Willis has more than a decade of experience in higher education and serves as one of the two primary academic coordinators for the Orange football team.

A former student-athlete himself, Willis was a member of the Western Michigan University basketball team for three seasons, lettering for the Broncos in 1995-96. He graduated from the school with a bachelor's degree in computer science in 1999.

The following year, Willis stayed in Kalamazoo to begin his career in higher education. He started out as a residence hall director, then rose up the ranks, ultimately serving as Western Michigan's student orientation coordinator and assistant director of admissions.

In 2007, Willis was hired as the director of first-year programs and university testing at Indiana State, a position he held until being named vice president of enrollment management and student affairs at Martin University (Ind.) in 2011.

Willis transitioned to collegiate athletics in 2012, serving as an academic counselor and compliance assistant at Colgate University for a year prior to joining the Orange in 2013.

In addition to his undergraduate degree, Willis received a master's degree in educational leadership from Western Michigan in 2002. He earned his doctorate in educational leadership from Indiana State in 2013.

Willis and his wife, Sheila, live in DeWitt with their two children.

GAME SUMMARIES

Game 1 • Syracuse 47, Rhode Island 0

Sept. 4 • Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y. • Att: 30,112

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – The Syracuse football team dominated Rhode Island in its season opener on Friday, Sept. 4, beating the Rams by the final score of 47-0 at the Carrier Dome.

The 47-point win for Syracuse marked its largest margin of victory in a season opener since 2000 when the Orange defeated Buffalo, 63-7. In addition, the shutout represented the first time SU held its opponent scoreless in a campaign starter since 1997 when it beat Wisconsin 34-0 in the Kickoff Classic at Giants Stadium.

Freshman Eric Dungey took over at quarterback after senior Terrel Hunt exited with a lower-body injury in the first quarter. Dungey finished the contest 10-of-17 passing for 114 yards and two touchdowns. Both of Dungey's touchdown tosses went to sophomore hybrid back Ervin Philips.

The freshman running back trio of Jordan Fredericks, Dontae Strickland and Jacob Hill combined for 220 yards on the ground and two touchdowns. In all, the Orange racked up 312 yards rushing to four for Rhode Island. Fredericks led all ground gainers with 103 yards and a touchdown.

The youthful Syracuse defense was equally impressive. The Orange tied the school record by allowing just two first downs in the contest. Overall, Syracuse limited the Rams to 64 total yards, the lowest total for an SU opponent since West Virginia managed just 61 yards of offense in 1967, and forced four turnovers.

Three of the Orange's takeaways came in the opening 4:04 of the contest, including a 24-yard interception return for a touchdown by cornerback Corey Winfield for the game's first score.

Syracuse added 24 more points in the first half, including a 74-yard punt return for a touchdown by Brisly Estime on the last play of the second quarter. Estime's runback marked the first Orange punt return TD since 2003 (Marcus Clayton vs. West Virginia), and the 31 points represented the team's highest first-half scoring total since 2013 against Tulane (42).

Syracuse picked up where it left off in the second half, as Fredericks scored his first collegiate touchdown from 13 yards out less than five minutes into the third quarter. Cole Murphy added the extra point to extend the lead to 38-0.

A safety at the end of the period and a 21-yard touchdown run by Strickland early in the fourth quarter closed the scoring.

Game 2 • Syracuse 30, Wake Forest 17

Sept. 12 • Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y. • Att: 26,670

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – The Orange outscored Wake Forest 17-0 in the second half to erase a 17-13 halftime deficit and win the ACC opener for both teams, 30-17, at the Carrier Dome on Saturday, Sept. 12. Freshman quarterback Eric Dungey threw a pair of second-half touchdowns, and the defense pitched its third scoreless half of the season to lead the Orange to its fourth straight win against the Demon Deacons.

In his first career start, Dungey was 8-of-13 passing for 221 yards, including 186 yards in the second half. The defense did its part by recording three interceptions and tallying four sacks, including two by Luke Arciniega. SU was also stout against the run, holding Wake to 46 yards rushing on 32 carries (1.4 yards per rush).

It was the Orange defense that helped set up the game's first points. Parris Bennett stepped in front of a John Wolford pass to end Wake's opening drive and give the Orange the ball at the Demon Deacons' 42-yard line. Six plays later, Cole Murphy booted a 35-yard field goal at the 4:17 mark of the opening quarter.

Wolford bounced back on the ensuing series, capping a 75-yard drive by finding KJ Brent for a 40-yard touchdown that put the visitors ahead, 7-6.

Brent's touchdown nudged Wake in front, but the advantage was short-lived. The Orange scored 10 points in the first minute of the second quarer, including a 41-yard interception return for a touchdown by defensive end Donnie Simmons that put SU back on top, 13-7. However, the Demon Deacons responded with 10 unanswered points of their own, including a 6-yard TD run by Wolford, to claim a 17-13 lead at the half.

In the third quarter, Wake seemed poised to add to its advantage. The Demon Deacons controlled the ball for nearly 13 minutes in the quarter, but the Orange tallied the only points of the stanza when Dungey escaped the pocket and fired a bullet to Estime, who slipped a tackle and raced 89 yards to the end zone to put the Orange up 20-17 with 2:01 to go in the period. The scoring strike was the third-longest pass play in team history and SU's longest since Donovan McNabb and Quinton Spotwood hooked up for a 94-yard touchdown against East Carolina in 1997.

Dungey wasn't finished. On SU's next series, he converted a third-and-10 by finding tight end Kendall Moore for a 21-yard gain. Two plays later, Dungey hit Steve Ishmael down the sideline for a 53-yard touchdown that resulted in a 27-17 Orange advantage.

The 10-point cushion was more than enough for the SU defense, which forced two punts and recorded an interception on Wake's last three possessions.

Murphy added a late 20-yard field goal to produce the final score.

GAME SUMMARIES

Game 3 • Syracuse 30, Central Michigan 27 (OT)

Sept. 19 • Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y. • Att: 27,949

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Freshman Jordan Fredericks scored on a 4-yard touchdown run in overtime to give the Syracuse football team its first 3-0 start since 1991 and a 30-27 victory against Central Michigan at the Carrier Dome on Saturday, Sept. 19.

Central Michigan scored the first points of overtime on a 20-yard field goal by kicker Brian Eavey after defensive end Ron Thompson made a key stop for the Orange on third-and-goal at the 1-yard line. With SU trailing 27-24, quarterback Zack Mahoney's 13-yard pass to Kendall Moore on third down kept the Orange's OT drive alive, setting up Fredericks' scoring run two plays later.

The Orange offense scored 24 points in the first 30 minutes, but was held scoreless in the second half after freshman quarterback Eric Dungey, who had both a rushing touchdown and passing touchdown, exited the game with an upper-body injury.

The Chippewas opened the scoring at the 8:38 mark in the first quarter, as Eavey kicked a 34-yard field goal that resulted in a 3-0 lead. Syracuse answered with 17 straight points, and held a 24-10 advantage at the half following a 7-yard touchdown pass from backup quarterback Austin Wilson to Jamal Custis.

In the third quarter, the Chippewas marched 94 yards on their first second-half series, and Devon Spalding capped the drive with a 2-yard touchdown run to make the score 24-17.

The Orange and Chippewas exchanged scoreless possessions throughout the rest of the second half until CMU quarterback Cooper Rush tied the game on a 27-yard touchdown pass to Ben McCord with seven seconds left, setting the stage for overtime.

Defensively, the Orange came through when it needed to, recording two fourth-quarter takeaways and holding the Chippewas to a field goal in overtime. Sophomore Zaire Franklin created one of those turnovers, intercepting the first pass of his career to halt a potential scoring drive. Parris Bennett thwarted another when he pounced on a fumble caused by Ron Thompson.

Bennett finished with a career-high 10 tackles (nine solo). Thompson and classmate Luke Arciniega both had five tackles and two sacks. Thompson was credited with a career-best 3.0 tackles for loss and forced two Central Michigan fumbles.

Game 4 • LSU 34, Syracuse 24

Sept. 26 • Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y. • Att: 43,101

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – The Orange football team had its three-game winning streak snapped by No. 8 LSU at the Carrier Dome on Saturday, Sept. 26. The Orange kept it close against the Tigers before losing by the final score of 34-24 in front of a season-high crowd of 43,101.

Running back Leonard Fournette was the difference for LSU, rushing for 244 yards and two scores.

Orange quarterback Zack Mahoney completed 16-of-38 passes for 154 yards and three touchdowns in his first career start. Brisly Estime also had a solid day for SU, totaling a career-high 261 all-purpose yards. Estime racked up 202 return yards, including 158 yards on six kickoff returns to tie Jim Turner for 10th on the Orange single-game record list. Turner recorded 158 yards on four kickoff returns versus Rutgers in 1994.

LSU opened the scoring in the first quarter with a six-play, 91-yard drive capped by a 14-yard touchdown run by Fournette at the 3:56 mark.

Syracuse closed the gap to four with 6:58 left in the second quarter when Cole Murphy booted a 43-yard field goal. Murphy had an opportunity to draw SU closer on the last play of the half, but he pushed a 31-yard try to the right and the score remained 7-3 at halftime.

In the third quarter, LSU scored 10 straight points to extend the lead to 17-3, including a 69-yard punt return touchdown by Tre'Davious White with 7:48 remaining in the stanza.

Mahoney answered less than two minutes later, hitting Estime from 40 yards out for SU's first touchdown. However, LSU snatched the momentum back on the next series as Fournette rumbled 62 yards into the end zone to reclaim a 14-point lead (24-10) for the Tigers late in the third.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Orange closed to within seven again. Ben Lewis capped a seven-play drive by catching his second career touchdown on a 2-yard pass from Mahoney.

Following Lewis' score, LSU sealed the game with 10 points in the span of 4:03. Brandon Harris hit Malachi Dupre for an 11-yard touchdown, and Deion Jones intercepted Mahoney to set up a 37-yard field goal by Trent Domingue with 5:11 left.

Mahoney connected with Dontae Strickland for a 5-yard touchdown with 1:53 remaining to make the score 34-24, but LSU recovered the ensuing onside kick and ran out the clock to secure the victory.

GAME SUMMARIES

Game 5 • USF 45, Syracuse 24

Oct. 10 • Raymond James Stadium • Tampa, Fla. • Att: 27,235

TAMPA, Fla. – The Orange lost its first road game of the season against USF at Raymond James Stadium on Saturday, Oct. 10. The Orange put together a second-half comeback, but it was not enough as the Bulls recorded a 45-24 victory to end SU's two-game road winning streak in the series.

Playing away from the Carrier Dome for the first time in 2015, the Orange got off to a slow start, but held USF to one touchdown in the first half and trailed 10-3 at the break. Both offenses found their rhythms in the second half, with the Bulls outscoring SU 35-21 over the final two quarters to prevail.

Freshman quarterback Eric Dungey returned from injury and threw for a career-high 232 yards. Dungey accounted for all three Orange touchdowns, passing for two and scoring another on a 7-yard run.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Bulls went 79 yards on 11 plays to open the scoring. Darius Rice capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown plunge, staking the home team a 7-0 lead 45 seconds into the second stanza. The two sides traded field goals late in the period to round out the first-half scoring.

The pace quickened dramatically in the second half. The Bulls went up 17-3 after a 25-yard touchdown run by Marlon Mack on their first possession of the third quarter. A 42-yard reverse flea-flicker pas from Quinton Flowers to Ryshen Bronson on their next offensive series put the Bulls in front, 24-3.

Just like USF, the Orange proved it could score quickly too. SU tallied two touchdowns in the span of 1:53 to slice the lead to 24-17. Dungey rolled left and threw back to Jordan Fredericks, who juked two defenders and spun past another, for a 30-yard touchdown with 7:34 remaining in the third frame. After Marqez Hodge pounced on a Flowers fumble, Dungey ran into the end zone from seven yards out at the 5:41 mark.

The scoring barrage continued as Mack broke off a 45-yard TD run and Dungey delivered a 7-yard scoring pass to Ishmael to make it 31-24 six seconds into the final quarter.

Needing a touchdown and extra point to tie the score, SU could not muster a stop on USF's next series. The Bulls converted three third downs during a 14-play, 82-yard march that ended in a 2-yard touchdown run by Flowers. The final conversion came on third-and-10 from the SU 34. Flowers' pass sailed out of bounds, but the Orange was whistled for a personal foul that kept the drive alive.

The USF defense forced turnovers on SU's next two possessions, and a 14-yard TD pass from Flowers to Rodney Adams with 7:30 to play closed the scoring.

Game 6 • Virginia 44, Syracuse 38 (3OT)

Oct. 17 • Scott Stadium • Charlottesville, Va. • Att: 39,223

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. – Syracuse led the entire second half until Virginia tied the game on the last play of regulation and the Orange ultimately lost to the Cavaliers, 44-38, in triple overtime on Saturday, Oct. 17 at Scott Stadium. The game marked the fourth triple-overtime contest in program history, matching the longest game ever played by the Orange.

Trailing 24-21, Virginia's Irving Frye connected on a 25-yard field goal with no time remaining to force overtime. Both teams scored touchdowns on their first two OT possessions. In the third extra frame, Cole Murphy tried a 48-yard field goal, but pushed it right. That opened the door for the Cavaliers and Jordan Ellis provided the winning margin with a 3-yard touchdown run.

Eric Dungey accounted for 235 yards of total offense to lead Syracuse. He was 16-for-22 passing for 150 yards, and rushed for a personal-best 85 yards. Dungey threw two touchdowns in overtime and scored on a 26-yard run late in the first half.

With SU in front 7-0, the two teams combined for 28 points in the last 5:07 of the first half, including a spectacular 26-yard TD run by Dungey in which he hurdled Virginia All-America safety Quin Blanding.

The second half didn't feature nearly as many fireworks. SU and Virginia combined for five total offensive possessions in the third and fourth quarters thanks to some lengthy drives by both teams.

Murphy drilled a 22-yard field goal on SU's first second-half series to push the lead to 24-14 late in the third. However, Virginia managed 10 points on its last two possessions, including Frye's tying field goal to finish off a 19-play, 88-yard march that drained nearly seven minutes off the clock.

Dungey connected with Ervin Philips and Steve Ishmael for touchdowns in overtime. The Cavaliers kept pace on scores by Canaan Severin and Taquan Mizzell.

Parris Bennett led the SU defense with a career-high 13 tackles. Blanding tallied a team-high 12 tackles for the Cavaliers, who have now won three straight games against the Orange.

GAME SUMMARIES

Game 7 • Pittsburgh 23, Syracuse 20

Oct. 24 • Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y. • Att: 29,832

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Pitt kicker Chris Blewitt connected on a 25-yard field goal as time expired to give the Panthers a 23-20 victory against Syracuse on Saturday, Oct. 24 at the Carrier Dome. Blewitt's winning kick ended another tight contest between the rivals, as three of the last four meetings have been decided by three points or less.

Steve Ishmael had a career day for the Orange. He caught a personal-best seven passes and posted the first 100-yard receiving game of his career, finishing with 114 yards. The Miami, Fla. native made a 4-yard touchdown catch late in the first half to extend his streak to three straight games with a TD.

Pitt started the scoring on the game's first drive. A 38-yard reverse pass from Tyler Boyd to Dontez Ford was the key play on the Panthers' opening series, which led to a Blewitt 33-yard field goal.

The Orange responded quickly as Jordan Fredericks broke off a 55-yard run on SU's first play from scrimmage to position the Orange at the Pitt 20-yard line. On the next play, Eric Dungey linked up with Ervin Philips for a 20-yard touchdown. Cole Murphy's PAT gave the Orange a 7-3 advantage.

In the second quarter, Murphy hit a 23-yard field goal at the 7:44 mark to make it 10-3.

Then things got exciting, as the two sides combined for 17 points in the last two minutes of the second quarter. Qadree Ollison finished a 70-yard Pitt scoring march with a 2-yard TD plunge at the 1:37 mark to tie the score. On the ensuing SU possession, Dungey executed a perfect two-minute drill. It took the Orange 1:11 to go 75 yards, capped by a 4-yard scoring pass from Dungey to Ishmael that put SU back on top, 17-10.

Ishmael's score left 26 seconds on the clock, which Pitt used to its advantage. After a short kickoff and personal foul penalty against the Orange, the Panthers gained 30 yards on three plays to set up Blewitt, who converted a 30-yard field goal with no time left to narrow the margin to 17-13 at the break.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, but the Panthers capitalized on Dungey's second interception of the period. Lafayette Pitts anticipated a Dungey throw and returned the pick 17 yards to the SU 44-yard line. Pitt handed the ball to Ollison six times on the ensuing possession, including a 1-yard touchdown run with 14 minutes left to put the Panthers ahead for the first time, 20-17.

Murphy tied the game on his second field goal of the day, this one from 37 yards, however the Orange never got the ball back after that. Pitt executed a 19-play drive that chewed up the remaining 9:20 of the game. The Panthers converted four third downs on the drive. They also converted a fourth-and-seven when punter Ryan Winslow passed to Matt Galambos for 12 yards to set the stage for Blewitt's winning kick.

Game 8 • Florida State 45, Syracuse 21

Oct. 31 • Doak Campbell Stadium • Tallahassee, Fla. • Att: 67,630

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Orange quarterback Eric Dungey recorded a pair of first-half rushing touchdowns, but No. 17 Florida State outscored Syracuse in the second half 17-7 to pull away for a 45-21 victory at Doak Campbell Stadium on Saturday, Oct. 31.

Dungey scored on two 1-yard runs against a Seminole defense that had allowed just two rushing TDs total in its first seven games. Dungey has accounted for at least two touchdowns in all seven games of his young career and has 16 total touchdowns, two shy of Donovan McNabb's freshman record for touchdown responsibility (18) set in 1995.

SU scored first. After a 62-yard screen pass from Dungey to Dontae Strickland brought the ball down to the FSU 4-yard line, Dungey punched it in from a yard out at the 8:08 mark of the first quarter.

Unfortunately, the advantage didn't last long. FSU notched 21 straight points, including two TD passes from backup quarterback Sean Maguire to Travis Rudolph, to go up 21-7 early in the second quarter.

With the home team threatening to pull away, the SU defense stepped up. The Orange withstood a nine-play FSU drive that ended with a missed Roberto Aguayo field goal and forced a three-and-out on the next Seminoles' possession.

Dungey and the SU offense capitalized. Dungey rushed for 25 yards on SU's last series of the half, capping the 45-yard march with a 1-yard TD run to the edge, but again the hosts quickly stole the momentum back. FSU took advantage of a short kickoff, going 58 yards in 45 seconds. Jacques Patrick closed the seven-play drive with a 1-yard TD run with nine seconds left to make the score 28-14 at the break.

In the third quarter, the combination of Maguire and Rudolph struck for the third time. After a Dungey fumble, the duo combined on a 19-yard TD pass that extended the FSU advantage to 35-14. The touchdown was the first of 17 straight Seminole points, which included a 28-yard touchdown run by Patrick and a 35-yard field goal by Aguayo, that put the game out of reach.

SU's Brisly Estime capped the scoring by returning his second punt for a touchdown in 2015. Estime took Cason Beatty's boot back 59 yards through traffic with 1:20 to go for the first punt return TD against the Seminoles since 2001. In addition, Estime became the first Orange player with multiple punt return touchdowns in a season since Quinton Spotwood set the school record with four in 1997.

GAME SUMMARIES

Game 9 • Louisville 41, Syracuse 17

Nov. 7 • Papa John's Cardinal Stadium • Louisville, Ky. • Att: 46,158

LOUISVILLE, Ky. – Syracuse led 10-7 after the first quarter, but Louisville scored 34 straight points and rolled to a 41-17 victory against the Orange on Saturday, Nov. 7 at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium.

Ervin Philips and Steve Ishmael accounted for the Orange's two touchdowns. Philips' score came on a 10-yard run in the opening quarter and marked the first rushing touchdown of his career. Ishmael's TD was on a 9-yard reception with 26 seconds left in the game.

Defensively, the Orange tied its season high with four takeaways. SU intercepted Louisville quarterback Kyle Bolin once and recovered three Cardinal fumbles. Steven Clark had two of the fumble recoveries to become the first Orange defender since Arthur Jones versus USF in 2009 to fall on two loose footballs. Cordell Hudson and Kielan Whitner set career highs with nine tackles each. Hudson also intercepted the first pass of his career. Whitner was credited with his first career forced fumble in the contest.

After Louisville went 75 yards in 1:41 to take a 7-0 lead on the game's first possession, SU scored 10 straight points to claim the advantage. Philips got the Orange on the board two plays after Hudson picked off Bolin and returned the ball 18 yards to the Louisville 46. The SU defense forced a three-and-out on the Cardinals' next series and quarterback Eric Dungey engineered a 16-play drive capped by Cole Murphy's 36-yard field goal with 14 seconds remaining in the first quarter.

Louisville turned the tide late in the first half when Trumaine Washington intercepted a Dungey pass and returned it 39 yards for a touchdown with 5:42 to go before the intermission. Bolin followed Washington's pick-six with a 13-yard TD pass to Cole Hikutini at the 1:23 mark to make the score 21-10 Louisville at the break.

Bolin went on to throw two more touchdown passes in the second half, including another to Hikutini in the third quarter. Johnn Wallace kicked a pair of field goals to give Louisville its biggest lead of the day at 41-10 with 7:32 remaining.

SU put together a late scoring drive, going 38 yards on 11 plays, capped by Ishmael's touchdown on a pass from Zack Mahoney. Mahoney replaced Dungey earlier in the drive when Dungey exited due to injury.

Game 10 • Clemson 37, Syracuse 27

Nov. 14 • Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y. • Att: 36,736

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – The Orange's upset bid fell short against No. 1 Clemson, as the Tigers managed to hold off SU at the Carrier Dome, 37-27, on Saturday, Nov. 14. SU trailed by 14 points three times, but managed to make it a one-score game heading into the fourth quarter before succumbing to the Tigers.

The Orange rushed for 242 yards against Clemson's vaunted front seven, averaging 7.1 yards a carry on 34 attempts in the contest. SU's rushing total was more than twice what the Tigers' defense had allowed on average coming into the game (118.9).

The Orange used misdirection as well as double- and triple-option plays to keep the Tigers off balance. Backup quarterback Zack Mahoney orchestrated the attack, rushing for 76 yards on 10 carries, including touchdown runs of 10 and 12 yards. He was also 8-of-21 passing for 80 yards.

George Morris led all Orange runners with a career-high 80 yards on 14 carries.

The game started with a bang. The two ACC Atlantic Division rivals combined for 35 points in the opening quarter with Clemson holding a 21-14 advantage after the period.

In the second quarter, Deshaun Watson hit Deon Cain for a 40-yard touchdown early in the frame to push the Clemson margin to 28-14. Cole Murphy and Clemson kicker Greg Huegel exchanged field goals late in the half to make the score 31-17 Tigers at the break.

After punts by both teams on their initial second-half possessions, Mahoney led the Orange on a 97-yard scoring drive to pull SU back within a touchdown. Mahoney accounted for 87 yards on the drive (45 passing, 42 rushing) and capped the march with a 12-yard touchdown run at the 6:48 mark of the third.

In the fourth quarter, the teams exchanged field goals on three straight possessions. Murphy made a 24-yard attempt in between Huegel hitting from 31 and 42 yards out to give the Tigers a 37-27 lead with 6:58 to go in regulation.

Clemson forced a three-and-out on Syracuse's next series, which proved to be the last time it had the ball. The Tigers ran 13 plays to eat up the last 5:57 of the contest and preserve the 10-point win.

Watson accounted for 465 of Clemson's 570 yards of total offense and three touchdowns. He was 34-for-47 passing for 360 yards and two scores. He also rushed 14 times for 105 yards and one touchdown.

Game 11 • NC State 42, Syracuse 29

Nov. 21 • Carter-Finley Stadium • Raleigh, N.C. • Att: 55,260

RALEIGH, N.C. – Zack Mahoney and Jordan Fredericks accounted for three of the Orange's four touchdowns in a 42-29 loss to NC State at Carter-Finley Stadium on Saturday, Nov. 21. Mahoney threw a pair of TD passes and Fredericks broke off a 75-yard scoring run to provide most of Syracuse's points.

Mahoney, making his second straight start in place of Eric Dungey, finished 10-for-21 passing for 152 yards. Fredericks paced SU on the ground with 86 yards to move past Damien Rhodes for third on the school's freshman rushing record list with 559 yards.

The Wolfpack scored touchdowns on its first two drives and led 14-3 lead after the opening quarter.

Late in the first half, Nyheim Hines stretched the Wolpack lead to 21-3 with a 4-yard TD run. However, Syracuse answered, going 70 yards in four plays for its first touchdown of the game. Mahoney finished the march by finding Ervin Philips in the end zone from 30 yards out. The Orange elected to go for two, but Mahoney's pass fell incomplete and the score remained 21-9.

Syracuse trimmed the lead to five on the first play of the second half. Fredericks took a handoff from Mahoney and raced 75 yards to paydirt to close the gap to 21-16 following Murphy's extra point.

NC State pushed the lead back to 12 on its ensuing possession. Jacoby Brissett hit David Grinnage for an 11-yard gain on fourth-and-7, and the Wolfpack capitalized on the conversion two plays later when Brissett hooked up with Jumichael Ramos for a 5-yard touchdown.

The Wolfpack began to pull away later in the third. Darian Roseboro intercepted Mahoney and returned the pick 20 yards for a touchdown at the 5:20 mark. NC State added another score less than three minutes into the fourth quarter when Dakwa Nichols ran it in from 17 yards out to make the score 42-16.

SU registered two late touchdowns to close the scoring. Oliver Vigille returned an NC State fumble 29 yards for a score. SU recovered the ensuing onside kick, which led to a 3-yard touchdown pass from Mahoney to Ishmael with 2:37 to play. SU tried another onside kick after Ishmael's touchdown, but it was recovered by the Wolfpack and the hosts ran out the clock for their second staight win over the Orange.

Game 12 • Syracuse 20, Boston College 17

Nov. 28 • Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y. • Att: 30,317

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Cole Murphy's 35-yard field goal as time expired propelled Syracuse to a dramatic 20-17 victory over Boston College on Senior Day at the Carrier Dome on Saturday, Nov. 28. The Orange defense stepped up in Scott Shafer's final game as head coach, holding the Eagles to just one completion, forcing six three-and-outs and stopping the visitors 11 out of 12 times on third down.

After the Eagles knotted the game at 17 on a 43-yard field goal by Colton Lichtenberg with 2:42 remaining, the Orange started their winning drive on their own 31. Quarterback Zack Mahoney completed a clutch nine-yard pass to Ervin Philips on third-and-6 to move the chains. Two plays later, Mahoney fired a 10-yard strike to Alvin Cornelius to position the Orange at the Eagles' 41-yard line. A Boston College offsides penalty and three straight running plays by the Orange set up Murphy's decisive kick.

Philips led the Orange with 94 yards from scrimmage. He rushed for 75 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries to go with 19 yards on four receptions. In his fourth start, Mahoney was 11-of-25 passing for 86 yards and one touchdown to earn his first career win.

Virtually all of BC's offensive production came on the ground. The Eagles amassed 239 yards of offense, including 230 yards rushing. Quarterback Jeff Smith led the way with 117 yards on 13 carries. Running back Tyler Rouse also topped the centrury mark, gaining 111 yards on 24 carries and scoring two touchdowns. The Eagles did not complete a pass until the 6:41 mark of the fourth quarter as Smith finished 1-of-13 passing for nine yards. The nine passing yards were the 10th-fewest ever for an Orange opponent and the fewest since Army finished with zero yards through the air on Sept. 16, 1989.

With the game tied at 7-all, the Orange defense stepped up late in the first half. Syracuse recorded interceptions on back-to-back BC possessions, including one by Cordell Hudson that led to a season-long, 49-yard field goal by Murphy that gave SU its first lead, 10-7, with 2:25 left before intermission.

Early in the third quarter, Steve Ishmael caught a 1-yard TD pass from Mahoney to extend the advantage to 17-7 with 10:45 to go in the period.

The Eagles answered back less than a minute later. Smith sprinted 51 yards to the Orange 9-yard line on first down. Rouse did the rest, finding the end zone on the very next play to cut the SU lead to three, 17-14, at the 9:53 mark.

Following Rouse's second score, the two teams exchanged punts on the next seven possessions until Lichtenberg's tying field goal.

Shafer finished his three-year Syracuse head coaching tenure with a 14-23 overall record. The victory was the Orange's fourth in the last six meetings with the Eagles.

2016
HISTORY

1889
On Nov. 23, Syracuse traveled to Rochester for its first intercollegiate football game. Wearing pink and blue uniforms, SU lost 36-0 to finish the year 0-1.

1890
Orange was adopted as the school color and Syracuse's athletic teams are henceforth known as "Orange" or "Orangemen." Bobby Winston became the program's first head coach. SU defeated the Syracuse Athletic Association 14-0 in the season opener for its first football victory en route to a 7-4 record.

1891
Stephen Crane, author of the Civil War classic "Red Badge of Courage," was a member of an SU squad that went 4-7.

1892
The only season in SU football history with no wins when at least two games were played. The Orange went 0-8-1 under coach Jordan C. Wells.

1893
Without an official coach, the Orange finished the season with a 4-9-1 record. SU posted triumphs against Syracuse High School, Hamilton, Onondaga Academy and Cazenovia.

1894
In his only season as Syracuse's head coach, George H. Bond led the Orange to a 6-5 record.

1895
The Orange secured their first real home field as SU went from playing in parks throughout the city of Syracuse to playing at The Oval, which was a space located behind the Hall of Languages. The Orange recorded their first victory against rival Colgate, winning by the score of 4-0.

1896
The Orange played their first opponent from outside New York state, losing to Williams College, 24-6.

1897
The Colgate "Hoodoo" was born when a newspaper reporter sympathetic to the Raiders' cause tackled an SU player who was on his way to scoring the winning touchdown. The game ended in a 6-6 tie.

1898
The Orange posted an 8-2-1 record, outscoring its opponents 192-69 under the direction of head coach Frank E. Wade.

1899
SU finished 4-4 in the final season of head coach Frank E. Wade's three-year tenure.

1900
Edwin Sweetland, a Cornell grad, was hired as head football coach and to start the crew program. He guided the Orange to a 7-2-1 record, including six shutouts. Sweetland later coached against SU as the head coach at Colgate.

1901
Success builds for the football program as the Orange closed the season with a 7-1 record. The lone loss came against Lafayette, 5-0.

1902
A 23-0 shutout of rival Colgate was an important win for the Orange as they cruised to a 6-2-1 season. Other big victories were against the Onondaga Indians, Amherst, and Williams.

1903
The football program gained momentum as its budget increased to $5,500. Jason B. Parish and Ancil D. Brown served as co-coaches and led the Orange to a 5-4 record.

1904
In Dr. Charles P. Hutchins first season as head coach, SU finished 6-3. In a victory against Manhattan, the Orange put 144 points on the board, a team record that still stands.

1905
The Orange recorded six shutouts and finished the season with an overall record of 8-3 in Dr. Charles P. Hutchins' second and final year at the helm.

1906
Head coach Frank J. (Buck) O'Neill was hired and piloted the Orange to a 6-3 record in the team's final season playing at The Oval. On Nov. 17, the Orange handed Lafayette its only loss of the season, 12-4.

1907
The Orange opened Archbold Stadium, a 20,000-seat facility, with a 28-0 victory against Hobart. The stadium provided the Orange with one of the finest facilities of its time. Once called "the eighth wonder of the world," Archbold was just the third concrete stadium built in the United States. A 22-0 win against Hamilton on Oct. 26 was the program's 100th win. Marquis (Bill) Horr became the the program's first All-American when he was named to Walter Camp's All-America Second Team.

1908
Howard H. Jones was hired as head coach. The Orange posted a 6-3-1 record and along the way played their first Western Conference (now Big Ten) opponent, beating Michigan 28-4. Marquis (Bill) Horr is the first Syracuse player to be named a first-team All-American when he is recognized by Walter Camp for the second year in a row.

1909
SU went 4-5-1 during the first of two seasons for head coach T.A. Dwight Jones.

1910
In its 22nd season of intercollegiate football, SU finished 5-4-1. T.A. Dwight Jones completed his two-year tenure as head coach with a 9-9-2 overall mark.

1911
First-year head coach C. DeForest Cummings led the Orange to a 5-3-2 season, including a 6-0 shutout of Ohio State, and a 12-11 upset of Pop Warner's Carlisle team that featured the legendary Jim Thorpe. End A. Harry Kallett earned Walter Camp Third Team All-America honors.

1912
After opening the season with a 12-0 victory against in-state rival Hobart, SU finished with a 4-5 record in C. DeForest Cummings' last season as head coach. Rudolph "Rudy" Probst made Walter Camp's All-America Second Team.

1913
Frank O'Neill returned to coach the Orange after leading the program to a winning season in 1907. He guided SU to six wins, its top total since 1908.

1914
The Orange opened the year 2-0 and posted a 5-3-2 overall record. Among the victories was an 81-0 rout of Hamilton, the third-largest margin of victory in program history.

1915
SU's first powerhouse team finished 9-1-2, recording seven shutouts and outscoring the opposition, 331-16. SU was invited to the Rose Bowl to play Washington, but declined because an earlier West Coast trip (the first by an Eastern school) to Oregon State had used up the the school's travel budget. Guards Christopher Schlacter and Harold White were both named All-Americans.

1916
In his only season as head coach, William Hollenback led SU to a 5-4 record. The Orange scored more than 50 points in three of their five victories, including a 73-0 shutout of Ohio University.

1917
All-America tackle Alfred Cobb captained the Orange squad to an 8-1-1 record. Syracuse closed the year with six consecutive wins.

1918
The Orange were 5-1 with four shutouts in Frank O'Neill's penultimate season as head coach. Joe Alexander earned his first of three consecutive first-team All-America honors. Louis Usher and Willard Ackley also received All-America recognition.

1919
All-American Joe Alexander and the Orange finished 8-3 in the last year of Frank O'Neill's tenure as head coach. O'Neill was the sideline leader for a total of eight years (1906-07, 1913-15, 1917-19).

1920
Team captain Joe Alexander received All-America honors for the third straight year. He and first-year head coach John Meehan led the Orange to a 6-2-1 record. Alexander was enshrined in the Collge Football Hall of Fame in 1954. Tackle Bertrand Gulick also earned All-America recognition.

1921
SU records its ninth straight winning season by going 7-2. Gifford Zimmerman was the first player in team history to wear the fabled No. 44. The number remained in circulation until the 2005 season, when it was retired.

1922
Third-year coach John Meehan led the Orange to an 6-1-2 record. The team's only loss was a 21-14 decision to Pittsburgh. The season saw the beginning of the Penn State series, which started with a scoreless tie in a game played at the Polo Grounds in New York City. Roy Simmons Sr. was the squad's quarterback, marking the start of a relationship between the Simmons family and Syracuse University Athletics that continues today. After his playing career concluded in 1924, Simmons Sr. coached the Orange lacrosse and boxing squads, as well as served as an assistant football coach. Roy Simmons Jr. was SU's men's lacrosse coach from 1971 through 1998, taking the reins of the program from his father when he retired in 1970. Roy Simmons III is the men's lacrosse team's current director of operations. Future College Football Hall of Fame coach Lynn 'Pappy' Waldorf earned second-team All-America honors at tackle.

1923
All-America end Evander (Pete) MacRae was part of an Orange defense that allowed only 19 points and posted seven shutouts. Syracuse went 8-1 with its only loss a 16-7 defeat against rival Colgate.

1924
The Orange won eight games (8-2-1 overall) for the second consecutive year and defeated Boston College for the 200th victory in program history on Oct. 18. Lynn 'Pappy' Waldorf was named an All-American for the third time.

1925
Clarence Thomas became the first quarterback to wear the storied No. 44 jersey. He led the team to an 8-1-1 record in C.W.P. Reynolds' first year as head coach. The defense posted a school-record six consectutive shutouts. Vic Hanson was an Associated Press Third Team All-American.

1926
Behind Vic Hanson, the Orange outscored their opponents 225-59 on their way to a 7-2-1 record. Hanson earned All-America honors in football again and captained the basketball team during the winter months. Hanson is the only athlete enshrined in both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and the College Football Hall of Fame.

1927
In his first year as head coach, Lew Andreas led SU to four straight wins to start the season and a 5-3-2 overall record.

1928
After a 3-0 start, the Orange finished the year with a 4-4-1 record. The team scored a season-high 58 points in a win against Johns Hopkins on Oct. 13.

1929
Lew Andreas, who was SU's basketball coach from 1924 through 1950, completed his three-year stint as the football coach by guiding the Orange to a 6-3 record. SU played the first night game in the East, beating Hobart 77-0.

1930
Vic Hanson returned to Syracuse to coach the team after playing briefly for a New York Yankees farm team, highlighting his multi-faceted athletic ability. The Orange went 5-2-2 in Hanson's first year and end George Ellert was named an All-American.

1931
SU outscored its foes 238-56 en route to a 7-1-1 season that featured seven consectuve wins to start the year.

1932
A 4-4-1 season included the program's 250th victory, a 27-6 win against Oglethorpe on Nov. 5.

1933
After a 3-0 start that included dominating wins against Clarkson and Ohio Wesleyan, SU closed the year with a 4-4 record for fourth-year head coach Vic Hanson.

1934
All-America tackle James Steen led the Orange to a 6-2 record. Syracuse's six victories included back-to-back shutouts of Penn State and Michigan State.

1935
The Orange won six games for the second year in a row and finished the season 6-1-1. Senior guard Ed Jontos became Syracuse's first pro football draft pick when he was selected 45th overall by the New York Giants in the 1936 draft.

1936
The Orange defeated Clarkson to start the season, but lost their final seven games. Vic Hanson concluded his Syracuse coaching tenure with a seven-year record of 33-21-5.

1937
Ossie Solem succeeded Vic Hanson as head coach and led the team to a 5-2-1 record. After starting 3-0, Syracuse made its first appearance in the Associated Press college football poll, debuting at No. 17 after defeating Cornell on Oct. 16.

1938
Wilmeth Sidat-Singh, one of the first African-American quarterbacks to play college football, led SU to a stunning 19-17 comeback win against Cornell and a 5-3 overall record. Among Sidat-Singh's teammates were Olympic sprinter and legendary sports announcer Marty Glickman and the great Michigan State coach Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty. Sidat-Singh was also a star for the Orange on the hardwood and his basketball jersey was retired in February 2005.

1939
Syracuse went 3-3-2 and won its last two games. The defense set a team record, holding opponents to a 33.3 percent pass completion rate.

1940
The Orange beat NYU 47-13 on Oct. 12. The game was played in Yankee Stadium in the Bronx in front of 8,000 people. The victory was part of a 3-4-1 season for fourth-year coach Ossie Solem.

1941
The Orange posted a 5-2-1 record and returned to the AP rankings, checking in at No. 18 after a 27-20 triumph at Wisconsin. The Syracuse special teams unit set a school record for punt return yards (662).

1942
Winning the first five games of the season, the Orange were ranked as high as 15th in the AP poll and went on to finish with a 6-3 record.

1943
Syracuse University suspended intercollegiate sports due to World War II.

1944
The Orange concluded the year with a 2-4-1 record, including playing a game against Boston College at historic Fenway Park in Boston.

1945
Ossie Solom ended his eight-year SU coaching stint, guiding the Orange to a 1-6 record. He had a 30-27-6 overall coaching mark.

1946
Future College Football Hall of Fame coach Clarence L. "Biggie" Munn served as the Orange head coach and went 4-5 in his only year at the SU helm. Munn later went on to coach at Michigan State. The Orange program enjoyed its 300th win, a 28-7 victory against Temple.

1947
Reaves Baysinger became head coach and promptly changed the Orange's uniform from a blue jersey with orange numbers to white to go along with khaki moleskin pants. He led SU to a 3-6 record.

1948
In the second and final year for head coach Reaves Baysinger, the Orange posted a 1-8 record. The team's only win was a 13-9 season-opening victory against Niagara.

1949
Ben Schwartzwalder was hired as head coach following five consecutive losing seasons. Schwartwalder won four games in his first year, including a 35-7 triumph over rival Colgate.

1950
A 5-5 season featured a four-game winning streak in the middle of the year. Avatus Stone set the school record (since tied) with three interceptions in a 27-7 win versus Penn State.

1951
Syracuse enjoyed its first winning season since 1942, posting a 5-4 record. The SU defense forced a school-record nine turnovers against Lafayette. Off the field, Howard Jones and Frank J. (Buck) O'Neill were the first individuals associated with the program to be inducted into the College Football Hall Fame.

1952
Tackles Robert Fleck and William "Bill" Skyinskus earned All-America honors, leading Syracuse to a 7-2 record and its first bowl game. SU lost to Alabama 61-6 in the Orange Bowl. Future Pro Football Hall of Fame center Jim Ringo concluded his three-year Orange career.

1953
Robert Fleck moved to guard and earned his second consecutive All-America award as the Orange finished 5-3-1 during head coach Ben Schwartzwalder's fifth season at the helm.

1954
A halfback from Long Island, well down on the preseason depth chart, was issued jersey No. 44. His name was Jim Brown. SU was 4-4 and won three of its last four games.

1955
The Syracuse defense shined, allowing 35 completions on 95 pass attempts – still records for the fewest completions and attempts by opponents in team history. Jim Brown earned All-America honors in his second season and the Orange finished with a 5-3 record. They were ranked as high as No. 18 in the AP poll.

Ben Schwartzwalder retired after the 1973 season. He guided the program to a 153-91-3 record and the 1959 national championship.

1956
With a bowl bid on the line in the regular-season finale versus Colgate, Jim Brown scored a then-NCAA record 43 points in SU's 61-7 victory. The Orange finished the regular season with a 7-1 record, earning an invitation to the Cotton Bowl, where it lost to TCU 28-27. Brown broke the SU single-season rushing record with 986 yards and earned first-team All-America honors. He went on to a Hall of Fame career with the NFL's Cleveland Browns after he was the sixth overall selection by the Browns in the 1957 NFL Draft. In 1995, Brown was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

1957
All-America end Dick Lasse led Syracuse to a 5-3-1 record. The Orange recorded the 350th win in program history with a 26-9 victory against Nebraska.

1958
Tackle Ronald Luciano, a future Major League Baseball umpire, earned All-America honors, leading the Orange to an 8-2 record. The SU defense recorded four shutouts and allowed just 59 points during the year. SU lost to No. 5 Oklahoma 21-6 in the Orange Bowl.

1959
NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
Undefeated, untied, and national champions, the Orange capped an 11-0 season with their first bowl win, a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse enjoyed its finest year on the gridiron, pulverizing foes both offensively and defensively. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 games (19.3 ypg). On offense, the Orange averaged 451 yards a game. The team featured three All-Americans, including guard Roger Davis, who was the seventh overall selection by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft.

1960
Ernie Davis earned the first of his two first-team All-America citations playing halfback for the 7-2 Orange. The Orange spent two weeks ranked No. 1 in the UPI poll and won their first five games to extend their school-record winning streak to 16 before a home loss to Pittsburgh. The Philadelphia Eagles selected fullback Art Baker with the 14th overall pick in the 1961 NFL Draft.

1961
Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the first African American to receive college football's most prestigious award. Along the way, he broke Jim Brown's SU career rushing record and led the Orange to an 8-3 record and Liberty Bowl win against Miami (Fla.). Davis, who was later enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame, was the top pick in the 1962 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins (who traded his rights to Cleveland) and in the 1962 AFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. He died of leukemia less than two years later.

1962
The Orange began the year 1-3, but recovered to post a 5-5 season. End Walt Sweeney was a first-round selection by the AFL's San Diego Chargers in the 1963 draft.

1963
The Orange won seven of their last eight contests to finish 12th in the UPI poll with an 8-2 record. John Mackey began his NFL career as a tight end for the Baltimore Colts, where he eventually played in two Super Bowls. In 1992, Mackey was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1964
Sophomore halfback Floyd Little, who was recruited to Syracuse by 1961 Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, earned All-America honors in his first season. Center Patrick Killorin also received All-America accolades. The team went 7-4 and made an appearance in the Sugar Bowl, losing to LSU 13-10. The program celebrated its 400th win — a 38-6 victory against Kansas on Sept. 26.

1965
All-Americans Floyd Little (halfback), Charles Brown (defensive halfback) and Patrick Killorin (center) led the Orange to a 7-3 record. SU was 19th in the final UPI rankings and won five of their last six games.

1966
Halfback Floyd Little and fullback Larry Csonka, the greatest one-two running punch in the Orange annals, led the team to an 8-3 record and a Gator Bowl berth. Little set an SU bowl-game record with 216 yards and Csonka added 114 in the 18-12 loss to Tennessee. Little, Csonka and tackle Gary Bugenhagen earned All-America honors. Little was selected by the Denver Broncos with the sixth overall pick in the 1967 league draft.

1967
Larry Csonka earned All-America honors for the second year in a row after rushing for 1,127 yards and eight touchdowns to power Syracuse to an 8-2 record. The AFL's Miami Dolphins selected Csonka, who went on to be enshrined in both the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame, with the eighth pick in the 1968 draft.

1968
The Orange rose to No. 10 in the national polls and finished with a 6-4 record. Defensive halfback Anthony Kyasky and defensive tackle Art Thoms earned All-America honors. Thoms was the 22nd overall selection by the Oakland Raiders in the 1969 AFL Draft.

1969
The Orange were 5-5 with back-to-back shutouts of Arizona and Navy in November. Against Penn State, Greg Allen set the single-game record for the most individual punt return yards with 172.

1970
Facing a boycott by a group of African-American student-athletes, Syracuse was outscored 100-29 in its first three games, but rebounded to win six of the next seven games. The 'Syracuse Eight,' as the group was named by the media, sat out the season calling for the equal treatment of student-athletes and a diverse coaching staff. On the field, All-America defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann led the Orange to a 6-4 record.

1971
All-America defensive back Tommy Myers intercepted an SU single-season record eight passes during a 5-5-1 campaign in which a 28-24 win against West Virginia gave the Orange program its 450th victory.

1972
The SU streak of 22 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end. The Orange lost at West Virginia in the season finale to finish 5-6. Defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann was the 10th overall pick in the 1973 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

1973
Ben Schwartzwalder retired after a 2-9 season. Schwartzwalder led the Orange to a 153-91-3 record in 25 years as head coach. He was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 1982. Guard Dave Lapham was voted an Associated Press Third Team All-American.

1974
SU began Frank Maloney's seven-year coaching tenure with a 23-15 triumph against Oregon State in the season opener, but the Orange lost nine of their last 10 to close year 2-9.

1975
All-American Raymond Preston led the Orange to a 6-5 record and was invited to play in the East-West Shrine Game. Preston enjoyed a nine-year (1976-84) NFL career as a linebacker for the San Diego Chargers.

1976
After a 3-8 campaign, five players were invited to play in the last American Bowl, a senior all-star game. Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American Tim Moresco was a member of the victorious North squad.

1977
Syracuse posted its second winning season under Frank Maloney, going 6-5, including four consecutive victories to end the year.

1978
Joe Morris set the school freshman rushing record with 1,001 yards. It was a performance that included a then-school season record four consecutive 100-yard games. In the final game in Archbold Stadium, Morris ran for 203 yards to power the Orange to a 20-17 victory against nationally-ranked Navy. SU bid farewell to Archbold having posted a 265-112-20 record all-time at the facility.

1979
With the razing of Archbold Stadium and the construction of the Carrier Dome, SU spent the entire season on the road, playing "home" games in the Meadowlands, Buffalo and Ithaca. Despite the obstacles, the Orange went 7-5 and defeated McNeese State in the Independence Bowl with future NFL players Joe Morris, Art Monk, Bill Hurley, Craig Wolfley, Gary Anderson and Jim Collins leading the way. Monk was the 18th overall selection in the 1980 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins.

1980
Sept. 20 marked the beginning of a new era with the opening of the Carrier Dome. Joe Morris scored four touchdowns and racked up 300 all-purpose yards as the Orange christened their new home with a 36-24 win against Miami (Ohio). An all-time Syracuse record crowd of 50,564 witnessed the event. The Orange were 5-6 in Frank Maloney's last year as head coach.

1981
Down-easterner Dick MacPherson arrived on the scene, replacing Frank Maloney as head coach. MacPherson guided the Orange to a 4-6-1 mark in his first year, including consecutive wins against Boston College and West Virginia to end the season. Running back Joe Morris concluded his career as SU's all-time leading rusher. He and kicker Gary Anderson both earned All-America honors.

1982
The winningest coach in Syracuse football history, Ben Schwartzwalder was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. On the field, defensive tackle Michael Charles was named a first-team All-American for the 2-9 Orange.

1983
The Orange posted their first winning season since 1979, going 6-5 in Dick MacPherson's third year as head coach. In addition, SU hit a program milestone by winning its 500th game with a 14-7 triumph against Navy.

1984
Syracuse native Tim Green earned the first of two consecutive first-team All-America certificates at defensive tackle. Green and his teammates grabbed the nation's attention with a 17-9 victory against No. 1-ranked Nebraska in the Carrier Dome during a 6-5 season.

1985
SU began a run of seven bowl berths in eight years, earning a spot opposite Maryland in the Cherry Bowl. SU lost to the Terps 35-18 to finish the year with a 7-5 record. Defensive tackle Tim Green was named a first-team All-American for the second year in a row. Green, who was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001, was the 17th overall selection in the 1986 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

1986
After an 0-4 start, the Orange won five of their final seven games to set the stage for a remarkable 1987 season.

1987
SU finished the regular season with an undefeated 11-0 record and earned a trip to the Sugar Bowl, its first New Year's Day bowl bid since 1965. Auburn's Win Lyle kicked a last-second field goal to force a 16-16 tie, the first deadlock in Sugar Bowl history. Quarterback Don McPherson finished second in the Heisman race, but won several other player of the year awards and earned first-team All-America honors. Nose guard Ted Gregory was also named a first-team All-American. Dick MacPherson was the consensus pick for national coach of the year and the Orange finished No. 4 in both polls.

1988
SU put together consecutive double-figure win seasons for the first time, capping a 10-2 season with a decisive 23-10 victory against LSU in the Hall of Fame Bowl. Defensive back Markus Paul was named a first-team All-American by four selectors (AP, FWAA, Sporting News, Football News).

1989
Syracuse football observed its 100th birthday and earned a third straight bowl invitation. This time John Biskup hit a last-minute field goal to edge Georgia 19-18 in the Peach Bowl and cap an 8-4 season. Center John Flannery and wide receiver Rob Moore earned first-team All-America recognition. Moore entered his name in the 1990 NFL Supplemental Draft and was taken first overall by the New York Jets.

1990
The Orange finished the regular season with a 6-4-2 record and an invitation to the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu. SU put the finishing touches on its third straight bowl win by shutting out Arizona 28-0 behind freshman quarterback Marvin Graves. The Wildcats had not been blanked in 20 seasons (214 games), the second-longest streak in NCAA history at the time. Center John Flannery was named a first-team All-American for the second year in a row.

1991
Assistant coach Paul Pasqualoni replaced Dick MacPherson as head coach when MacPherson left to coach the NFL's New England Patriots. The Orange also joined the BIG EAST Football Conference after years as an independent. Pasqualoni led the Orange to a 10-2 record, a perfect 5-0 BIG EAST mark, and a 24-17 win against Ohio State in the Hall of Fame Bowl on New Year's Day. Qadry Ismail earned first-team All-America honors as a kick returner and became the school's first two-sport All-American since Jim Brown. Ismail's second honor was for track & field.

The 1999 Orange earned a fifth consecutive bowl invitation and defeated Kentucky 20-13 in the Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn.

Paul Pasqualoni and the Orange again won 10 games and made their second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance, knocking off Colorado 26-22 at the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Ariz. It was the fifth straight bowl victory for Syracuse, the second-best streak in the country at the time behind Florida State. Tight end Chris Gedney was a unanimous All-America selection.

1993
Another year, another winning season. The Orange finished with a 6-4-1 overall record. Breaking records was a regular occurrence during the campaign. Marvin Graves set new marks in almost every passing and total offense category, while Shelby Hill, Pat O'Neill and Kevin Mitchell also etched their names in the Syracuse record books.

1994
In keeping with the tone of the recent past, the Orange recorded an eighth straight winning season, finishing 7-4 overall. The passing combination of Kevin Mason to Marvin Harrison was prominent throughout the year, while the return of linebacker Dan Conley for a sixth season of competition after numerous knee surgeries was a story of perseverance and dedication.

1995
A young Syracuse team posted a 9-3 record and a victory over Clemson in the Gator Bowl. The emergence of Donovan McNabb and his chemistry with receiver Marvin Harrison provided thrills and records, as Harrison established himself as one of the all-time great receivers and return men at Syracuse. Harrison was the 19th overall pick in 1996 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. Defensively, cornerback Kevin Abrams earned first-team All-America honors.

1996
Despite an 0-2 start, the Orange won a share of the BIG EAST title and once again was among the nation's elite. An eight-game winning streak in the middle of the season earned the Orange another bowl berth. The Orange beat Houston in the Liberty Bowl for its seventh consecutive bowl victory, which was the nation's longest active bowl winning streak at the time. Cornerback Kevin Abrams received first-team All-America plaudits for the second year in a row.

1997
Syracuse won its first outright BIG EAST championship, clinching the crown with a 33-18 victory at Miami (Fla.). After starting the year 1-3, a 30-19 victory against Tulane ignited an eight-game winning streak. The Orange played the first overtime game in school history against North Carolina State in the Carrier Dome. A 35-18 loss to Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl did not detract from the fact that the Orange was one of six teams to receive a Bowl Alliance bid. Safety Donovin Darius was a first-team All-America selection.

1998
After a 34-33 home loss to eventual national champion Tennessee in the season opener, the Orange defeated defending national champion Michigan in Ann Arbor the following week. From there, SU went 7-3 to win its second outright BIG EAST title and third conference championship in a row. The Orange earned a Bowl Championship Series berth in the first year of the BCS and lost to Florida in the Orange Bowl in Donovan McNabb's last game. McNabb was selected with the second overall pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1999 NFL Draft, the highest a Syracuse quarterback has ever been selected. Kick returner Kevin Johnson earned first-team All-America honors.

1999
Syracuse earned a bowl invitation for the fifth straight year and the 11th time in 13 season. The Orange were 7-5 in the final season of the millennium and closed the century with a 20-13 victory against Kentucky in the Music City Bowl. All-American linebacker Keith Bulluck was selected in the first round (30th overall) by the Tennessee Titans in the 2000 NFL Draft. The University recognized the program's All-Century Team at the final home game.

2000
Syracuse ran its streak of consecutive winning seasons to 14 with a 6-5 record. Cornerback Will Allen was taken with the 22nd overall pick in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft by the New York Giants.

2001
Syracuse continued its streak of winning seasons with its 15th in a row, posting a 10-3 record and topping Kansas State in the Insight.com Bowl for its 12th bowl victory. Consensus All-American Dwight Freeney was selected in the first round of the 2002 NFL Draft, marking the fifth consecutive year that an SU player heard his name called in the opening round.

2002
The Orange string of winning seasons came to an end as SU finished 4-8. The team played in two triple-overtime games, including a 50-42 win against No. 8 Virginia Tech. Quarterback Troy Nunes ended his SU career ranked in the top five on 10 different school record lists, while linebacker Clifton Smith and punter Mike Shafer also concluded fine careers. In November, former quarterback Donovan McNabb was named to SU's Board of Trustees.

2003
Running back Walter Reyes established the SU single-season records for rushing touchdowns (21) and total touchdowns (22) to lead the Orange to a 6-6 record. Receiver Johnnie Morant, defensive tackle Christian Ferrara, and offensive tackle Kevin Sampson entered the fraternity of SU players selected in the NFL Draft.

2004
Running back Walter Reyes concluded his college career as the program's second all-time leading rusher with 3,424 yards. The Orange earned a bowl berth for the first time since 2001, losing to Georgia Tech in the Champs Sports Bowl 51-14 in Paul Pasqualoni's last game as head coach. Offensive tackle Adam Terry was chosen by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

2005
Head coach Greg Robinson, who also served as defensive coordinator, took over the program and the pass defense jumped 69 spots in the NCAA statistical rankings from the previous year (90th to 21st), while the total defense went from 101st in 2004 to 57th in 2005. Free safety Anthony Smith led a group of four seniors who were selected in the 2006 NFL Draft when he was chosen in the third round by the defending Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers.

2006
Delone Carter emerged as a capable running back in his freshman season. Carter ran for 713 yards, the second-best total for a freshman in school history. Tanard Jackson and Kelvin Smith were selected in the 2007 NFL Draft.

2007
The Orange went 2-10, but defeated nationally-ranked Louisville on the road in a 38-35 shootout. Receiver Mike Williams had a touchdown reception in nine straight games, while the kick return duo of Max Suter and Mike Holmes had a big year. The pair keyed an Orange unit that led the BIG EAST in average yards per kick return (24.8).

2008
The world premiere of "The Express," the life story of Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, was held in downtown Syracuse prior to SU's game against Penn State. On the field, Syracuse went 3-9 in Greg Robinson's final year as head coach. The team's biggest win was a last-minute, 24-23 victory at Notre Dame. Running back Curtis Brinkley established an SU season record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games (5) and was one of four SU players to sign with an NFL team. Fullback Tony Fiammetta earned Pro Football Weekly All-America honors.

"The Express," starring Rob Brown as Ernie Davis, premiered in Syracuse in 2008.

Doug Marrone returned to his alma mater to serve as the program's 28th head coach. Marrone brought in Syracuse native Greg Paulus to quarterback the Orange after a stellar four-year basketball career at Duke. Paulus led the Orange to 4-8 record in his only season. Punter Rob Long and defensive tackle Arthur Jones earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors. Jones was selected in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens after helping the Orange rank sixth nationally in sacks and 13th in rushing defense.

2010
In his second year at the helm, head coach Doug Marrone led Syracuse back to the postseason. The Orange went 8-5 and beat Kansas State in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Behind linebackers Doug Hogue and Derrell Smith, the Orange ranked seventh nationally in total defense. Running back Delone Carter led the Syracuse offense, rushing for 1,233 yards in his final season, including 198 against Kansas State to win Pinstripe Bowl MVP honors.

2011
The Orange got off to a 5-2 start, but lost its last five games to finish 5-7. Quarterback Ryan Nassib authored the best statistical passing season in school history to that point, establishing team records for completions (259), attempts (415), yards (2,685) and matching the record for touchdown passes (22). Defensive end Chandler Jones used a standout season to garner the attention of pro scouts. The younger brother of former SU star Arthur Jones was the first pick of the New England Patriots (21st overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft. Jones, Nick Provo, Andrew Tiller Antwon Bailey and Justin Pugh earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors.

2012
In its final year in the BIG EAST, Syracuse won a share of the conference championship and finished 8-5 overall. The Orange won its second Pinstripe Bowl title in three years, beating West Virginia 38-14. Quarterback Ryan Nassib surpassed his previous team records for completions (295) and attempts (415). Nassib also set new Syracuse records for passing yards (3,757) and touchdown passes (26). Alec Lemon eclipsed his own season record for most receptions (72). Lemon, offensive tackle Justin Pugh and safety Shamarko Thomas earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors, while Nassib was a Pro Football Weekly All-America selection. Pugh, Nassib and Thomas were all selected in the 2013 NFL Draft.

2013
Scott Shafer replaced Doug Marrone as head coach after Marrone was hired by the Buffalo Bills. Syracuse went 7-6, including a win against Minnesota in the Texas Bowl. In ACC play, the Orange were 4-4 in their first year as a member of the conference and tied Boston College for third place in the Atlantic Division. Six members of the Orange earned All-ACC honors, including Jay Bromley and Marquis Spruill who were both selected in the 2014 NFL Draft. Bromley was a third-round pick of the New Giants. Spruill went in the fifth round to the Atlanta Falcons.

2014
Syracuse opened the year with victories against Villanova and Central Michigan and finished the season 3-9 overall in Scott Shafer's second year as head coach. The Orange was stout all season defensively, finishing 26th nationally in total defense. Linebacker Cameron Lynch (third team), offensive tackle Sean Hickey (third team) and punter Riley Dixon (honorable mention) received All-ACC honors.

2015
The Orange started the year 3-0 for the first time since 1991, but the team lost their next eight games. A 20-17 victory against Boston College in Scott Shafer's last game as head coach ended the slide and resulted in a record of 4-8. Punter Riley Dixon became the first player in school history to earn All-ACC First Team honors and was drafted in the seventh round by the Denver Broncos.

Syracuse is one of the most represented schools in the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame. The Orange has 18 enshrinees, second-most among ACC programs behind Pittsburgh (25). Coaches Frank O'Neill and Howard Jones were members of the first induction class in 1951. Art Monk (2012) is the program's most recent honoree.

All-America receiver Art Monk was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012, celebrating a standout career that included leading the Orange to a victory in the 1979 Independence Bowl.

Don McPherson enjoyed a return to the Carrier Dome and celebrated his 2008 College Football Hall of Fame induction with friends and former teammates.

Syracuse University's All-Century Football Team featured a Heisman Trophy winner and nine College Football Hall of Famers. The team included players from eight different decades, including several Orange standouts who showcased their talents in the NFL. Donovan McNabb, Marvin Harrison and Daryl Johnston were just a few of many All-Century honorees who went on to professional football stardom.

"Being selected to this elite team typifies the tremendous success that SU football has achieved throughout the 20th century. Some of these athletes are among the greatest to ever play college football. It was an honor for us to recognize their talents and contributions at our final home game of the century," former SU Director of Athletics Jake Crouthamel said.

Members of the All-Century Team were honored at halftime against Temple on Nov. 6, 1999.

HONORED JERSEYS

39 • LARRY CSONKA

Fullback • 1965-67 • Honored: 2007

Csonka led the Orange in rushing in 1966 and 1967 and was named the 1967 ECAC Player of the Year. He ranks fifth on SU's all-time rushing list (2,934 yards. Csonka went on to play for the NFL's Miami Dolphins and New York Giants. He was a member of the 1972 Dolphins team that went undefeated. Csonka was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987. Two years later, in 1989, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

88 • JOHN MACKEY

Tight End • 1960-62 • Honored: 2007

Mackey is known as perhaps the greatest tight end of all-time. He led the Orange in receiving yardage in 1961 and 1962. Mackey went on to become an All-Pro for the Baltimore Colts. A five-time Pro Bowler, he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1992. Mackey died in 2011 at the age of 69. Each year since 2000, the John Mackey Award has been presented to the nation's top tight end.

5 • DONOVAN McNABB

Quarterback • 1995-98 • Honored: 2013

McNabb led the Orange to three straight BIG EAST titles from 1996-98. He was fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior in 1998 and holds the school records most career touchdown passes (77), most yards of total offense (9,950) and most touchdowns responsible for (96). McNabb was taken second overall by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1999 NFL Draft. He was six-time Pro Bowl selection in his 11 years with the franchise.

9 • DON McPHERSON

Quarterback • 1983-87 • Honored: 2013

McPherson authored one of the best seasons in school history in 1987. The Heisman Trophy runner-up, McPherson won the Maxwell (most outstanding player), Davey O'Brien (most outstanding quarterback) awards after leading the Orange to an 11-0-1 season. His 164.3 passer rating that year led the NCAA and stands as an Orange record. Upon his graduation, McPherson spent seven seasons in the NFL and CFL. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008.

THE LEGEND OF 44

Like tailbacks at USC, quarterbacks at Brigham Young and linebackers at Penn State, the running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that greatness has revolved around one jersey number — No. 44.

On Nov. 12, 2005, the number was retired. It is the only retired number in the history of the Syracuse football program. A No. 44 jersey is displayed in the Carrier Dome rafters, honoring the legends who have worn it.

Beginning with Gifford Zimmerman in 1921, 25 players have worn the number. Rob Konrad was the last in 1998. Three of the most famous to don the digits — Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little — rank among the finest running backs to ever play the game.

How much does the No. 44 mean to Syracuse University and the local community? For starters, the University zip code was changed from 13210 to 13244 several years ago. And in 1988, when the University changed phone systems, the exchange was changed from 423 to 443. No. 44 not only has come to represent greatness on the football field, it has become a part of the University's and the community's identity.

A committee has been established to oversee the number. Under very special circumstances, the committee can permit a current student-athlete to wear it.

BILL HORR

Tackle • 1908

The first All-American in the history of Syracuse football, Horr anchored a young offensive line on a team that opened the newly-built Archbold Stadium with a win against Hobart in 1907. The next year, Horr led the Orange to a 6-3-1 record and the first victory in school history against a team from the Western Conference (now Big Ten) when SU topped Michigan 28-4 in the season finale. At the 1908 Summer Olympics in London, Horr won a silver medal in the Greek-style discus throw and a bronze in the free-style discus throw. Horr served as the head football coach at Northwestern in 1909 and at Purdue from 1910 to 1912, compiling a career record of 9-14-2.

HAROLD WHITE

Guard • 1915

White and fellow All-American Christopher Schlacter were the guards on the line that helped Syracuse's offense overpower its opponents by a combined score of 331-16 in 1915. The Orange scored more than 30 points on five occasions and topped the 70-point mark twice in victories against Mount Union (73-0) and Rochester (82-0). The team finished with an impressive 9-1-2 record and was invited to play Washington in the Rose Bowl, but declined because an earlier West Coast trip (the first by an Eastern school) to Oregon State had used up the travel budget. Standing 6-6 and weighing more than 270 pounds, White was one of the biggest players of his era and captained the Orange in 1916.

ALFRED COBB

Tackle • 1917

A 1917 team captain, Cobb was the anchor for an offensive line that led the Orange to an 8-1-1 record, including six straight wins to end the season. Cobb played in the early days of the NFL, when it was still known as the American Professional Football Association (APFA), including for the Akron Pros and the Cleveland Bulldogs. As a member of the 1920 Akron Pros, Cobb was a member of the very first NFL Championship team. Over three APFA/NFL seasons, Cobb played in 21 games as a lineman, starting 16 of them.

JOE ALEXANDER

Guard / Center • 1918, 1919

Alexander and Ernie Davis are the only two players in the Orange annals to earn multiple consensus All-America honors. Alexander starred for Frank O'Neill's SU teams from 1918-20. He also captained the lacrosse team for one season. Alexander graduated from medical school and began practicing medicine in New York City. He specialized in lung treatment and helped found one of the first tuberculosis centers in New York. For seven years (1921-27), he played in the National Football League on weekends while practicing medicine. A center in the NFL's early days for the Rochester Jeffersons (1921-22), Milwaukee Badgers (1922), and the New York Giants (1925-27), Alexander was a consensus All-American in 1918 and 1919. He earned All-America honors again in 1920 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. That same year, the Syracuse football program founded the Joseph Alexander Award, given each year to an Orange player for excellence in football, scholarship, and citizenship.

LOUIS USHER

Tackle • 1918

Usher and fellow offensive lineman Joe Alexander were consensus All-Americans, anchoring the line for the 5-1 Orange in 1918. Usher went on to play professional football for five years for the Rochester Jeffersons, Chicago Stanleys, Chicago Bears, Hammond Pros and Kenosha Maroons. He was tragically killed on Jan. 1, 1927 in an automobile accident near Calumet City, Ill.

EVANDER (PETE) MacRAE

End • 1923

MacRae led the Orange to an 8-1 overall record in 1923, including seven straight shutouts. The three-year football letterwinner was also was the starting center for the SU basketball team. After playing professional basketball for the Syracuse All-Stars, he returned to the University as an assistant basketball coach.

VIC HANSON

End • 1926

A three-sport star in football, basketball and baseball, Hanson was a consensus All-American on the gridiron in 1926 after leading the Orange to a 7-2-1 record. That winter Hanson powered the Orange basketball team to a 19-1 record. Following his college career, Hanson played briefly with the Cleveland Rosenblums in the American Basketball League and then formed the Syracuse All-Americans basketball team. He was also signed by the New York Yankees upon his graduation from Syracuse in 1927 and played one year in their farm system. Hanson served as the head football coach of the Orange from 1930 to 1936, compiling a record of 33-21-5. He is only player inducted into both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and the College Football Hall of Fame.

JIM BROWN

Brown set the Orange record for highest average yards per carry (6.2) in 1956 and broke the single-season rushing record with 986 yards. Against Colgate that season, he established school marks for the most rushing touchdowns (6) and most points scored in a game (43). After leaving SU, he played for the NFL's Cleveland Browns from 1957 to 1965 and scored 106 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971 and College Football Hall of Fame in 1995. In addition to football, Brown excelled at basketball, lacrosse and track. He is a member of the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame and was an All-American midfielder on the Orange's undefeated 1957 team. He is considered by many to be the greatest athlete of all-time, and in 2002 was tabbed by the Sporting News as the greatest professional football player ever.

ROGER DAVIS

Guard • 1959

Nicknamed "Hound Dog" because of his love for training hunting dogs, Davis helped fellow All-American Ernie Davis rush for 883 yards in 1959. He was a member of a Syracuse unit that led the country in toal offense (451.5 ypg) on its way to the program's only national championship. Davis played pro football for the Chicago Bears, Los Angeles Rams and New York Giants. He was a starter at right guard on the Bears team that won the 1963 NFL title.

ERNIE DAVIS

Nicknamed the "Elmira Express" by sportswriter Al Mallette, Davis led Syracuse to a 26-5 record from 1959-61. As a sophomore in 1959, Davis scored two touchdowns against Texas in the Cotton Bowl to help the Orange complete a perfect season and capture the program's only national championship. Two years later, Davis became the first African American and the only SU player to win the Heisman Trophy. He was selected first overall by the Washington Redskins in 1962 and traded to Cleveland. He was diagnosed with leukemia the following summer and died in 1963 at the age of 23, without ever playing in a professional game. The Browns retired his No. 45 jersey shortly after his death, and Davis was posthumously inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1979. In 2008, he was subject of the Universal Pictures film, "The Express," starring Dennis Quaid, Rob Brown and Charles S. Dutton. The film was based on the non-fiction book "Ernie Davis: The Elmira Express" by Robert C. Gallagher.

LARRY CSONKA

Fullback • 1967

Csonka led the Orange in rushing in 1966 and 1967 and was named the 1967 ECAC Player of the Year. He teamed with halfback Floyd Little to form the most potent rushing duo in school history. He holds the Orange record for most carries in a game (43 vs. Maryland in 1967). Csonka ranks fifth on SU's career rushing list (2,934 yards) and recorded two 200-yard rushing games, including 204 yards against Cal as a senior in 1967. Csonka went on to play for the NFL's Miami Dolphins and New York Giants. He was a member of the 1972 Dolphins team that went undefeated and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987. Two years later, in 1989, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. In 2007, Syracuse retired his No. 39 jersey.

TIM GREEN

Defensive Tackle • 1985

Green was a two-time finalist for the Lombardi Award, which recognizes the most outstanding lineman or linebacker. He was named the ECAC Player of the Year in 1985 and ranks first on Syracuse's career sacks list with 45.5. He is the program's top tackler among down lineman with 341 career stops. Green played for the NFL's Atlanta Falcons and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001. After his playing career ended, Green became a commentator for the NFL on FOX. A best-selling author and lawyer, Green was named a winner of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, given annually to six former NCAA student-athletes for distinguished career accomplishments on the 25th anniversary of their college graduation, in December 2011.

TED GREGORY

Nose Tackle • 1987

Gregory was a force during Syracuse's undefeated 11-0-1 season in 1987. He captained a defense that only allowed more than 21 points once in 12 games. He was a finalist for the Lombardi Award, which recognizes the most outstanding lineman or linebacker in FBS football. Gregory completed his four-year career with 242 tackles, third all-time among Orange defensive linemen, and 17 sacks. He went on to play for the NFL's New Orleans Saints.

DON McPHERSON

Quarterback • 1987

The Heisman Trophy runner-up in 1987, McPherson won the Maxwell (most outstanding player), Davey O'Brien (most outstanding quarterback) and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm (most outstanding senior quarterback) awards. McPherson's 164.3 passer rating that season led the NCAA and stands as an Orange record. He also set the school single-season records for most yards per pass attempt (10.2), most yards per completion (18.1) and threw a touchdown pass in 10 consecutive games. Upon graduating Syracuse, McPherson spent seven seasons in the NFL and CFL. After retiring from football in 1994, he joined the staff of Northeastern University's Center for the Study of Sport in Society, before becoming the first executive director of the Sports Leadership Institute at Adelphi University. McPherson was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008 and Syracuse retired his No. 9 jersey in 2013.

JOHN FLANNERY

Center • 1990

Flannery anchored an offensive line that went 3-0-1 in bowl games during his Orange career. A native of Pottsville, Pa., Flannery started at left guard for Syracuse in 1987 before shifting to center. He was a three-time All-American, earning first-team honors in both 1989 and 1990. He was drafted in the second round by the Houston Oilers and made the NFL All-Rookie Team in 1991. He later made stops with the Dallas Cowboys and St. Louis Rams, winning a Super Bowl title as a member of the Rams in 1999. The same year, Flannery was named to Syracuse's All-Century Team.

CHRIS GEDNEY

Tight End • 1992

A native of nearby Liverpool, N.Y., Gedney set the standard for Orange tight ends. He held the school records for receptions by a tight end in a season (34) and career (91) until 2011. His 34 catches and five touchdowns during the 1992 season helped propell Syracuse to a 10-2 record and a victory over Colorado in the Fiesta Bowl. Gedney played in the NFL for the Chicago Bears and Arizona Cardinals. He returned to his alma mater in 2008 and is currently a senior associate athletics director in the SU Orange Club. A member of Syracuse's All-Century Football Team, Gedney was named a 2015 ACC Football Legend and serves as the analyst for Syracuse IMG Radio Network football broadcasts.

DWIGHT FREENEY

Defensive End • 2001

Freeney terrorized opposing quarterbacks from 1998-2001. He holds the Orange records for most sacks in a game (4.5 vs. Virginia Tech in 2000) and season (17.5 in 2001). He finished his career with 34 quarterback takedowns, second only to Tim Green on the Syracuse all-time list. Freeney was team MVP his junior year. As a senior in 2001, he was an All-BIG EAST First Team selection and shared BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year honors. He was also a finalist for the 2001 Lombardi, Bednarik, and Nagurski awards. The Indianapolis Colts made him the 11th overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft. In 2004, Freeney led the NFL with 16 sacks. He won a world championship with the Colts two years later when Indianapolis defeated the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XLI. Freeney has also played for the San Diego Chargers and Arizona Cardinals during his pro career and he ranks in the top 20 in NFL history with 119.5 career sacks.

Gary Anderson was an All-American in 1981 and went on to have a long career in the NFL. He won the league's Golden Toe Award, presented to the most outstanding kicker, in 1998.

THE HEISMAN TROPHY

Honoring the outstanding college football player in the United States. Presented by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York.

ERNIE DAVIS • 1961

In 1961, running back Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, given to the outstanding intercollegiate football player in the United States. Davis edged out Bill Ferguson of Ohio State in what at the time was the closest vote in Heisman history (824 points to 771) to become the first African American and the only Syracuse player to win the coveted award. He rushed for 823 yards and 12 touchdowns on the ground to lead the Orange to an 8-3 record in 1961 and the No. 14 ranking in the final Associated Press college football poll. Davis was selected first overall by the Washington Redskins in 1962 and traded to the Cleveland Browns. While preparing for the AFCA All-American Game in Buffalo, Davis was diagnosed with leukemia. He died in 1963 never getting the chance to realize his dream of teaming up with former SU great Jim Brown in the Cleveland Browns backfield. Davis' Heisman Trophy is kept on display in the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex for all to enjoy.

THE SOLADAY AWARD

It is fitting that the Soladay Award is the most prestigious award given to a student-athlete by the Department of Athletics. After all, Doris R. Soladay epitomized all of the positives in intercollegiate athletics. The Soladay Award is given annually to the top male and female student-athletes who best exemplify the essence of Doris.

From her appointment as the first, and only, Director of Women's Athletics at Syracuse University in 1975 until the day she retired as Associate Director of Athletics on May 31, 1995, Doris dedicated herself to student-athletes wearing the Orange. The SU Department of Athletics and the world of intercollegiate sports lost a dear friend when Doris passed away in May, 2001.

Doris established scholarships for women, while increasing the budgets to run the programs. She worked with the late Chancellor Melvin Eggers and others who supported women's athletics to begin Orange Plus. Throughout her career, Doris made it a point to attend every home athletic contest of every Syracuse team whenever possible. She often cheered on one team in the morning, another in the afternoon and a third in the evening.

Her impact on athletics reaches far beyond "The Hill," however. Prior to the NCAA taking women's athletics into its fold, Doris held offices on numerous committees in the AIAW (Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) on the state, regional and national levels. After the merger Doris directed her energy into the NCAA Council, serving from 1989 through 1995.

Doris was also influential regionally where she was an integral part of the expansion of The BIG EAST Conference to include women's athletics, as well as chairing various committees in the league. The ECAC also benefitted from her knowledge and savvy, where she was a member of the ECAC Women's Steering Committee from 1983-87. For her many outstanding contributions, the ECAC honored Doris with the 1995 Katherine Ley Award, presented annually to a women's athletics administrator who serves as a role model for her colleagues, as well as a strong proponent of women's issues.

It is no secret that since her retirement her presence in the corridors of Manley Field House has been missed, but it is clear that her legacy will remain a part of the Orange forever.

THE ZUNIC AWARD

Presented by Syracuse Football Club, the Zunic Award was created in 2001 to honor Mike and Judy Zunic, who died tragically on July 18, 1989 when a United Airlines plane crashed in Sioux City, Iowa. The pilot, anticipating landing difficulties, requested if some strong passengers would volunteer to give up their seats and sit at the exit doors to assist passengers in the event of an emergency. Mike and Judy volunteered to give up their seats in first class and sit at one of the exit doors. Mike and Judy both died in the crash and those in the Zunic's seats survived.

Mike Zunic was a four-year starter at linebacker and earned a B.A. ('81) and Master's ('82) from Syracuse University in speech communication.

Game-by- game results for every Syracuse football season since 1889. Home games were played on campus at The Oval from 1895-1906 and at Archbold Stadium from 1907-1978. Home games in 1979 were played at neutral sites due to the construction of the Carrier Dome, which has served as the team's home venue since 1980.

Syracuse was a member of the BIG EAST Conference from 1991-2012. BIG EAST standings for 1991 and 1992 are not available, as the conference did not crown a champion those seasons. In 2013, Syracuse joined the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Rankings at the time the game was played are listed with Syracuse first (Associated Press/Coaches Poll) followed by its opponent (Associated Press/Coaches Poll). The AP poll began in 1936. From 1961-67, the AP ranked only the nation's top 10 teams. The coaches poll was a service of the United Press (UP) and United Press International (UPI) from 1950 to 1990. In 1991, the coaches poll was taken over and released by USA Today.

Available game attendance figures are also listed.

The Associated Press poll was introduced in 1936. The poll ranked the top 20 teams in the nation until 1961, when it was revamped to include just the top 10 teams. The top-20 format returned in 1968 and was expanded to include the top 25 in 1989.

The coaches poll was a service of the United Press (UP) and United Press International (UPI) from 1950 to 1990. In 1991, the coaches poll was taken over and released by USA Today.

Bowl Championship Series (BCS) rankings were released from 1998-2013.

IN THE PROS

JIM BROWN

The player that all running backs are measured against. Jim Brown is the only person in the College Football, Pro Football and National Lacrosse Halls of Fame. Brown was a unanimous collegiate All-America selection in football and lacrosse. The 6-2, 232-pound Brown, was the Cleveland Browns top draft choice in 1957. He is considered by many to be the finest runner to ever play the sport. He led the NFL in rushing in eight of his nine campaigns. When Brown retired in July of 1966, he held the NFL records for single-season (1,863 yards in 1963) and career (12,312 yards) rushing yardage, most rushing touchdowns (106), most total touchdowns (126) and career all-purpose yardage (15,549). He was voted to the Pro Bowl every season he played and was named the greatest professional football player of all-time by the Sporting News in 2002.

JIM RINGO

One of the greatest linemen in pro football history, Jim Ringo was the center of Vince Lombardi's great early Green Bay Packers teams, and also for the Philadelphia Eagles. Ringo was an All-NFL selection six times. He played in 10 Pro Bowls and three NFL championship games. Ringo was a member of Ben Schwartzwalder's 7-2 squad that earned a trip to the 1953 Orange Bowl, SU's first-ever bowl appearance.

LARRY CSONKA

Still considered the prototype for NFL fullbacks, Larry Csonka led the Miami Dolphins to an undefeated season and Super Bowl title in 1972. He was the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as Miami defeated Minnesota, 24-7. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three straight 1,000-yard seasons as the Dolphins advanced to the Super Bowl each of those years.

AL DAVIS

A 1950 Syracuse Unversity graduate, Al Davis was the owner of the Oakland Raiders from 1972 to 2011. He served as commissioner of the AFL in 1966 and was the driving force behind the AFL-NFL merger. From 1967-85, Davis' Raiders won an AFL championship, three Super Bowl titles and 13 division championships.

Syracuse's legacy in the Pro Football Hall of Fame ranks among the finest of any college football program. The Orange boast eight inductees, tied for the fourth-most of any school. Jim Brown was the Orange's first representative enshrined in Canton, and Marvin Harrison is SU's most recent honoree. Three players (Art Monk, Floyd Little and Harrison) earned induction during the nine-year period from 2008 to 2016.

JOHN MACKEY

John Mackey is known as perhaps the greatest tight end of all-time. He played 10 seasons in the NFL from 1963-72, including nine with the Baltimore Colts. A five-time Pro Bowler and three-time All-Pro selection, Mackey caught 331 career passes for 5,236 yards and scored 38 touchdowns. He was a member of the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team and was named to the NFL 50th Anniversary Team. Mackey served as president of the NFL Players Association toward the end of his career and helped fight to establish free agency.

ART MONK

Known as one of football's most reliable receivers, Art Monk played for the Washington Redskins, New York Jets and Philadelphia Eagles during a 16-year NFL career that spanned from 1980 to 1995. Monk was selected by the Redskins in the 1980 NFL Draft and helped the franchise to three Super Bowl titles. He was voted to the Pro Bowl after three straight seasons (1984, 1985, 1986) and became the first receiver in league history to surpass 900 career receptions. Monk made at least one reception in 183 straight games and finished his career with 940 catches.

FLOYD LITTLE

A multi-dimensional player, Floyd Little combined his rushing talents with great hands and also was a return man for the Denver Broncos. A five-time Pro Bowler, Little amassed more than 12,000 all-purpose yards during a career that spanned from 1967 to 1975. He led the AFC in rushing in 1970 and recorded the first 1,000-yard season in Denver history the following year, gaining a league-best 1,133 yards. At the time of his retirement, Little ranked seventh on the NFL's career rushing list (6,323 yards). He was a charter member of the Broncos Ring of Fame in 1984.

MARVIN HARRISON

The all-time receiving yardage leader in Syracuse football history, Marvin Harrison played 13 seasons for the Indianapolis Colts and earned eight Pro Bowl invitations. As Peyton Manning's favorite target, Harrison posted eight 1,000-yard receiving seasons, including 1,366 yards in 2006 to help the Colts win their first Super Bowl in 36 years. Harrison holds the NFL single-season record for most catches (143 in 2002) and ranks third in league history with 1,102 career receptions. In addition, Harrison is seventh on the NFL's career receiving yardage list (14,580 yards) and ranks fifth in career receiving touchdowns (128).

ADMINISTRATION

KENT SYVERUD

Chancellor & President

Kent Syverud is chancellor and president of Syracuse University. Appointed by the University's Board of Trustees in September 2013, he assumed the post in January 2014, becoming the 12th leader of the University since its founding in 1870.

Chancellor Syverud came to Syracuse University from Washington University in St. Louis, where he served as dean and Ethan A.H. Shepley Distinguished University Professor since 2006. Prior to that, he spent eight years as dean at Vanderbilt Law School. During his tenure at Washington University, he led efforts to create university-wide programs in Washington, D.C., in partnership with the Brookings Institution, and in New York in partnership with the Olin School. He also advanced efforts to expand online education opportunities, including development of an innovative online master's degree program.

Chancellor Syverud has served since 2010 as one of two independent trustees of the Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill Trust, a $20 billion fund created by BP in negotiation with the White House to pay claims arising from the BP oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico. A 1981 graduate of the University of Michigan Law School, he also was an expert witness for the University of Michigan in the landmark affirmative-action case Grutter v. Bollinger.

After earning a Juris Doctor and an M.A. in economics, Chancellor Syverud went on to work as a law clerk for Judge Louis Oberdorfer of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia and for U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor. He practiced law in the fields of litigation and insurance at Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering in Washington, D.C., from 1985 to 1987. From 1987 to 1997, he served on the faculty of the University of Michigan Law School, earning tenure in 1992 and advancing to associate dean for academic affairs in 1995. He has been a visiting professor at the Cornell Law School, the University of Pennsylvania Law School, and the University of Tokyo Faculty of Law and Politics.

A past editor of the Journal of Legal Education, Chancellor Syverud also has served as president of the American Law Deans Association, as chair of the board of the Law School Admission Council, and as president of the Southeastern Association of American Law Schools. He is a past chair of the accrediting authority for law schools in the United States; the ABA Section on Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar; and a past chair of the Board of Access Group, which is evolving into the largest funded nonprofit organization in the world benefitting legal education.

Chancellor Syverud has published numerous law review articles concerning civil litigation, insurance law, and negotiation, as well as a monograph on the professional responsibilities of insurance defense lawyers. His more recent writings have concerned legal education and service as dean, including the articles "Three Principles of Effective Deaning," "A Parable of Law School Leadership," and "How Deans (and Presidents) Should Quit." A frequent speaker at conferences in the United States and abroad, he has received outstanding teaching awards from students at both the University of Michigan and Vanderbilt University.

Chancellor Syverud and his wife, Dr. Ruth Chen, are the parents of three grown sons: Steven, Brian and David. Dr. Chen, an environmental toxicologist, holds a professor of practice appointment in the College of Engineering and Computer Science at SU.

JOHN WILDHACK

Director of Athletics

A uniquely qualified executive with a vast knowledge of and passion for Syracuse University Athletics, John Wildhack was named Syracuse's 11th director of athletics in July 2016. A veteran leader at ESPN, Wildhack was most recently the network's executive vice president for programming and production. He held that position from 2014-16 and was responsible for 50,000 hours of content annually.

A native of Upstate New York and a 1980 alumnus of the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications, Wildhack held a number of critical leadership roles at ESPN and was responsible for a number of firsts at the network. Those firsts included producing ESPN's first live regular-season college football game in September 1984 and its first live NFL game in August 1987.

In his role as executive vice president for programming and production, Wildhack oversaw all ESPN production efforts, as well as programming acquisitions, rights holder relationship management and scheduling. He managed all league and conference relationships and negotiated all live sports television rights; renegotiated a nine-year deal with the National Basketball Association (NBA), extending the existing contract through 2023; renegotiated a new 20-year agreement with the Southeastern Conference that will extend the existing media rights deal through 2034; helped secure long-term multiplatform agreements with the NBA, Major League Baseball, College Football Playoff, Atlantic Coast Conference, Big 12, U.S. Open Tennis, the Rose and Sugar Bowls, the Women's National Basketball Association, the American Athletic Conference and the Mountain West Conference; and won more than 30 Emmy Awards.

Previously, Wildhack served as executive vice president for production from 2012 to 2014, during which time he was responsible for all ESPN and ABC game, event and studio production work for domestic and international television and radio networks. Prior to that, he was ESPN's executive vice president for programming and acquisitions from 2007 until 2012. During that time, he oversaw all rights negotiations and managing relationships with rights holders for all ESPN entities. These included ESPN, ESPN2, ESPN Classic, ESPNEWS, ESPN Deportes, ESPNU, ESPN International, ESPN Radio, ESPN.com, ESPN3, ESPN Mobile Properties, print and more. In 2009, he began leading strategic program planning for all the ESPN television networks, ESPN on ABC and ESPN's digital platforms.

Wildhack, who was born and raised in Buffalo, first joined ESPN as a production assistant in 1980. He served in a number of production positions prior to taking on a leadership role, including production assistant, associate producer, senior associate producer, producer, coordinating producer and director of event productions.

An active Syracuse alumnus, Wildhack sits on the advisory board for the David B. Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics and was an honoree at the "Newhouse at 40" Gala.

Chancellor Kent Syverud (left) introduced John Wildhack and his family at a news conference on July 12, 2016.

HERMAN FRAZIER

Senior Deputy Director of Athletics

Veteran athletics administrator Herman Frazier was promoted to senior deputy director of athletics in May 2016 after joining the Syracuse University staff as deputy athletics director/chief of staff in 2011.

A native of Philadelphia, Frazier boasts nearly 40 years of experience in athletics administration, including eight years of experience as an athletics director. He has overseen the participation of the Syracuse football team in the 2012 New Era Pinstripe Bowl and the 2013 Texas Bowl. In 2012, he received the NACDA Pioneer Award for his position as the Chef de Mission for the 2004 Olympic Games.

Before coming to Syracuse, Frazier was the senior associate athletics director for sports administration at Temple University. Prior to joining the Owls, Frazier served six years as the director of athletics at Hawaii. He was also the director of athletics at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB).

At Temple, Frazier supervised the football, basketball, baseball, soccer, and crew programs, and was the administrative liaison for budget, compliance, financial aid, coaching searches, scheduling, academic support, facility issues, event management, media relations, and marketing. He was also responsible for administrative supervision of the equipment operation, facilities, event management, sports medicine, and strength and conditioning. Frazier handled the administrative logistics for Temple's appearance in the 2009 Eagle Bank Bowl and the 2010 and 2011 men's basketball NCAA Tournament appearances.

Frazier was the athletics director at Hawaii from 2002 through 2008, where he guided Warrior athletics to unparalleled success with the football team earning a spot in the 2008 Sugar Bowl following an unbeaten regular season. Under Frazier's direction, the football team earned four consecutive bowl bids, and the volleyball program advanced to back-to-back Final Fours. During his tenure, Frazier created premium seat donations, established a five-year financial plan, negotiated head coaching contracts for football and women's basketball, and was instrumental in bringing an Olympic trials event to Honolulu.

Frazier's first athletics director post was at UAB in 2000. As the second director of athletics in the history of the school, Frazier started a $30 million facility improvement plan and was responsible for instituting new management concepts and a strategic master plan for the program.

Frazier began his career in administration immediately upon graduation from Arizona State, joining the Sun Devils staff as a graduate assistant for the track & field program in 1977. In 1979, he was appointed assistant director of events and facilities. During his 23-year tenure at ASU, Frazier moved up the ranks to the position of senior associate athletics director for business operations. Frazier was the administrator for 10 Olympic sports that won numerous national championships and the football program, which earned two Rose Bowl berths, and he directed business affairs, operations, and stadium management.

An eight-time All-American track performer at ASU, Frazier was the leadoff runner for the 1976 Olympic gold medal-winning 4x400 relay team. From 1980 through 2004, Frazier served on various United States Olympic committees, including two stints as the U.S. Olympic Committee vice president from 1996 through 2004. In 2004, Frazier was chosen Chef de Mission for the entire U.S. delegation at the Athens Olympics and presided over the most successful U.S. Olympic team in history with 103 medals.

ANTHONY DI FINO

Associate AD/Business Development

Syracuse native Anthony Di Fino joined the Orange staff as associate athletics director for business development in March 2016.

Di Fino is responsible for developing strategic marketing campaigns intended to cultivate community relationships and build support for Syracuse Athletics. He is a member of the external relations team that steers decisions on marketing, fundraising, ticketing, sponsorship and communications initiatives.

Di Fino's previous experience includes positions at IMG Learfield (IMGL) Ticket Solutions and in the athletics departments at Army West Point, Columbia and Fordham.

The 2013 IMGL General Manager of the Year and 2014 IMGL Executive of the Year, Di Fino rose quickly through the company's ranks. He served as the IMGL general manager for the University of Akron from 2011 to 2013, and worked as the general manager at Penn State from May 2013 to August 2014.

In August 2014, Di Fino was promoted to IMGL Northeast Regional Manager. In that capacity, he directed the sales efforts for 13 IMGL properties, instituting pricing strategy, developing sales schedules and campaigns, overall marketing strategies and supervised the general managers at each property.

During his tenure at Akron, Di Fino led a sales team that increased new revenues by 72 percent, highlighted by a 860 percent increase in partial plans and a 91-percent growth rate in group sales. At Penn State, he directed a sales team that sold more than 5,000 new seasons tickets in two consecutive years, and oversaw a growth in group sales of more than 200 percent.

Prior to joining IMG Learfield, Di Fino served as the assistant athletics director for ticket sales and client services at the United States Military Academy, overseeing all ticket sales efforts, tailgating and marketing strategies for Army West Point. His previous experience also includes working as the ticket manager at Columbia University and as a marketing assistant at Fordham University.

Di Fino is a 2006 Fordham graduate where he was a member of the football team. He earned a master's degree from Columbia in 2009.

SUE EDSON

Executive Senior Associate AD/ Chief Communications Officer

As the chief communications officer for Syracuse University Athletics, Sue Edson is responsible for all public relations and media relations functions for Orange athletics.

Edson serves as a member of the department's senior leadership group and the external relations team, which includes communications, marketing, tickets, fundraising, corporate sales, digital media and video production. She also supervises the athletic communications, digital enterprises and multi-media production teams. The communications staff is responsible for the dissemination of information for Syracuse's 20 intercollegiate teams to appropriate organizations, management of the department website (Cuse.com) and social media channels, acting as a liaison between the media and the department, and educating administrators, coaches and student-athletes with regard to public speaking and interviewing skills.

A 26-year veteran of the Orange athletics department, she was promoted to executive senior associate athletics director/chief communications officer in the spring of 2015. Previously, she served as the associate director of athletics for communiations from 2006-14 after stints as assistant director of athletics for communications (2004-06) and director of athletic communications (1997-2004). Edson was inducted into the College Sports Information Directors Association (CoSIDA) Hall of Fame in 2012.

Prior to her appointment as the director of athletic communications in 1997, Edson worked as an assistant director for seven years, including four years as the department's publications coordinator. As publications coordinator, she was responsible for the production of 16 media guides. In addition, she handled the day-to-day public relations duties for women's basketball.

Edson began her career at Syracuse University in 1990 as an assistant sports information director and was responsible for handling the public relations for the Orange's 17 Olympic sports.

In 2006, Edson was honored with the 2006 Eastern College Athletic Conference-Sports Information Directors Association (ECAC-SIDA) Irving T. Marsh Award for excellence in the field of sports information. The follwong year, she was recognized with the Greater Syracuse '40 Under 40' award for her significant contributions in the workplace and local community.

Edson has been the media coordinator for the NCAA Men's Basketball East Regional in Syracuse five times and served as the media coordinator for the first and second rounds of the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship at the Carrier Dome in 2016. She served on the ECAC-SIDA Board of Directors for eight years and was the organization's president in 2002-03.

An adjunct professor in the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications, Edson taught a class in sports public relations from 1994 through 2013.

Edson graduated from Syracuse in 1990 with a dual degree in broadcast journalism from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications and policy studies from the Maxwell School.

Edson resides in Jamesville with her son, Thomas, and her daughter, Tracey. Her late husband, Rob Edson, was an athletics administrator at Syracuse and Onondaga Community College before his passing in 2013. She is a co-president of the Jamesville-DeWitt Youth Athletic Association Board of Directors and serves as the co-coordinator of the basketball program. In addition, she is a youth basketball coach and was previously an active member of the Jamesville Elementary Parent Teacher Group (PTG).

KIMBERLY KEENAN-KIRKPATRICK

Deputy AD/Senior Women's Administrator

Kimberly Keenan-Kirkpatrick joined the Syracuse University Department of Athletics as the deputy athletics director/senior women's administrator in August 2015. She came to Syracuse from Seton Hall University, where she worked as a member of the school's athletics administration since 2006.

At Seton Hall, Keenan-Kirkpatrick was an associate director of athletics for five years prior to her promotion to senior associate director of athletics in 2011. She directed Seton Hall's NCAA compliance program, was the school's deputy coordinator for Title IX, served as the sport administrator for multiple programs, chaired the BIG EAST Track & Field and Cross Country Championship committees, and initiated many Pirate Blue Athletics fundraising activities.

As the associate athletics director for compliance, Keenan-Kirkpatrick was responsible for overseeing rules education and monitoring compliance issues for all 14 of Seton Hall's intercollegiate sports.

Prior to her appointment at Seton Hall in 2006, Keenan-Kirkpatrick was the associate athletics director and senior women's administrator at Lafayette College for four years. She served in the same capacities at Kutztown University from 1996-2002. Before joining the Golden Bears, she worked as an attorney and served as Drew University's business manager and head cross country coach.

A track & field standout at Kent State, Keenan-Kirkpatrick earned the Mid-American Conference's Bob James Memorial Postgraduate Scholarship and placed second in the 5,000-meter run at the MAC Indoor Championship her senior year.

Keenan-Kirkpatrick's reputation as an elite track & field athlete was proven later in her career when she served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Track & Field team at the 2005 World Championship and 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing, China. In both instances, and in many others, she worked specifically with America's distance runners.

Keenan-Kirkpatrick transitioned to a management role for USA Track & Field in 2011, serving as the head women's manager for the Pan Am games in Guadalajara, Mexico, and, most recently, as the track & field event manager for the U.S. men and women at the 2015 Pan Am games in Toronto.

Keenan-Kirkpatrick earned a law degree from Seton Hall in 1993. She also holds a Bachelor of Arts in psychology from Kent State. She and her husband, Brian, live in Manlius with their two daughters, Libbie and Madison.

JEREMIAH MAHER

Associate AD/Ticket Sales & Operations

Jeremiah Maher, who joined the Syracuse athletics department staff in 2007, is responsible for supervising all facets of Syracuse's ticketing and customer service, as it relates to the Carrier Dome Box Office operation.

Before coming to Syracuse, the Rochester, N.Y. native was the director of ticket sales at Seton Hall University. While with the Pirates, Maher established policies and procedures for re-seating in the Prudential Center, coordinated with the athletic development office to implement a priority seating system for men's basketball and generated strategies for the men's and women's basketball ticket sales campaigns. He began at Seton Hall as the ticket manager, a post he held for five years before being promoted.

Prior to working at Seton Hall, Maher was the assistant director of sports information and marketing at Siena College.

Maher, who has volunteered at the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship, is a member of the Delta Sigma Pi Professional Business Fraternity and the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA). He earned a bachelor's degree in marketing and management from Siena and an MBA, with a concentration in sports management, from Seton Hall.

Jeremiah and his wife, Jackie, have two children, Nicholas and Caroline.

MOREY MOSSOVITZ

Assistant AD/Facilities & Event Operations

Morey Mossovitz was named Syracuse's assistant athletic director of facilities and event operations in August 2011 after serving in the specialized role of facilities coordinator with academic support responsibilities.

Mossovitz oversees the daily operations, facility upkeep, and renovation projects for the Lampe Athletics Complex. He is the primary supervisor for Manley Field House, Carmelo K. Anthony Basketball Center, Iocolano-Petty Football Complex, Ensley Athletic Center, SU Soccer Stadium, J.S. Coyne Stadium, Wohl Field, Hookway Fields, the Skytop Softball Stadium and select Carrier Dome events.

Mossovitz provides administrative support to Vice President and Chief Facilities Officer Pete Sala and serves as the department's liaison with Syracuse University Parking Services, the Department of Public Safety, EMS, Visit Syracuse, the University's Office of Government and Community Relations and the Office of Recreation Services.

As game manager for all Olympic sporting events and tournament manager for select Atlantic Coast Conference and NCAA events, Mossovitz works with nearly every sport program on campus. Most recently, he served as the tournament manager for the 2015 NCAA Men's Basketball East Regional and was recently appointed the administrator in charge of overseeing Syracuse's camps and clinics.

Prior to his promotion in 2011, Mossovitz acted as the Orange's academic and facilities coordinator. He primary responsibilities included academic coordination for men's and women's lacrosse and tennis, while assisting in the daily and gameday operations of the Lampe Athletics Complex and the Carrier Dome.

Mossovitz earned his bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in educational studies from Syracuse University in 2008. Two years later, he received a master's degree in student affairs counseling from the University. Mossovitz is a member of Psi Chi, the International Honor Society in Psychology. He is also a member of the Chi Sigma Iota Counseling Honor Society.

During his undergraduate and postgraduate career, Mossovitz served as team manager, graduate assistant and assistant director of camps for the Orange men's lacrosse program.

A native of Baltimore, Md., where his family still resides, Mossovitz is an alumnus of St. Paul's School for Boys. He currently lives in Fayetteville with his wife, Elizabeth, and their dog, Penny.

JAMIE MULLIN

Senior Associate AD/Administration

Jamie Mullin was promoted to senior associate athletics director for administration in July 2013 after serving in multiple roles since joining the Syracuse staff in 2003.

Mullin was hired as the Orange's director of athletic compliance in July 2003. He was promoted to associate director of athletics for team services in 2006, and served as associate director of athletics for administration prior to his current appointment.

Mullin is the liaison to the University's legal counsel, judicial affairs, admissions, and financial aid departments. In addition, Mullin is responsible for athletics department policy development and strategic planning. He also provides managerial support to the equipment room, sports nutrition staff, and video support services. Mullin is the sport administrator the SU's men's lacrosse, women's ice hockey, field hockey, and rowing programs.

Before coming to Syracuse, Mullin worked at Fresno State for two years. He was named Fresno State's director of compliance in June 2001 and was promoted to assistant athletic director for compliance a year later. Mullin also previously worked in the compliance office at Central Michigan University as an assistant from August 1999 through May 2001.

Mullin received his bachelor's degree in history from Northern Michigan University. He also holds a master's degree in sport administration from Central Michigan University.

Jamie and his wife, Sara, reside in Jamesville, with their sons, Tate and Quinn.

BRAD PIKE

Assistant AD/Sports Medicine

A veteran sports medicine professional, Brad Pike was appointed assistant athletics director for sports medicine in September 2014. He is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the sports medicine department.

Since 2000, Pike has worked with the men's basketball program and has directed the injury rehabilitation program for all sports. In 2005, Pike was named head athletic trainer and director of sports medicine after serving as an associate athletic trainer for the Orange for five years. Pike previously worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Syracuse from 1989-91. Before returning to the University in 2000, Pike spent nine years working in outpatient physical therapy centers.

A 1989 graduate of Marietta College in Ohio, Pike majored in sports medicine as an undergraduate and received a master's degree in physical education from Syracuse University in 1991. He added a bachelor's degree in physical therapy from the SUNY Health Science Center in 1994.

Pike is certified in full-body active release techniques (ART), sound-assisted soft tissue mobilization (SASTM) and is a certified National Academy of Sports Medicine Performance Specialist (PES)and Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES). His special interests include exercise recovery and strength training.

A certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), the College Athletic Trainers Society, the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association and the New York State Athletic Trainers Association, Pike has presented at numerous symposiums and workshops. He also serves as a lecturer for exercise science courses at Syracuse University's School of Education.

Brad and his wife, Lynne, have a son, Ryan, and daughter, Emily. The Pikes reside in Jamesville.

TOMMY POWELL

Assistant Provost/Student-Athlete Academic Development

A proven leader in academic training, Tommy Powell came to Syracuse University as provost for student-athlete academic development in August 2013. Powell has an extensive background in guiding student-athletes to success in the classroom and in the community. He joined the Orange staff from Iowa State University, where he served as the associate athletics director for academic services since 2008.

While with the Cyclones, Powell implemented a standard comprehensive academic support program for all student-athletes. The program helped student-athletes attain a higher cumulative GPA than the general student population from 2011 to 2013. Iowa State's 79 percent federal graduation rate in 2010 was the highest in the Big 12 and the seventh-best among FBS schools. In 2009, Iowa State's CHAMPS/Life Skills program earned the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association National Program of Excellence Award.

Prior to his time at Iowa State, Powell was the associate director of the Louisiana State University Academic Center for Student-Athletes from 2001 to 2008. In addition to serving as the academic coordinator for several teams, including football and basketball, Powell monitored the progress toward degree and and eligibility requirements for at-risk student-athletes.

Powell began his academic support career at LSU where he served as an academic counselor for the College of Arts and Sciences for two years. He was the director of counseling services at River Parishes Community College from 1998 to 2000 before working as the director of the TRIO Dissemination Partnership Program at Southeastern Louisiana University in 2000 and 2001. The program trained and supervised college faculty on the implementation of supplemental instruction.

Powell earned his bachelor's degree in psychology in 1992 and his master's degree in counseling in 1995 from Southeastern Louisiana. He and his wife, Deborah, have two sons, Tyler and Ethan.

PETE SALA

University Vice President/Chief Facilities Officer

Pete Sala is the University's vice president and chief facilities officer. In addition to managing the operations of SU's athletic facilities, including the Carrier Dome, Sala responsible for all University building projects and oversees several other departments on campus, including Campus Planning, Design and Construction, Business and Facilities Maintenance Services, Physical Plant, Housing and Food Services Maintenance, and Energy Systems & Sustainability Management.

A member of Chancellor Kent Syverud's Executive Team, Sala is the construction manager for the recently announced West Campus Project, which includes more than $200 million of upgrades for the Carrier Dome.

Sala started at the Dome in 1982 as a production assistant and advanced through the ranks to production manager in 1988 and operations manager in 1991. He served as assistant director of facilities operations for the Carrier Dome from 1991 through June 2005 when he was promoted to associate director of athletics for facilities. In 2010, Sala assumed the role of managing director of the Carrier Dome. He previously served as the interim director of athletics from mid-March to July 6, 2015.

At the Dome, Sala is responsible for all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the facility, including coordinating and scheduling events, managing the box office, maintaining the budget, and overseeing all necessary building maintenance. He supervises a full-time staff of 35, a part-time staff of more than 400, and the nearly 100 students that assist in Dome operations and facility changeovers.

Along with his Carrier Dome responsibilities, Sala is the construction manager for all athletics facility upgrades and new building projects, including recent additions like the Carmelo K. Anthony Basketball Center and Ensley Athletic Center.

A 1979 graduate of Jamesville-DeWitt High School, Sala attended Morrisville College before transferring to the University of Massachusetts, where he completed the school's turf management program.

Pete and his wife, Laurie, reside in Jamesville with their son, Jake.

MARK WHEELER

Director of Compliance

Mark Wheeler was named Syracuse's director of compliance in October 2015 after previously serving in the same position at Boise State University for two years.

Wheeler reports directly to the University General Counsel's Office and works closely with the director of athletics. He is responsible for managing all aspects of the University's compliance program, including educating coaches, student-athletes, boosters, athletic department staff, and other University offcials about NCAA, Atlantic Coast Conference, College Hockey America and Intercollegiate Rowing Associations (IRA) rules and regulations. Wheeler is also responsible for overseeing all compliance processes and procedures dealing with the University's monitoring of recruiting, eligibility, financial aid, and certification.

While at Boise State, Wheeler oversaw the Broncos' compliance department, creating and delivering a comprehensive education curriculum for coaches, non-coaching staff, student-athletes, boosters and other constituents. In addition, he provided NCAA and Mountain West Conference rules interpretations for coaches, staff and student-athletes.

Before joining the Broncos, Wheeler was assistant director of compliance at Ohio State University for one year, managing all areas of compliance for the men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's cross country, and men's and women's track & field teams.

Wheeler's previous experience includes serving as an athletic compliance coordinator/graduate assistant at Pepperdine University from August 2011 to May 2012. While there, Wheeler played in integral role in rebuilding compliance processes and procedures, drafted a compliance manual for coaches and a new hire/intern compliance manual. He also completed internships at Brigham Young University and Paradigm Sports Management.

In 2012, Wheeler passed the bar exam in California and received his Juris Doctor from Pepperdine the same year. He earned his undergraduate degree in management from BYU in 2009.

Mark and his wife, Kaela, have two sons, Bennett and Anders.

DAVID WISHART

Executive Director of Athletic Development

David Wishart was hired as the Orange's executive director for athletic development in August 2014. A former track and field student-athlete at Syracuse, Wishart worked in regional development for the University before joining the department. He is responsible for the creation and implementation of all athletic fundraising efforts.

Wishart transitioned to athletics after overseeing Syracuse University's regional development in New England, Chicago and Texas for a span of three years. Before that, he worked in Princeton University's capital giving office with a focus in Northern California.

A 2007 Syracuse graduate with a dual major in finance and marketing from the Martin J. Whitman School of Management, Wishart earned nine varsity letters as a member of the cross country team and distance runner for the track & field teams. He captained the Orange harriers and competed primarily in 3,000- and 5,000-meter runs. At the 2006 BIG EAST Outdoor Track and Field Championship, Wishart scored points in the 10,000-meter run.

Wishart earned an MBA with a focus in sports administration from Auburn University in 2009. While at Auburn, he worked as a graduate assistant in the athletics department.

A 2003 graduate of New Trier High School in Winnetka, Illinois, Wishart was a two-time, all-state track athlete. Born in North York, Ontario, he represented Canada at the 2004 World Junior Cross Country Championship in Brussels, Belgium.

Wishart is the executive director of Syracuse University's Varsity Club and is a former member of the board of directors for SU's Generation Orange.

RICK BURTON

Faculty Athletics Representative

Rick Burton is the David B. Falk Endowed Professor of Sport Management in Syracuse University's David B. Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics. He has served as the Orange's faculty athletics representative to the NCAA and the Atlantic Coast Conference since 2014. In addition to his duties as faculty athletics representative, Burton teaches in Syracuse's Renee Crown Honors Program and has served as a visiting professor at Kufstein Tirol University in Austria, as well as the International Olympic Academy (IOA) in Olympia, Greece. He was selected as the Falk College Faculty Member of the Year for Teaching in 2011 and 2013.

The co-author of the textbook "Global Sport Marketing: Sponsorship, Ambush Marketing and the Olympic Games," Burton is currently finishing a book on his collected opinion columns from Sports Business Journal. During the last 20 years, his scholarly research and commentary has been published in several sports marketing journals.

Prior to his appointment at Syracuse in August 2009, Burton served as the chief marketing officer for the U.S. Olympic Committee at the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing, where he directed the USOC's partnerships for International Olympic Committee (IOC) and USOC sponsorship activation.

From 2003-07, Burton was the commissioner of Australia's Sydney-based National Basketball League (NBL) and was responsible for every aspect of the NBL's development and growth, including securing lucrative broadcast rights fees, naming rights sponsorships, player and referee collective bargaining agreements and league profitability.

From 1995-2003, Burton led the University of Oregon's Warsaw Sports Marketing Center to international prominence serving as both its director and executive director (1998-03). During his tenure, Burton initiated Oregon's engagement with Fudan University in Shanghai, China and worked closely with Nike as they developed their business efforts in China. While at Oregon, Burton also created the Burton Marketing Group, working almost exclusively in league management and sponsorship for entities such as IMG, the U.S. Basketball Academy, Philippine Basketball Association (PBA), Japanese Pro Soccer league (J-League), National Football League (NFL), National Hockey League (NHL), Australian NBL, Visa, the Oakland Raiders and Sport Accord. More recent clients have included the Buffalo Bills (NFL), the Professional Bull Riders and TSE.

In the mid-1990s (1993-95), Burton supervised numerous clients ranging from the NFL, Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Gillette, Sprint and Universal Studios while serving as a vice president for the sports and entertainment marketing agency Clarion Performance Properties in Greenwich, Conn.

During his varied career, Burton has written for the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Sports Business Journal and SI.com, among others. In addition, he's hosted his own sports business television show in Portland, Oregon. Burton has provided national radio network commentary for the Sporting News Radio Network and is a frequent commentator on the sports industry. A regular conference host/moderator and inspirational/motivational speaker, Burton's most recent engagements have included Chip Ganassi Racing (NASCAR and Indy Racing), the Association of Luxury Suite Directors and Point 3 Basketball.

Burton began his career as a sportswriter in Syracuse before moving on to the Miller Brewing Company in Milwaukee, where he worked for 12 years in brand management and sports public relations. He served as national advertising manager for Miller Lite's award-winning "Less Filling – Tastes Great" advertising campaign and also worked as a brand manager for Sharp's and Lowenbrau.

THE TRADITION

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

In today's intercollegiate athletics, competition is so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency. Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds.

Now, in its 64th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 146 NCAA team championships, including 74 in women's competition and 72 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 163 times in men's competition and 129 times in women's action. Given the ACC's strong history and the strengthening of its ranks with the additions of Notre Dame, Pitt and Syracuse in 2013, followed by Louisville in 2014, those numbers – and the league's longstanding tradition of excellence – appear destined to grow in the years ahead.

ACC football enjoyed another banner year in 2015 as Clemson tied the FBS record for wins by going 14-1, captured the ACC title, and reached the College Football Playoff national championship game. The Tigers were ranked No. 1 in all six weeks of the College Football Playoff standings. Three ACC teams were ranked in the final Associated Press Top 15 as Florida State (14th) and North Carolina (15th) joined the Tigers (2nd). The ACC also finished with three teams ranked in the final Amway Coaches Poll, which mirrored the AP rankings with Clemson (2nd), Florida State (14th) and North Carolina (15th) being recognized. Nine conference members made bowl games, giving the league 31 bowl teams over the past three seasons. In the last two years, ACC teams have recorded eight wins against top-10 non-conference opponents, the most of any league nationally.

The ACC had four first-round picks in the 2016 NFL Draft and 14 players selected in the first three rounds. Over the past three years, 115 ACC football student-athletes have been drafted, the most of any conference.

2015-16 IN REVIEW

The 2015-16 academic year saw ACC teams capture five more national team titles. The ACC has averaged more than four national titles per year over the past 19 years and has claimed multiple NCAA titles in 33 of the past 35 years.

Academically, the member institutions of the Atlantic Coast Conference again led the way among Autonomy Five conferences in the latest "Best Colleges" rankings released by US News & World Report. ACC member institutions combined for an average rank of 55.8, marking the ninth straight year that the ACC led all Autonomy Five conferences.

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The conference will conduct championship competition in 27 sports during the 2016-17 academic year – 13 for men and 14 for women. The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954.

The 13 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming and diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first meet held in tennis at Wake Forest University. Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, field hockey, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming and diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing, with volleyball deciding its champion by regular-season play.

HISTORY

The ACC was founded on May 8, 1953 at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C. with seven charter members – Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest – drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of by-laws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid-South, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline. Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971 when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation. The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978 when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1,1991 with the addition of Florida State.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of Miami (Fla.) and Virginia Tech. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

The ACC added its 13th and 14th members on Sept. 18, 2011, when Pitt and Syracuse accepted invitations to join the conference. The two schools officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013. Notre Dame also officially joined the ACC that day after announcing on Sept. 12, 2012 its intention to enter the league for competition in all sports but football, bringing the membership of the conference to 15. The Fighting Irish will play five football games with ACC schools each year.

On July 1, 2014, Louisville entered the ACC on the same day Maryland withdrew, keeping the conference's membership at 15 institutions.

ACC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Marking its 12th anniversary, the Dr Pepper Atlantic Coast Conference Football Championship Game will once again be a primetime experience at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte with either a 7:45 p.m. kickoff on ESPN or an 8 p.m. kickoff on ABC on Saturday, Dec. 3. The game pits the winner of the Coastal Division against the winner of the Atlantic Division to determine the overall conference champion.

The inaugural ACC Football Championship Game was held in 2005 in Jacksonville, Fla., with Florida State defeating Virginia Tech to claim the conference crown. It was the first of three championship games held in Jacksonville. In 2008 and 2009, the game was played at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, Fla. before moving to its current home in Charlotte for 2010. The conference and the Charlotte Sports Foundation announced a six-year contract extension in 2014 to keep the game in the Queen City through 2019.

Clemson won its second league championship in five seasons in 2015, beating Coastal Division winner North Carolina 45-37 in front of a record crowd of 74,514.

In addition to the ACC Football Championship Game, Bank of America Stadium is home to the Belk Bowl, the NFL's Carolina Panthers, and to various other college football games.
